Texas High Plains
2019

The Merlot vines planted in our Cerro Santo estate vineyard are grown on their own roots, and we are proud that the Texas High Plains is one of only a few places in the world capable of growing ungrafted vines successfully. Our Merlot Reserva Especial is truly a special wine, maturing with extended time in both French and American oak. It exhibits lovely red fruit aromas with bolder flavors of black plum, anise, and dark chocolate, and is a perfect complement to pasta and meat sauce, roasted veggies, and herbed cheeses.

At Adelphos Cellars:

We believe wine is all about family. The word "adelphos" translates to "brethren" from the ancient Greek. The certainty that sharing an inspiring bottle of great wine brings us together as brothers and sisters, mothers and daughters, fathers and sons, is what drives our passion for making this wine. We invite you to share the fruits of our labor, in the hope that enjoying this bottle with those you love will bind us all closer together as one family. Welcome to ours.
