54% Shiraz, 31% Merlot, 10% Pinotage, 5% Roobernet - 2010

The Name.... There is evidence that vines were scientifically domesticated for the first time about 3000BC.

With this came many of mankind's great leaps forward in terms of civilisation and cuisine.

"With my passion for wine and philosophy that quality should not necessarily cost an arm and a leg, I continue an ancient tradition and bring you 3000BC - a fine, exceptionally civilised wine, that is modern, yet honours the ancient art that created it" - Donald Keys

This blend has a delicate nose of ripe black fruit, lush juicy plums and velvety dark chocolate that carries through to the palate.
