STORY

South African golfing icon David Frost has always had a passion for fine wine. In fact, it was through picking grapes on his family's wine farm near Stellenbosch that a young David earned enough pocket money to play golf, launching him on his successful professional career. The Frost family has been in the South African wine business for over 60 years and David's own wine brand has been winning awards since his first wine launched in 1997 with a consistent focus on quality grapes and superb winemaking.
