2009 COLUMBIA VALLEY MERLOT

1805 marks the year Lewis and Clark discovered Washington's Columbia River Valley. Wine grapes were soon planted in the region and have been cultivated ever since by a hardy band of grape growers. 1805 Merlot offers the lush, vibrant fruit for which Washington wine is renowned. Its bright black cherry and raspberry aromas and rich dark fruit flavors are complemented by subtle toasty oak and a long, smooth finish making it delicious with a wide variety of grilled meats.
