Our grapes are grown exclusively on our small family owned estate in the foothills of the Andes mountains at 1089 meters. We hand pick our grapes and let them mature for 19 months in new French oak barrels to reach their ultimate potential. The small production reflects the individual and distinguished characteristics that are unique to our micro climate and limited to only 900 bottles. We hope our mountaineer spirit shines through in the pleasure of our guests experiencing the lifestyle to which we ourselves aspire- Great wine served with great food, shared by friends old and new.

Enjoy now or cellar for up to 12 years. We recommend decanting for 1 hour before serving. 1778 . . . King of Battle
