POTRERO
-CHARDONNAY-

CHARDONNAY 2018 UCO VALLEY . MENDOZA

The terroir is to the grape what the potrero to the soccer player. To give birth to a wine of excellence, the vine needs a terroir which challenges its potential to the fullest. To give birth to a soccer player of excellence, what is needed is a potrero, a makeshift soccer field, which stimulates his virtues and forges his talent in his young years. In Argentina, in the far-off confines of the world, both concepts, terroir and potrero, blend. Ironically, the poorer the terroir and the potrero, the better the results.

Harvest and manual selection. AGING: 10% of the wine was fermented in used French oak barrels in order to preserve purity of aromas. After fermentation, 20% of the wine was aged six months in the same barrels. PROFILE: fresh, fruity and elegant. Attractive flavors of white peach, lime and mineral notes. REGION: Uco Valley, Mendoza.
