IN 1967, legendary grower Warren Dutton planted his first vineyard, and helped to establish Russian River Valley as one of the world's great appellations for Pinot Noir. Today, his sons, Steve and Joe, carry on Warren's legacy and have established Dutton Ranch as one of the region's preeminent vineyards. Sourced from five prized blocks nestled in the cool, foggy hills above the Russian River Valley, this wine displays remarkable concentration and depth, with aromas of black cherry, red currant and raspberry.
