Fred's Red

Mendocino County
Red Wine

My name is Fred, a McNab Shepherd—a working dog established in Mendocino County over 100 years ago by my Scottish ancestors. Back then, we herded sheep. Today, the McNabs on this ranch round up grapes. A sheep dog herding grapes, you say? You may think I'm barking up the wrong vine here, but it's a rigorous job: scaring the turkeys who eat our grapes, patrolling the vineyard, trying to remember where I buried that bone. I'm very particular about flavor and choose only select vines under which to bury my best bones. Better flavor, better aging. You're sure to like Fred's Red and so will your canine-loving friends. Cheers!
