

Thackray Williams advises Duncan Print on Bridger acquisition

Thackray Williams, a law firm with offices in Bromley, Sevenoaks, West Wickham and London, are pleased to have advised Welwyn Garden City-based client Duncan Print Group Limited in respect of its acquisition of the business of Bridger Packaging.

The acquisition included £3m-worth of packaging machinery, 26 employees and contracts with a number of respected customers.

Duncan Print has annual turnover of around £6.5m and 50 employees. Managing director James Duncan says the acquisition should help them hit close to £10m turnover. He said Bridger Packaging was a fantastic addition to the group that would bring “a wealth of experience and skill to our site as well as an impressive kit list that will add significant firepower to our production and excellent cover across all departments”.

The Thackray Williams team was led by Corporate Partner Nick Gabay, with assistance from Emma Thompson (Employment Partner) and Penny Hall (Commercial Property Partner).

Gabay said, “It was a pleasure to work with Bill and James Duncan on this transaction and we are delighted to have played our part in achieving the latest stage in their growth plans. We wish them all the best with the acquisition.”

Nick Gabay
Partner

Nick is a Partner in the Corporate & Commercial team, based in the Sevenoaks office. Nick is known for his pragmatic and efficient approach to legal advice.

Nick brings with him his expertise in all corporate and commercial matters, in particular: M&A (buying and selling companies, MBOs, private equity); Demergers, share buybacks, share-for-share exchanges and other corporate reorganisations; Articles of association, shareholders' agreements and other corporate advice; Joint ventures; and Employee share incentive schemes.

e: nick.gabay@thackraywilliams.com t: 01732 496 468