TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION

2009 Old Bull

The Turnbull name goes back to the early 1300s when a Game Keeper of Robert the Bruce saved the king's life by turning away a ferocious bull which had threatened to gore the king. The grateful king knighted his subject "Turnbull" and awarded him a crest featuring a bull's head twisted back that has adorned our wines grown in the Napa Valley since 1979.
