It is not uncommon to blend a white and red wine, and we have discovered a very nice mix.

60% Sauvignon Blanc and 40% Malbec

This blend shows the fruit flavors of the Sauvignon Blanc such as lime, green apple and passion fruit. Mixing in the Malbec which is typically a dark, inky purple color gives us a lighter red but still with the hint of plum and black cherry. Hints of oak from the Malbec along with the acidity and high tannin. Very nice dry finish.
