90+ RESERVE

LOT	Chardonnay
82	Sta. Rita Hills, CA
	2,200 cases

Story: The Sta. Rita Hills lie in the cooler, windier and fogger mouth of the Santa Ynez valley where Pacific air lingers a little longer in the summer afternoon to create a thirst quenching Chardonnay with bold flavor. To create balance, half of the wine is fermented in barrel and the other half in stainless steel. The wine rests another 11 months in barrel before it is ready for bottling.

Taste: Hearty aromas of freshly picked peaches and pears with accents of vanilla bean and baking spices. The wine's gentle texture also bursts with more orchard and citrus flavors that will invitingly hang around while you nibble on pan-seared scallops, risotto with truffles, or a bowl of homemade mac 'n cheese.
