Dedication Series #29

Our "Old Vines" Cabernet Sauvignon is produced from grapes that were planted in the early 1970's. Both Champoux, in which we are a partner, and Sagemoor Vineyards are some of the oldest in Washington State. They are located approximately 110 miles apart on two very distinct benches above the Columbia River.

We dedicate our "Old Vines" to Mr. A. P. Woodward who circa 1860 settled on 400 acres in what is now Woodward Canyon, near the present community of Lowden, raising livestock and various agricultural crops. Now, 150 years later, the canyon which bears his name supports a hillside vineyard and our winery proudly bears his name.
