SEVEN HILLS VINEYARD

*I*N 1980, ONE HUNDRED YEARS after our family began farming in Eastern Washington, we planted the old blocks of Seven Hills Vineyard. Along with my father, Vicky and I founded Seven Hills Winery in 1988. From that first vintage, my goal has been to craft intensely structured, balanced wines that express their vineyard origin.

This wine comes from our oldest Merlot blocks, hand-harvested from the same vines each year. It exemplifies the heritage and terroir of Seven Hills Vineyard. A substantive structure lies beneath appealing deep berry flavors surrounded by notes of dried herb, spice, and vanillin over a supple round core.
