CABERNET SAUVIGNON

2016

estate bottled • Texas: High Plains

alcohol 14% by vol

Each year on the Joshua Farm, we pick all of our grapes by hand and there are always more Cabernet grapes than we can pick. This makes the robins in our vineyard very fat and happy. At Joshua Farm, we naturally ferment our wines using the natural yeast from the grape skins themselves. We would describe our Cabernet as a full bodied red wine with hints of black cherry and a dash of vanilla. Even the robins are singing about it!
