PASO ROBLES

Grapes were first planted in Paso Robles in 1797. But it's only recently that this quiet, down-to-earth place has joined the ranks of California's great wine regions. Like the founders of Paso Robles, our wines are bold, honest and forthright. Mina Mesa pairs well with roasted, grilled and sautéed dishes.
"My passion is tending the land and cultivating high quality grapes each vintage. That's why I'm up every morning at dawn, working hard and taking on challenges."
Troy Javadi, 7th generation farmer
