In the pastoral countryside of Bergerac east of Bordeaux the Mérillier siblings tend 136 acres of vines. Their mother is Marie and their surrounding hillsides are the Coteaux de Plaisance, hence the name of the domain which has nourished this close-knit family since 1850. You hold in your hand their juiciest red, a wine of astonishing value, showcasing the mouth-filling purity of Merlot (90%) spiced with Cabernet Sauvignon (10%).
