

Mountain West Women's Basketball Championship – Semifinals
Postgame Notes | March 12
#7 San Diego State 72, #6 Boise State 69

Championship Notes

- The No. 7 seed has made the championship game for the first time since 2021 and the fifth time overall.
- The No. 7 seed is 1-3 in the MW championship game.

San Diego State Notes

- San Diego State has earned a spot in the MW Women's Basketball Championship Game for the sixth time and first since 2013. The Aztecs are 2-3 in the title game.
- The six title game appearances are tied for third-most all-time, behind just New Mexico and Utah (7).
- Adryana Quezada scored a season high 26 points, the most in a MW semifinal contest since March 12, 2018, when Boise State's Marta Hermida poured in 30 and Fresno State's Candice White scored 28.
- San Diego State improved to 21-22 in MW women's basketball championship history, including a 6-7 record as the No. 7 seed.

Boise State Notes

- The Broncos fall to 19-7 all-time in MW tournament play.
- Boise State is now 5-3 in MW semifinal games.