About the Artist

This painting of Mary Clementine Becker was produced by her late father, Dr. Eugene Ellison, at the time of her debut. She and our daughter, Mary Clementine, opened the Becker Vineyards' tasting room in 1996. Our vineyard was planted on the site of a nineteenth century stand of mustang grapes prized by our German neighbor for its wine. We hope that you will enjoy our wines with good food and in prudent moderation, to life, to love, and to friendship.
