ALTA VISTA[®]
ROSE
MALBEC 2005

Alta Vista, from the French Edonia family wine group, has the pleasure to introduce Argentinean wines which express the true typicity of its varieties and terroirs.

This rosé is obtained from a short maceration of Malbec grapes and was fermented at cold temperature for preserving the freshness of the fruit.

We recommend that this Rose be tasted between 46 to 50°F accompany each rayón of sun during the year, making the most of those small pleasures in life.

This wine is a natural product therefore it can have sediments in the bottle.
