Séguret - Les Coteaux Schistoux - 2014

CÔTES DU RHÔNE VILLAGES - APPELLATION D'ORIGINE PROTÉGÉE

We source grapes for 'Les Coteaux Schistoux' from an undulating east-facing slope high in the rugged mountainous terroir of Séguret in the southern Rhône valley. This high altitude single vineyard is so predominantly planted with Grenache Noir, intermingled only here and there with some Syrah that it comes close to one of the purest expressions of Grenache Noir in this valley.

Here some of the vines are fifty years old, some even older, and their low yields suit a long cuvasion followed by long maturation in French oak barrels for 22 months.

A typically seductive Boutinot Séguret - full-bodied ripe red fruit overlaid with oaky nuances and interwoven with the characteristic sweet spice of Grenache Noir. As smooth, supple and finely-toned as ever, but potentially more approachable on its release than earlier vintages.
