Abbey of Saint-Hilaire

PINOT NOIR 2006
ESTATE BOTTLED

What is now the Abbey of Saint-Hilaire began as a primitive chapel in the 6th Century started by Hilarius, the Bishop of Carcassonne. By 817, the Abbey was under the domaine of the Order of Saint-Benedict.

It was in the Abbey of Saint-Hilaire's historic cellars where the world's very first sparkling wine was created in 1531.

Located at an altitude of 1300 feet, the cool microclimate and iron rich soil vineyards in the foothills of the Pyrenees Mountains are perfect for the production of exceptional Pinot Noir. Low yields that are hand-picked enhance the quality of this delicate varietal.

Agriculture Certified environmentally friendly for the respect of nature, the consumer and a better taste.

ESTATE BOTTLED

This elegant Pinot Noir delivers aromas of cherries and earth with generous juicy flavors of raspberry and plum. It is intense yet delicately balanced with nice mineral overtones and a hint of hazelnut from 7 months of oak aging. This wine is a perfect match for grilled salmon, penne with sausage and mushrooms, roast chicken or sauteed scampi with garlic.
