TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION

ALL OUT 2010 Merlot

The 1882 match between England and Australia, where England were ALL OUT in the second innings for 77 runs, handed Australia their first Test win and gave birth to the Ashes. This event was seen by many as the watershed in the coming of age of Australia as a nation where almost anything seems to be possible. That spirit has produced this stunning Merlot, a variety long dominated by the Old World but now in its second, New World vintage.

The All Out showcases Merlot's best qualities. Strong yet amiable of softness, plum, blackberries and cassis are complemented by a background of moose oak. The palate has a velvety texture with flavours of plum, black cherry and rich rounded oak characteristics from six months ageing on oak. This wine will perfectly enhance steak dishes such as home-made steak pie.
