ARTIST 0004/1800
JEREMY BACHARACH
CHICAGO

Originally from Long Island, NY, Jeremy Bacharach moved to Chicago to attend The School of the Art Institute in Chicago. At SAIC, he was Art Director of F News Magazine, winning several national design awards. By day, Bacharach works in interactive design for one of the largest agencies in the world, while also maintaining a small boutique practice designing for indie bands, cafes, and the like. By night, he creates in a variety of methods: painting, drawing, photography, and digital media. Bacharach's inspiration often comes from vintage pop culture and frequent trips to Mexico with his wife Ana, a writer. Many ideas are sparked by their creative collaboration, and an earlier version of Sirena del Desierto was made for her.
