- Overall, this is the 13th overtime game in Mountain West tournament history.

San Diego State Notes

- San Diego State has earned a spot in the MW tournament semifinals for the 17th consecutive year. The last time SDSU did not make the semifinals was in 2007.
- The Aztecs have now won nine straight tournament games over UNLV, a streak dating back to 2003.
- Darrion Trammell logged five steals, tied for sixth-most in a single tournament game.
- Jaedon Ledee recorded 34 points, falling one-point shy of the top five all-time in MW tournament single-game history. Ledee also shot 18 free-throw attempts, tied as the fifth-most in a single tournament game.
- SDSU outrebounded UNLV 50-31. The 50 rebounds are tied as the second-most in a MW tournament game and it tied the quarterfinals record.
- The Aztecs improve to 43-17 (.717), the most wins and highest win percentage in MW tournament history.

UNLV Notes

- Dedan Thomas Jr. finished with 29 points, just three points shy of tying the freshman tournament scoring record, set by Wyoming's Graham Ike on March 10, 2021.
- UNLV hasn't advanced to the MW championship semifinals since 2014.
- The Rebels drop to 29-21 all-time in the MW tournament.
