TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION

From the sunny south of France but inland on the foothills of the Pyrénées, the vines benefit from a climate allying the Mediterranean sunshine with the cooler mountainous nights. This allows for the slower ripening of grapes, creating a wine of intensity, complexity and finesse.

Mostly hand picked, this fashionable Pinot Noir variety thrives in the clay and crushed limestone soil of these southern French vineyards. A charming medium-bodied red wine that is delicious both with and without food.
