MALBEC - ROSÉ 2019 | VALLE DE UCO
— ARGENTINA —

We began looking for a new adventure and itching for a meaningful next chapter as we found ourselves empty nesters. We decided to embark on a project that reflected our love of Faith, Family and the Shared Table. We both grew up in a tradition of gathering around the table each night and continued that tradition with our four sons. So much life lived there: the exciting, the messy, the laughter and of course the debates. Now, as our sons are moving into a season of their own family tables, our desire is to have a legacy that honors them and all they have given us.

This Malbec - Rosé has a light bright salmon-pinkish color. Elegant and vibrant. The presence of strawberries is noticeable, also almonds and soft herbs fill the nose. Fresh entrance on the palate, medium body with notes of red fruits. Perfect to enjoy its freshness on warm days.

A SHARED TABLE IS A SHARED LIFE

May God give you heaven's dew and an abundance of grain and new wine.
