24 Hours can be the difference between being a part of history and making it. In professional sportscar racing there is no greater challenge than competing in a 24 hour endurance race. Drivers, teams and racecars are tested under the most grueling conditions possible. Adobe Road Winery's founder, Kevin Buckler, has battled at the highest level of professional sportscar racing as both a driver and an owner for more than two decades. Among his team's 200+ podium finishes, are victories at some of the worlds most prestigious endurance races, including the 24 Hours of Le Mans and the 24 Hours of Daytona (4 times). Winning at this level of racing requires extreme focus, attention to detail, teamwork and a drive for perfection. It is with that spirit, and a lifelong passion for fine wine, that he and his wife, Debra, opened Adobe Road Winery. Along with a small and dedicated team, they have been crafting ultra-premium, award-winning wines from some of the very best vineyards that Sonoma and Napa counties have to offer.
