

Mountain West Women's Basketball Championship – Semifinals

Postgame Notes | March 12

#1 UNLV 62, #5 Colorado State 52

Championship Notes

- The No. 1 seed has now made the championship game 16 out of 25 times in MW tournament history.

UNLV Notes

- UNLV has won back-to-back Mountain West women's basketball tournaments and is currently riding an eight-game win streak in the championship. The win streak is tied as the third-longest all-time in tournament history: Boise State – 13 (2017-21), New Mexico – 9 (2003-05), New Mexico – 8 (2007-09).
- With the win, UNLV advances to the championship of the MW women's basketball tournament for the fourth time in school history. The Lady Rebels also made the championship game in 2002, '22 and '23.
- The four title-game appearances are tied as the sixth-most in the MW.
- The MW women's basketball championship record for
- UNLV improves to 20-22 in the MW women's basketball championship all-time.
- The Lady Rebels are looking to become just the third program to 3-peat at the MW women's basketball championship, joining Boise State (2017-20) and New Mexico (2003-05).

Colorado State Notes

- Marta Leimane recorded 22 shot attempts, setting a sophomore record for attempts and tying the semifinals mark.
- The Rams drop to 4-8 in MW tournament semifinal contests and 22-23 all-time in MW women's basketball tournament history.