2017 CHARDONNAY ZANETTA VINEYARD

ARROYO SECO, MONTEREY

Back in the 1970s, we discovered early on that the unique soil and climate in the Arroyo Seco appellation produce excellent wine grapes. Alluvial soils, brisk Pacific Ocean breezes, and shade from the nearby mountains create ideal cool climate conditions in our Zanetta Vineyard for growing Chardonnay grapes of structure and complexity. Barrel fermentation and sur lie aging in French and American oak impart richness and length, highlighting the wine's flavors of Bosc pear, Meyer lemon, and toasty vanilla.
