Four generations of my family have been vigneron in South Australia. Over three decades in the Barossa I was given the opportunity to make Australia's most famous wine. | The inspiration from the Barossa's best old vine, low yielding, Mataro vineyards, created ANNEXUS - an addition to PLEXUS. It is a unique selection from centenarian vines in Light Pass. | Ancient, illustrious vineyards combined with meticulous, traditional winemaking, and fifteen months in mainly older French oak will ensure the age worthiness of this celebrated variety.
