2014 SAUVIGNON BLANC

FIG TREE VINEYARD

DRY CREEK VALLEY • SONOMA COUNTY

An iconic silhouette in the Dry Creek Valley, our ancient fig tree stands guard over our Sauvignon Blanc plantings. The vineyard lies at the confluence of Dry Creek and Wine Creek, where gravelly soils give the grapes a unique flavor profile. Certified Biodynamic and organic farming methods enhance this wine's expression of terroir, and leaf thinning exposes the clusters to sunlight, intensifying Sauvignon Blanc's fresh citrus characteristics. We think you might taste a hint of fig, too.
