Grand Teton National Park

Grand Teton National Park, home to the Teton Mountain Range, is definitely worth a visit. Famous for its flora and fauna, the park is home to over 900 species of flowering plants, and 400 species of birds, hoofed animals, reptiles, rodents, carnivores (including grizzly bears and wolves!), and more. You'll probably spot many on a hike through the park. Spring, when animals come out of hibernation, is one of the best times. Just remember not to get too close! Continuing your hike, you'll end up in Jackson Hole, a silver-green valley with crystal-clear mountain lakes. Grand Teton is renowned for its spectacular hiking trails (totalling more than 380 kilometres throughout the park), as well as climbing routes up the high peaks for varying skill levels. In the winter, a trip to one of the world class skiing resorts won't leave you disappointed. In fact, the Tetons are known as the birthplace of extreme skiing in America - and one of the places with the heaviest snowfalls. But don't worry, not all the hills are extreme. There is something for everyone.

Resort close to Grand Teton National Park Jackson Hole

Welcome to a beautiful resort in a nature reserve, located almost 300 metres above the town of Jackson. Here you will enjoy breathtaking views of the Teton mountain range, including the iconic Grand Teton. The luxury resort offers a variety of accommodation, from cosy rooms to spacious mansions and mountain villas. Whether you're exploring the Grand Teton or Yellowstone nature parks, or you're testing your fishing skills on the Snake River, this resort offers luxury and comfort for every guest.

You will stay in a second-floor suite equipped with two separate bedrooms and a shared bathroom with double sinks. Enjoy free Wi-Fi and stunning views from your luxury accommodation.

Cody

Cody is a charming town located just east of Yellowstone National Park, less than two hours drive away via the Buffalo Bill Cody Scenic Byway. The town happily calls itself the gateway to Yellowstone. Cody was founded in 1896 by Colonel William F. Cody, better known as the famous Buffalo Bill. The sights and activities in Cody therefore mainly revolve around the Wild West – and this is also reflected in the look of the streets. Among others, you can visit the Cody Firearms Museum or the historic Irma Hotel, named after Buffalo Bill's daughter. There is always plenty to do in Cody and perhaps your holiday will coincide with one of the many events that happen all year round. Some of the most exciting attractions include ice-fishing, music shows, rodeos and festivals.

B&B on a ranch Cody

On the outskirts of Cody, you will find a characteristic Bed & Breakfast ranch with an authentic 'western' atmosphere. This unique accommodation is the ideal base to explore Yellowstone National Park. In the area, you can enjoy hiking, fishing or wildlife spotting. Test your shooting skills at the 'rifle range' or relax by the campfire. Your host has been running the ranch since 1980 and is happy to share his extensive knowledge of the region.

Your room offers three comfortable double beds and high windows that provide stunning views of the surrounding countryside. You also have a private bathroom with both a bath and a shower. The communal living room and garden terraces offer additional space to relax and enjoy the surroundings. Despite its quiet location, downtown Cody is close by and well worth a visit. Air conditioning and free Wi-Fi are provided.

West Yellowstone

The West Entrance of Yellowstone National Park is located in the US state of Wyoming, near the town of West Yellowstone, Montana. It is also just a short drive from Island Park, Idaho. The West Entrance is one of the primary access points to the park that offers easy access to a range of natural wonders and geothermal features. Experience the park's geothermal wonders, including the famous Old Faithful geyser. Witness vibrant hot springs, bubbling mud pots, and colourful geysers along the boardwalks of the Upper Geyser Basin. Wildlife enthusiasts will be captivated by the park's diverse inhabitants, from bison to grizzly bears. Explore the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone with its awe-inspiring waterfalls. Enjoy activities like hiking, camping, and fishing amidst the breathtaking landscapes. Discover rich history at the Old Faithful Inn and Yellowstone's heritage centre. There is something for everyone!

Rustic ranch Gallatin Gateway

Experience the charm of the old west while staying on an ambience-filled ranch between Big Sky and Yellowstone National Park. From horseback riding and fly-fishing to inspiring workshops, there's always something to do here. And after a day of adventure, enjoy local Montana dishes at the famous on-site restaurant.

Your stay is comfortable and restful, with two double beds and a private bathroom. Relax on the shared veranda and start each morning off right with a hearty, hot continental breakfast. Enjoy the unique atmosphere and beautiful surroundings!

Wildlife spotting in the national park Bozeman

Discover Yellowstone uniquely and up-close with a safari renowned for its first-class wildlife observations and breathtaking park experiences since 1991. The nature guides are experienced wildlife biologists and former rangers who will make sure your visit is both unforgettable and fully tailored to your personal interests. Your safari starts in the early morning hours, as this gives you the greatest chance of seeing wildlife. You have the chance to see herds of bison and grazing elk, as well as go in search of wolves and bears. Every day in Yellowstone offers a new adventure, prepare to be amazed as your guide shares their knowledge about the wildlife and local ecosystem.

Best of all, you don't have to worry about planning - the whole adventure has been carefully arranged for you. They share their passion for nature with you with minimal impact on the environment. You pay a $20 entrance fee per person, or bring you can bring your annual national park pass.

Great Falls

The charming town of Great Falls is perfectly situated midway between Glacier National Park and Yellowstone National Park. Surrounded by breathtaking natural beauty and nestled between 4 mountain ranges, 3 rivers, 2 wilderness areas and 1 nature preserve, it is the ideal starting point for an unforgettable outdoor adventure. Explore various attractions such as museums and historical sites that reflect the rich history of the region. Experience adventures in the great outdoors, from hiking and fishing along the beautiful Missouri River with its breathtaking waterfalls, to spotting various wildlife such as grizzly bears and eagles in the nearby nature reserves. Sample the local cuisine at one of the town's restaurants, or discover the local Native American history at First People's Buffalo Jump State Park.

Boutique hotel close to Jacksonville Beach Great Falls

Welcome to a charming 1890s boutique hotel located in Great Falls, Montana. Experience a fusion of modern comforts with historic character, which makes this accommodation extra special. Enjoy a stay just steps from Jacksonville Beach and explore the various museums and art galleries nearby. Enjoy the beautiful surroundings while hiking or mountain biking, or go fishing, kayaking and canoeing on the many nearby lakes and rivers. End your day with a drink in the hotel's Irish Pub or enjoy Irish dishes in the restaurant.

You will stay in a bright room that features two comfortable double beds and a private bathroom. Laundry facilities are available and you can use the gym. Free Wi-Fi is available.

Glacier National Park

With mountain lakes, alpine meadows, glaciers and white peaks, Glacier National Park is reminiscent of Switzerland. That is, if Switzerland had grizzly bears, beavers, otters, moose and mountain goats! Glacier National Park is found in the Rocky Mountains on the border with Canada. Most park visitors explore the area via the infamous Going-to-the-Sun Road. This scenic highway is only open in the summer and runs from the west entrance all the way to St. Mary. You can stop regularly to enjoy the view. Movie buffs may recognise Wild Goose Island from the opening scene of Stanley Kubrick's film, The Shining. You can also explore Glacier National Park on foot or on the water. There are endless hiking trails of all different levels. Lake McDonald is a great place to go kayaking and spot sea eagles, or visit Two Medicine Lake in the early morning to watch the sunrise.

Inn on the edge of Glacier National Park West Glacier

Your accommodation is on the edge of Glacier National Park in Montana. All year round, you can indulge in all kinds of outdoor activities in nature here. In summer, you can hike, fish or boat in the area and in winter it is an ideal place for skiing, snowboarding or hiking in the snow. Your hosts will be happy to welcome you and can tell you more about the area.

You will stay in a cottage where you can enjoy nature in peace and quiet. On the first floor you have two bedrooms, each with a double bed, and on the ground floor there is a third bedroom also with a double bed. The bathroom is on the ground floor. The kitchen has enough facilities to prepare a meal or a barbecue. There are several common areas in the Inn that you can use, such as the 'games room', where you can play billiards or a game of chess.

Eco tour with a Native American guide Browning

Embark on an unforgettable adventure through Montana's pristine wilderness together with a local guide from the Blackfeet Nation, where you will discover the natural treasures of Montana and dive into the rich culture of the Blackfeet. Led by an expert guide with over forty years of hunting and fishing experience, this tour offers a unique and authentic experience you won't find anywhere else.

During this adventure, you will explore the Badger-Two Medicine area, which is part of the Rocky Mountain Front, near the southern boundary of Glacier National Park. This is a 6-mile (9.65 km) day hike and leads through an area that is of great spiritual importance to the Blackfeet Nation. The landscape is rich in mountains, rivers, wetlands and wildlife. For over 10,000 years, creation stories and traditional customs have been passed down from generation to generation. Get carried away by the fascinating stories and impressive scenery, a tour like this does not happen often. During this tour, you will hike to the Two Medicine River, where you can have lunch.

Portland

Portland, Oregon's largest city, is a vibrant spot in the Pacific Northwest with a friendly atmosphere and a young population. There is a strong emphasis on sustainability here, as well as many beautiful city parks, including the gigantic Washington Park. This park is packed with flora and fauna from all over the world, plus a zoo, tennis courts and even an archery range. The city is on the banks of the Columbia River and the Willamette River, where the snow-capped peaks of Mount Hood are usually visible. Portland is also home to more than 75 microbreweries where happy hour is held twice a day. It's easy to find a delicious cup of coffee the next morning because there are almost as many coffee shops as microbreweries too. From Portland, you can explore the surrounding area and take hiking tours to the Columbia River Gorge and waterfalls.

Hotel in the centre Portland

Have an unforgettable experience at a charming boutique hotel, beautifully located in Portland. A perfect combination of historic charm and contemporary comfort, this hotel offers guests the perfect base to explore the city's vibrant culture and arts. Explore chic boutiques, local art galleries and vibrant nightlife from this ideal location. Enjoy the comfort of 24-hour room service and explore Portland on a bike from the hotel.

Bend

Bend, situated on Oregon's Deschutes River, was originally a logging town but now it's a paradise for all kinds of outdoor recreation. Water sports enthusiasts enjoy rushing rivers and calm flat lakes, while keen skiers have a great choice of runs in the Cascade Mountains. Hikers can climb the extinct Pilot Butte volcano or visit the Newberry National Volcanic Monument to see the Lava River Cave, Oregon's longest lava cave. There are also great mountain bike trails and rock-climbing routes to be explored. The town of Bend also has the High Desert Museum, which is well worth a visit, with its artistic performances and collection of wild animals. For the beer lovers, Bend has 22 microbreweries, which is more per capita than anywhere else in Oregon. Or, try out your hand at fly fishing. If you don't have much luck, the many local restaurants serve freshly caught salmon and trout.

Holiday home in nature Bend

Enjoy an unforgettable stay in sunny Bend, Central Oregon, where adventure meets relaxation. Explore the surrounding mountains, lakes and rivers, or take a trip to Mount Bachelor, just 30 minutes away. After a day of exploring, enjoy local cuisine in Bend's many charming restaurants. With 320 days of sunshine a year, this is the perfect place for outdoor activities and relaxation.

Your accommodation is set on five acres of peaceful farmland, with two comfortable bedrooms, a bathroom, living room and a fully equipped kitchen. Relax in the spacious garden or on the covered terrace with a barbecue, while enjoying the impressive views of the Cascade Range. Laundry facilities and Wi-Fi are available.

Willamette Valley

Willamette Valley is a world-renowned wine-growing region. The Willamette River runs through this fertile valley runs all the way from Eugene to Portland, where it joins with the Columbia River. The valley is home to over 500 wineries, many of which are run by families who produce delicious wines with a lot of passion and a touch of individuality. The Pinot Noir, in particular, is said to be an outstanding wine in this region. Visit modest Salem, the capital of Oregon, with its many museums. Or go to free-spirited Eugene, full of energetic students, beautiful parks and good restaurants. In addition, the waterfalls of Silvers Falls State Park are well worth visiting, as is the Evergreen Aviation & Space Museum. This gigantic aviation museum houses many famous historical planes and it even has an aviation-themed water park, making it an ideal outing for the whole family.

B&B in Wilamette Valley Newberg

Frequently asked questions about this itinerary idea

Is this a set in stone trip that I can book like this?

No, this is just an example of a typical Little America trip. This will give you an idea of what a trip could look like. When planning your trip, you can share all your personal wishes and interests with us. Together, we will then design a trip that completely suits your preferences. Taking into account availability of components on your dates, we will eventually book a unique trip for you.

Are these the accommodations where I will stay or are there any changes possible?

This sample trip includes only a few of our accommodations. We are happy to look at your requirements in terms of comfort, location and care, to ensure the trip fully suits your preferences.

Are these the activities included in this trip or can I change this?

Like all components, we can also tailor the activities to your preferences. Depending on your interests, we will look at the activities we offer to find the ones that suit you best. So in addition to the activities mentioned in this sample trip, there are many more options to choose from.

What are the options in terms of flights?

For this sample trip, we use flights with a reputable airline known for comfort and value for money. Be it economy, premium or business class - we work with several airlines to find the best connection in your preferred price category.

What is the price of this trip?

Good question! An exact answer is hard to give, as there are a lot of factors that influence this. Consider:

- How many months in advance you book
- In which month you are travelling
- Your degree of flexibility regarding flight dates
- Your requirements in terms of accommodation, activities and rental car
- The availability of components

An average price per person for this trip is shown on the website. If you book, for example, 10 months in advance and travel in low season, this may be lower. In contrast, if you book a few months in advance and travel in high season, the trip price will be higher.

I am interested and would like to see what the possibilities are for me. How do I proceed?

You can reach us by phone from 9am until 6pm on 020 36 08 35 57. You can also submit a contact form on our website and we will contact you. We can then schedule an appointment to discuss your travel plans. This appointment can take place where and when it suits you best. Online, or at our office in London. During the day, in the evening, or at the weekend.
