SWEET LAFITTE

Patriot or pirate, few American legends spellbind like the lore of the infamous Lafitte Brothers, Pierre and Jean. This sweet yet smooth red with juicy notes of strawberries and luscious chocolate evokes visions of the glittering surfaces of the Lafitte, Red, Calcasieu and Sabine Rivers, havens in the Free State of Sabine.

The moss-draped swamps of the Texas and Louisiana border sheltered the 40-mile stretch of No Man's Land known as the Free State of Sabine. Fleeing justice, the lawless and seditious haunted these snake-infested backwaters and bayous. Within the haven of the Devil's Playground, treasures were buried, legends were forged, and the independence of the Texas nation born. Our extraordinary wines reflect the adventurous mythos of such saints and sinners. Uncork a bottle to create your own legend.

Welcome to Free State.
