GAME NOTES

Falcons at a Glance:

Falcon scoring is led by back court duo Milahnne Perry and Madison Smith, both averaging 16.8 and 11.5 points per game, respectively.

In Mountain West games, the Falcons closed the season leading the league in three-point production (.350) and steals per game (11.00, 20th nationally). Across all games, Air force leads the Mountain West in turnover margin (+4.61, 25th nationally) and turnovers forced per game (19.32, 37th nationally).

MW Offensive Boards Leader:

Freshman Jayda McNabb's 3.9 offensive rebounds per game currently leads the Mountain West across all games and ranks 22nd in Division I. At 5'10", McNabb is one of four players in the country shorter than 6'0" currently averaging 3.9 offensive boards or greater. Against the Mountain West, McNabb currently averages 1.22 more offensive boards than second (Desi-Rae Young, UNLV).

All-Time/Last Time in the Tournament:

Air Force sports a 4-8 record in the Mountain West Tournament since the start of Chris Gobrecht's tenure as head coach. The Falcons, finishing league play with an 11-7 conference record in 2021-22, earned its first-ever bye in the tournament on the way to a 75-60 win over Nevada. Prior to the Gobrecht era of Falcon hoops, Air Force had won one postseason game in its Division I era, both over Colorado State in 2007 and 2011.

On March 5 of last season, the Falcons' season came to close, falling to No. 10 San Jose State, 62-51, in the opening round of the 2023 Mountain West Basketball Championships.

All Time/This Season Against Fresno State:

Air Force is 4-21 in the all-time series against Fresno State, with all four victories belonging to Chris Gobrecht's Falcons. Air Force went 0-2 against the Bulldogs in 2023-24, falling 74-68 at the Academy on Feb. 14 and 59-49 in Fresno to open Mountain West play on Dec. 30.

An Upward Trajectory for the Falcons

Across the board, Air Force's offensive production has improved since the start of Mountain West play in December. The Falcons, closing non-conference play averaging 61.6 points per game and sitting ninth in the league (61.00), currently ranks third in the Mountain West with a 65.56 scoring average in conference games. In field goal percentage, Air Force opened league play shooting .360 from the field (Utah State - last in the category - currently averages .369). The Falcons currently rank sixth in shooting percentage, getting .403 against MW opponents. From three-point range, Air Force - who shot what would currently be a league-low .266 from three at the start of conference play - leads the conference at .350 across the 18-game series.

Defeating Boise State on the road to close the 2023-24 regular season, Air Force rides a three-game win streak into postseason play for the first time since 1993-94.

GAME NOTES

A trio consisting of McNabb, Keelie O'Hollaren and Perry tops Air Force's league-leading three-point production, averaging .391 (18-46), .364 (60-165) and .353 (41-116), respectively.

Steal Brigade:

Air Force sports three players (Smith, Perry, McNabb) with top-ten league numbers in steals against Mountain West opponents. No other MW program has more than two. In 17 Mountain West games, McNabb's 1.82 steals average ranks second in the conference.

Air Force is Undefeated Overall When...

- Scoring 80 or more points (3-0);
- Scoring 70 or more points (8-0);
- Leading with five minutes to go (14-0);
- Shooting better than opponents (11-0).

Air Force is Undefeated in Clune Arena When...

- Leading opponents at halftime (7-0);
- Holding opponents to 60 points or less (5-0);
- Allowing opponents more points off turnovers (4-0);
- Out-rebounding opponents (6-0);
- Shooting 15 or more free throws (5-0).
- Leading opponents with five minutes to go (9-0).

Air Superiority:

Perry leads the Falcons in total points (522), points per game (16.8), field goal attempts (481) and baskets (193) and assists (84). Perry's 3.50 assist average in Mountain West games is currently the sixth-best mark in the league.

Earning a game high 20 points in Air Force's 85-46 win over Utah State (Feb. 28) to total 499 in 2023-24, Perry became Air Force's Division I single season points record holder, surpassing Riley Snyder's 490 in 2021-22.

Falling against Nevada on Feb. 7, Perry reset her career best, scoring 30 points on 10-20 FG and 4-5 from three, marking just the fifth 30-point output by a Falcon in the past decade and the second this season.

Defeating San Jose State on the road, 78-56, on Feb. 3, The Falcons were led by Perry's 24 points (9-14 FG, 4-6 3FG). Perry, opening the game with 14 points on a perfect 4-4 from three and 5-5 from the field gave the Falcons' leading scorer more points than the entire San Jose offense through the majority of the first half.

In Air Force's 75-71 win at Nevada (Jan. 10), Perry earned 26 points and led the floor in scoring, going 2-3 from three-point range and 8-10 from the free throw line, marking her third game since Dec. 16 with 26 points or more. Air Force's .625 mark from three against the Wolfpack is the highest percentage posted in a Mountain West game this season. In the Falcons' preceding home contest against San Diego State on Dec. 3, Perry once again reset her career best, earning 28 in a 71-63 overtime victory over the Aztecs.

Perry scored eight in the extra session against the Aztecs, paving the way for the Falcons' win.

Perry's 27 against Weber State (Dec. 16) was the Falcons' highest scoring individual performance since Kamri Heath earned 27 in Air Force's 2022-23 win over Navy (90-50, Nov. 11, 2022). Perry then followed up that performance by earning 28 in an overtime win over San Diego State (Jan. 3).

With 672 career points under her belt, Perry is currently on pace to become Air Force's 19th all-time career 1000-point scorer.

Career Showing for Smith:

At Colorado State (Jan. 17) Madison Smith earned 31 points on 14-20 shooting and 3-6 from three, marking a career-best for the junior and the highest scoring performance for a Falcon since Riley Snyder put up 34 at New Mexico on Feb. 24, 2020. 31 points at CSU is just the fourth 30-point-or-better performance for a Falcon in the past ten years.

14 made shots in a game currently is the highest mark for a player among Mountain West competitors in 2023-24.

Rainbow Wahine Standouts:

Perry finished the Rainbow Waine Showdown in Honolulu the top scorer of the event, averaging 14.33 PPG and being named one of five to the All-Showdown team.

Madison Smith completed her time in Hawaii a perfect 10-10 from the free-throw line – The only player in the four-team field to finish perfect from the stripe.

Senior Taylor Britt led the event in steals, totaling ten while averaging 3.33 a game.

Starting Off Right:

Air Force opened Mountain West play at 2-2 for the third-straight season, all three marking the best starts to conference play since Air Force joined Division I in 1996. A 3-2 start would be the best league mark a Falcon team has earned since 1994-95.

Next-Gen Fighters:

The 2023-24 Falcons roster seven freshmen, the largest class at Air Force since the 2016-17 season and the largest in the Mountain West this season. The newest cadre of cadets under Chris Gobrecht have had an immediate and seismic impact in 2023-24:

O'Hollaren, with 58 made threes in her freshman season, surpassed Mariah Forde's 57 (2017-18) on Feb. 28, going 4-6 in the Falcons' 85-46 win over Utah State to possess the most-ever made three-pointers by a freshman in their first year.

In the same game, McNabb surpassed Alecia Steele (2004-05) as the program's Division I freshman rebounds record holder, now with 190 in 2023-24.

O'Hollaren, at San Diego State on Feb. 21, went 4-6 from three, finishing the night with 14 points, marking the tenth game of O'Hollaren's freshman season to shoot .500 or better from distance.

Alexis Cortez, at UNLV (Feb. 17), reset her career high, scoring 19 points on 8-11 from the field. McNabb added nine points, but also pulled down 15 rebounds (career high), four assists and three steals.

McNabb, in a loss to Fresno State (Feb. 14), had an extremely efficient evening, contributing ten points, six rebounds, six assists (career high) and five steals (tied career high). Fellow newcomer Alexis Cortez also earned ten points on 4-7 shooting.

O'Hollaren earned Mountain West Freshman of the Week honors after earning 12 points on 4-5 FG and 3-4 from three at San Jose State (Feb. 3), marking her eighth game of the season to shoot .500 or better from three-point range. At Nevada (Jan. 10), O'Hollaren earned 18 points behind 6-10 from the field and a 4-6 showing from three., including an eight-point performance in the first quarter of the game, proving critical to the Falcons' 75-71 win over the Wolfpack.

In Air Force's 71-63 overtime win over San Diego State (Jan. 3), freshman Jordyn Devaughn contributed 11 points on 3-4 shooting from three.

Devaughn led the way in Air Force (7-5, 0-0 MW) scoring, earning a career-high 16 points at Clemson on Dec. 19. Fellow newcomer Keelie O'Hollaren followed up with 14 on 5-12 shooting and 4-8 from three-point range. Air Force finished the game with its second-best three-point percentage to this point of the season, shooting .387 while making a season-best 12 baskets from distance. An even .500 (28-56) from the field also marks a season-high in field goal percentage.

O'Hollaren's 15 points against Weber State (Dec. 16) were complimented by a 3-6 performance from three-point range, paving the way for the Falcons' 70-58 victory behind a season-best eight made threes.

Jayda McNabb earned the first double-double of her collegiate career, going for 13 points and 12 rebounds (team season high) in the Falcons' 61-56 win over UCCS (Dec. 5). Tuesday evening marked McNabb's second outing to score in double digits and her third with ten or more rebounds.

In Air Force's 83-61 win over Army (Nov. 17), O'Hollaren broke loose to the tune of 24 points on 9-18 shooting. With the Falcons beginning to gap Army down the final minutes of the third quarter, O'Hollaren ripped off eight points inside of 60 seconds including a pair of three-pointers on consecutive drives, pushing Air Force out to an 18-point advantage that ultimately could not be made up.

At Houston (Nov. 10), McNabb, in her second career start, earned six points, ten rebounds (game-high) and a block in 33 minutes; O'Hollaren logged seven points and four rebounds in 15 minutes.

In the Falcons' home-opening win against Denver on Nov. 6, O'Hollaren logged 16 points on 4-6 from three-point range; McNabb, starting in her intercollegiate debut, totaled nine points on the evening and three blocks – one more than any individual Falcon had in 2022-23; Alexis Cortez, in 19 minutes played, logged five points, seven rebounds, two assists and a steal.

Service Before Self:

In 2022-23, then-sophomore Jo Huntimer led Air Force in total assists (131), assists per game (4.2) and assist/turnover ratio (2.30, 25th nationally) - all top-four figures among Mountain West competitors. On the defensive side, Huntimer led the program in total steals (70) and steals per game (2.26). Huntimer logged multiple steals in 21 of the Falcons' 31 games, posting a career-high six against Colorado on Nov. 19 and tying that figure against Boise State (Feb. 17) and New Mexico (Feb. 23).

Huntimer's 264 career assists currently puts her fourth in Air Force's DI history and eighth all-time; 15 more will tie third in DI history and seventh all-time (Raimee Beck, 2007-11.).

First-Ever Matchups in 2023-24:

The Falcons faced off in three first-ever program matchups for Air Force in 2023-24: At Houston, Nov. 10; vs. Washington (N), Nov. 25; at Clemson, Dec. 19.

A Toast to the Host:

Air Force is one of six Mountain West members hosting a Power Five opponent in 2023-24. The Falcons faced Colorado at Clune Arena on Dec. 2 after trailing CU last season by just one possession in the final minute in Boulder.

AP Top-25 in Clune:

Air Force hosted two programs featured in the first AP Top-25 poll of 2023-24; Colorado came to Clune on Dec. 2 ranked No. 7, while Mountain West foe UNLV (Jan. 13) received two votes in the preseason AP poll, ranked as high as 23rd in week six and currently ranks 25th.

In 2022-23, CU closed its season with a 25-9 record, a Sweet 16 run in the NCAA Tournament and the No. 15 spot in final AP poll; current reigning MW champion UNLV climbed as high as 22.

GAME NOTES

Texas Two-Step:

Air Force faced both Houston (Nov. 10) and SMU (Dec. 21) at unique milestones for both opponents; UH opened its inaugural season as a member of the Big 12 hosting the Falcons, and Air Force was SMU's final regular season non-conference opponent before joining the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2024.

An Historic Reunion:

The Falcons faced off against Washington on Nov. 25 in the Rainbow Wahine Showdown in Honolulu, Hawaii. Head Coach Chris Gobrecht is the current all-time winningest coach at both Air Force and Washington (and Yale). Leading the Washington program from 1985-96, Gobrecht guided Washington to three Pac 10 titles and eight NCAA tournament appearances. Gobrecht was the first women's basketball coach to lead Washington for five consecutive seasons, the first to win 100 games, and the first to reach the 300-win milestone in her career. Gobrecht and Washington's successes made the Huskies the most attended women's collegiate program in a major city at the time.

Cardiac Cadets:

Ten of the Falcons' contests in 2023-24 have fallen to a two-possession-or-less margin, with the most recent being Air Force's 62-56 loss to Nevada at home on Feb. 7.

On Jan. 3 in the Falcons' Mountain West home opener against San Diego State, Air Force stormed back from behind as much as 12 points in the third quarter to a tied game at the end of regulation. An eight-point overtime performance for Milahnne Perry drove a 10-0 Air Force run in the extra session to win 71-63.

At the Rainbow Wahine Showdown, (Nov. 24-26), games against both Hawaii (W, 54-51) and Idaho State (L, 55-52) were both decided by a single possession at the end of regulation.

Air Force's 65-63 win over Denver at Clune Arena (Nov. 6) in the Falcons' home opener fell to a decisive foul drawn by Madison Smith with just 1.5 seconds remaining in regulation to send her to the free throw line. Smith's pair of successful makes proved game-winning.

14 games in 2022-23 were decided by two possessions or less, with six contests falling to a single possession. At Colorado (Nov. 19), the Falcons trailed by two points entering the final minute of regulation before falling by eight, threatening the program's first-ever win against a Power Five opponent. At Northwestern (Dec. 17), Air Force led their Big Ten opponent with 2:30 remaining in regulation before the Wildcats slipped away, winning 64-58. All 31 games in 2022-23 were decided in regulation.

2023 MW Postseason Honors:

Madison Smith: All-MW Honorable Mention
Milahnne Perry: All-MW Freshman Team

Coach G Gaining Ground:

Head Coach Chris Gobrecht served her 43rd season as a Division I head coach - the second-longest tenure in Division I women's hoops behind Stanford's Tara VanDerveer (44). Gobrecht's career win tally surpassed 600 wins in the Falcons' Nov. 11, 2022 home opener against Navy.

Capping her eighth season at the head of the Falcons' program in 2022-23, Coach Gobrecht currently has 84 career Air Force wins to her name, making her the all-time winningest coach at three separate institutions- Air Force, Yale and Washington.

Gobrecht was named 2021-22 Mountain West Coach of the Year following Air Force's 19-14 season - A year punctuated by Gobrecht's fourth career WNIT appearance as a head coach, and the Falcons' first-ever postseason appearance and subsequent win in program history - a 64-60 victory over WCC opponent San Francisco on March 17.

Last Time Out:

Air Force women's basketball claimed its first-ever win in Boise on Saturday afternoon, earning a 67-66 win at Extra-Mile Arena off of a go-ahead jumper from Milahnne Perry with 3.5 seconds to go.

The Falcons (15-16, 8-10 MW), having to navigate a furious Boise comeback and significant foul trouble late in Saturday's game, led by as much as 20 points over the Broncos after a 15-29 (.517) first-half shooting performance that saw sophomore Milahnne Perry's eight second-quarter points outscore Boise State. Perry closed the day with a team-high 23 points (8-15 FG, 1-3 3FG, 6-6 FT), followed by 15 for junior Madison Smith.

Air Force got out to a quick 11-2 start behind 5-6 shooting in the first three minutes of the contest and was able to maintain and extend a double-digit lead into halftime. Boise shot 5-15 and just 1-13 in the first and second quarters, relegating Boise to just three points off of free throws down the final seven minutes of the half, while the Falcons ripped off a 9-0 run, outscoring Boise State 14-3 through that frame to go into the locker room with a 36-18 lead.

GAME NOTES

Facing a grounded Boise State entering the third quarter, the Falcons managed to just to keep their opponent at bay, scoring 23 to Boise's 25. The Broncos, intent on making up their deficit from the free throw line in the second half, shot 13-17 from the stripe in the third, after making just eight trips to the line total in the first half. After being called for just eight fouls in the first half total, the Falcons were drawn into five team fouls in the first four minutes of the second half and 11 for the quarter, allowing the Broncos to begin chipping away at their deficit from the line. With Air Force's lead down to 13 on the final possession of the third quarter, Perry beat the buzzer on a step back three-pointer to give Air Force a 59-43 advantage going into the final quarter.

The Falcons had to weather a 23-8 scoring advantage for Boise in the fourth which had them on the receiving end of a 19-2 run for the Broncos, which resulted in the Falcons' lead evaporating, as Boise's Mya Hansen and Tatum Thompson combined for 19 points and 9-10 from the free throw line in the fourth to give Boise its first lead of the game with just two minutes remaining in regulation.

Perry, drawing a foul off of Thompson on the following possession, was able to reclaim an Air Force lead with 97 seconds to go, but Boise's Mya Hansen took back a 64-63 lead with 19 seconds remaining, driving the paint for an uncontested basket. The Perry/Hansen battle continued down to the final possession, as Perry drew Abby Muse into a shooting foul to reclaim a 65-64 lead, before Hansen was able to drive the Air Force basket for the final time, awarding the Broncos with a 66-65 lead with nine seconds remaining.

Air Force, advancing the ball off their final timeout, in-bounded the ball from Perry to Macmillan on the right wing, who handed it back. Perry, with seconds to go, drove from the top of the arc into heavy Boise traffic as the Bronco post defense converged on her in the paint, made the pull up jumper with 3.5 seconds to go. Boise, advancing to mid-court after its final timeout, in-bounded to Natalie Pasco who floated her attempt from the free throw line, missed her attempt, sealing the Falcons' first-ever win at ExtraMile Arena.

Squadron Jobs:

In order to prepare for life as an officer, the Cadet Wing at the United States Air Force Academy simulates the organization of an operational Air Force wing. Cadets are responsible for running and operating the wing – an unparalleled leadership opportunity to understand the importance of respect amongst peers and how to be an honorable, well-balanced officer. All cadets learn how to use a chain of command, how to function as part of various military formations and how military units organize to accomplish collective tasks. The Cadet Wing's 4,000 members are organized into four groups of 10 squadrons each. Cadets live, eat and take part in military training with their squadrons.

Typical Day for a Women's Basketball Cadet:

Alexis CORTEZ
#1, GUARD
 5'11" | Freshman
 Allen, Texas
 (Allen HS)

HIGH SCHOOL/PREP:
 Cortez, a team captain for Allen High School in her upperclassmen years, is a two-way specialist that brings value on both sides of the floor. The two-time Allen ISD offensive MVP and three-time all-district selection has layers to her scoring game which make her a threat from anywhere on the court ... Cortez's defensive skill set and ability to disrupt opposing offenses was on full display in her final full season, logging multiple steals in a number of contests ... Cortez ranked No. 48 on J. Key's Texas Rankings, via Premier Basketball.

5'10" | Freshman
Lake Oswego, Oregon
(Lakeridge HS)

HIGH SCHOOL/PREP:
O'Hollaren, a 1,000-point scorer playing as a wing at Lakeridge High School, was the leading scorer and rebounder all four years for the Pacers, averaging 18 points and eight rebounds in her senior season on the way to being named the 2022-23 Three Rivers League Player of the Year ... "O'Hollaren is ... a skilled facilitator and a feisty defender, always ready to jump into a passing lane," said current Lakeridge head coach Jason Brown of O'Hollaren entering her senior season. "We've got a heck of a leader in Keelie O'Hollaren." ... along with a four-year basketball career in high school, O'Hollaren also competed two years in volleyball (second-team all-league selection) playing outside/middle hitter, played a season at second base in softball and one year as a defender in lacrosse.

HEAD COACH

CHRIS GOBRECHT

44th Season as Head Coach
Ninth Season at Air Force

Entering her ninth season as the head women's basketball coach at the United States Air Force Academy and 43rd overall, Chris Gobrecht's resume as a Division I head coach and winning standard has left a lasting imprint on the Falcon program, while pulling in its wake the weight of championing a growing sport across decades.

Arriving at USAFA in 2015, Gobrecht undertook the challenge of laying the groundwork necessary to elevate Air Force women's basketball into a Mountain West contender, and in turn has raised the Falcon benchmark of success to a level which has not been experienced since the Air Force program joined the ranks of Division I in 1996.

Gobrecht was announced as the eighth head coach of Air Force women's basketball on April 14, 2015, and was the first hire of former Director of Athletics Jim Knowlton:

"I'm thrilled to bring Chris Gobrecht to the Academy to lead our women's basketball program," Knowlton said. "She is a proven winner and has turned around every program she's led and done it the right way. To get someone of her caliber to the Academy makes me very excited about the future of the program."

"After meeting with Chris during her visit to the Academy, I know our women's basketball program will be in great hands," said USAFA's 19th Superintendent, Lt. Gen. Michelle Johnson. "Chris embodies the values our Academy stands for and her passion for leading young people is unmistakable."

"It is hard to put into words what the opportunity to build the women's basketball program at the Air Force Academy means to me and my family," Gobrecht said. "I am honored to be asked to lead the outstanding young women who make the choice to prepare themselves for service to their country as officers in the Air Force, and I am dedicated to their experience on the court producing success in competition as well as contributing greatly to their accomplishments towards the overall mission of the Academy."

Gobrecht and the Falcons closed their 2022-23 run at 13-18 with an 8-10 mark against the Mountain West and a 9-5 home record. A 5-1 beginning to the season in Clune Arena marked a start to the Falcons' home schedule which had not been achieved since the program's final year as a member of Division II in 1995-96, in which Air Force started 7-1 at home. Gobrecht's 58th career Air Force victory - a 74-66 home win over Adams State on Nov. 16 - reset the program's Division I record for career wins by a head coach. Gobrecht now boasts three all-time win records, having already earned the distinction on two previous stints at Yale (117) and Washington (243).

2021-22 represented the Falcons' most successful Division I season to date and winningest finish in over two decades, as Air Force's 19 overall wins and 11 conference victories were both program-bests. Gobrecht, the eventual Mountain West Coach of the Year, led the Falcons to four season-sweeps of conference opponents, also a program first. Cierra Winters was named Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year, while Riley Snyder was named All-Mountain West en-route to becoming Air Force's all-time leading Division I scorer. The Falcons clinched their first-ever bye in the Mountain West Tournament where Air Force defeated Nevada to advance to the semifinal round for the first time in program history. The Falcons were ultimately awarded an at-large berth in the Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT), and subsequent first-ever postseason tournament win in the opening round, defeating San Francisco 64-60.

On April 20, 2022, "Coach G" signed a contract extension through the 2024-25 season as a result of the Falcons unprecedented 2021-22 success.

Through her first two seasons, Gobrecht wasted no time in setting the foundation for the program's eventual upward trajectory. In 2016-17, the change in regime immediately bore fruit, with Air Force doubling its win total from the previous season. Mariah Forde led the Mountain West freshmen class in scoring, averaging 11.0 points per game. In the 2017-18 season, Air Force's signature victory took place in the regular season home finale, posting a 57-47 win over then-first place Wyoming, marking a pivotal moment in the growth in the Falcon program and a sure sign of the potential a Gobrecht-led Air Force roster possesses.

In addition to winning four of its last six games of the season, Air Force smashed five team records in 2017-18 - an effort highlighted by a rigid Falcon defense that allowed just 62.3 ppg in the regular season and 59.7 against Mountain West opponents, setting new benchmarks in both categories. The Falcons held opponents below 60 points 11 times on the season - a testament to the rapid progression of the defense under Gobrecht and her staff. 2017-18 also yielded six new individual school records including the program's first-ever Mountain West Freshman of the Year in Kaelin Immel, who set four program-records highlighted by the most-ever points scored by an Air Force freshman in the Division I era.

The Falcons' positive trajectory continued its rise into uncharted levels leading into the 2018-19 season, as Air Force averaged 60.1 points per game in regular season and Mountain West play alike, on average earning 4.4 points more than the previous season's averages and 12.7 more points per game than in her inaugural season. Gobrecht and a young roster comprised predominantly of freshmen and sophomores checked the box on numerous milestones to include the team's first wins against both Army and Colorado State in over a decade. Under Gobrecht's guidance, freshman standout Riley Snyder, who averaged 10 points per, was added to the Mountain West All-Freshman team, marking the third freshman to earn the honor across the previous two seasons, after earning its first-ever just the year prior.

2019-20, Air Force finished 10-21 (7-11 MW), marking Gobrecht's most single-season wins since arriving at USAFA, the program's winningest single-season against league opponents since joining in 1999 and the Falcons' first double-digit finish since 2008. Air Force's seventh-place league finish tied its best-ever final standing in the Mountain West. Under Gobrecht's guidance, the Falcons averaged a program-best 60.7 points per game in conference play, marking the team's best league scoring average in the program's Mountain West tenure. Air Force also ranked as high as 11th in the nation in offensive rebounds per game and as high as 25th in the nation in steals. Kaelin Immel, was tabbed a Mountain West All-Conference selection, becoming the first Falcon to receive such an honor since 2013. Air Force's historic season was highlighted by a victory over regular-season champion Fresno State at home. The Bulldogs, who were undefeated in conference (15-0) at the time of the loss, had never lost a game against Air Force. Gobrecht also guided the Falcons to their first-ever win at New Mexico, snapping a 22-game losing streak to the Lobos, as well as earning the program's first-ever win against Nevada in Reno.

The 2020-21 season was underscored by Riley Snyder's All-MW Honorable Mention nod and Kassady Huffman's MW All-Defensive team selection. The Falcons finished the COVID-shortened 2020-21 campaign with an 8-18 overall record and a 4-14 mark in the Mountain West, finishing ninth in the league. Air Force made it to the MW quarterfinals for the second-straight season, defeating San Diego State in the first round before falling to top-seeded New Mexico thereafter.

Prior to coming to Air Force, Gobrecht had taken on a ten-year project developing the Yale women's basketball program into an Ivy League contender. Gobrecht coached Yale to 56 wins from 2012-14 which tied for the second-most in a four-year stretch and most since the class of 1980 won 57 games. Under Gobrecht's leadership, Yale also recorded the top two marks for most Ivy League wins in a four-year span with 34 Ivy victories set by the Class of 2013 and 33 set by the Class of 2014.

During her Yale tenure, Gobrecht coached 27 players who earned Ivy League postseason awards, including two Rookies of the Year, five All-Ivy first team honorees, three All-Ivy second team honorees, six All-Ivy honorable mention players, five All-Ivy rookie team players and seven Ivy League academic team honorees. Prior to Gobrecht's arrival, a Bulldog player had not earned All-Ivy League first team accolades since 1997-98. Gobrecht also coached two players who competed internationally.

HEAD COACH

2014-15, Yale posted its sixth consecutive top-four finish in the Ivy League standings with a 7-7 mark in Ivy play, while posting an overall mark of 13-15. Gobrecht became just the second coach in program history to record 100 victories at Yale with a win at Columbia on Jan. 31, 2014. She was 117-162 (.419) in her 10 seasons at the school.

The Bulldogs enjoyed their most successful season under Gobrecht's leadership in 2011-12, finishing with a 16-12 record and an 8-6 mark in Ivy League play in a season that included Yale's first-ever meeting with the nation's top-ranked team (No. 1 Baylor, Nov. 22, 2011). It was their winningest season since a 16-10 finish in 1993-94 and the third-straight season with at least eight Ivy League victories. The season included several milestones, including Gobrecht's 500th career victory which happened on Feb. 10, 2012, against Cornell.

In 2010-11, Gobrecht guided Yale to their first-ever WNIT appearance. The Bulldogs finished with a 14-15 overall record, which, until 2011-12, was Yale's highest win total since the 2001-02 season (14-13). Gobrecht coached the Bulldogs to the biggest win in program history, a 91-85 win over then-No. 14 Florida State. It was Yale's first win over a nationally-ranked opponent in the program's 38-year history. Yale followed up that historic victory with a 10-4 finish in Ivy League play, which matched the most wins for Yale in League play (10-4, 1988-89). The 2010-11 Ivy League season included Yale's first sweep of Harvard since 1993-94, which helped the Bulldogs finish in second place in the Ivy League standings for the first time since 1988-89, clinching the League's WNIT berth.

Though the 2008-09 team was hampered by a multitude of injuries, Gobrecht led Yale to an 11-17 record and a landmark victory over North Carolina State, Yale's first-ever win over an ACC opponent. In the same season, Gobrecht also surpassed the 450-win milestone for her Division I coaching career.

After posting a 3-24 mark in her first season with the Bulldogs, Gobrecht led the team to 12 wins in 2006-07. The nine-win improvement was one of the best in Division I that season. The 2006-07 season was highlighted by a six-game winning streak and a 15-point victory over a Marist roster that would ultimately reach the Regional Semifinals (Sweet 16) of the NCAA Tournament. Yale was the only Ivy League program that season to defeat eventual league champion Harvard.

Prior to coaching at Yale, Gobrecht was the head coach at her alma mater, Southern California, where her teams earned 93 wins in seven seasons (1997-04). She became the 33rd active coach to reach the 400-win mark during her time with the Women of Troy, reaching the milestone with a last-minute, 64-63 victory over Pepperdine on December 4, 2002.

Before returning to USC, Gobrecht took over a struggling Florida State program in 1996 for one year, in which the Seminoles closed with a 5-22 finish.

The bulk of Gobrecht's early successes occurred in an 11-year stint at the University of Washington (1986-96), in which her teams made nine NCAA Tournament appearances. The Huskies reached the NCAA Regional Semifinals four times during her tenure, and advanced to the Regional Finals (Elite Eight) in 1990. She won at least 16 games every year with the Huskies, including eight 20-win seasons (six consecutive), and is Washington's all-time winningest coach at 243-89. A dominant stretch by all metrics, Washington won three Pac-10 titles and finished second four times during her tenure. A two-time Pac-10 Coach of the Year, Gobrecht led Washington to a school-record 28 wins and a number-three national ranking in 1989-90. The Huskies were the only team to beat eventual NCAA Champion Stanford that season. In lieu of her success with the Huskies, the University of Washington announced Gobrecht as one of seven individuals to be inducted into the Husky Hall of Fame in October of 2018.

Gobrecht's successes with the Huskies created a brand name within the Washington program, turning UW women's basketball into the most attended women's collegiate program in a major city at the time.

Pushing the envelope at Washington, Gobrecht was named to a number of firsts for the program, becoming the first women's basketball coach to lead the Huskies for five consecutive seasons, the first to win 100 games, and the first to reach the 300-win milestone in her career. She became the winningest coach at Washington in her fourth season by defeating Oregon, 71-59, on Jan. 19, 1989 – A record which still stands today by a total of 52 wins.

Gobrecht began her Division I coaching career with a Cal State Fullerton program in 1979-80 in need of revival. Gobrecht coached the Titans for six seasons, posting an 84-92 overall record. She led Cal State Fullerton to an 18-12 finish in her third season on the job and in 1984-85 - Gobrecht's final season with the program – her team posted a 19-11 record and made their first-ever appearance in the WNIT.

Gobrecht's storied and luminous coaching career began in 1978 at Santa Fe Springs (Calif.) High School, where her team went 20-4 and made the CIF AAA playoffs. The following season, Gobrecht led Pasadena City College to a 25-5 finish, a conference championship and second place in the state junior college tournament.

In addition to her prominence in collegiate leagues across the United States, Gobrecht has also made an imprint on the international scene. In the summer of 1990, Gobrecht served as assistant coach for one of the USA Basketball select teams that competed in Czechoslovakia and Italy, and in the summer of 1989, coached the silver medal-winning East Team at the U.S. Olympic Festival. Additionally, six of Gobrecht's former players have played professionally in the WNBA and ABL.

A Toledo, Ohio, native and a graduate of Huntington Beach (Calif.) High School, Gobrecht earned a bachelor's degree in public affairs from USC in 1977. Then known by her maiden name of Chris Geiger, Gobrecht was a three-year starter for the Women of Troy from 1974-76 while also playing two seasons of volleyball at USC. After graduation, Gobrecht spent a year volunteering in the Peace Corps, where she worked as an English teacher at St. Mary's College in Apia, Western Samoa.

Chris and late husband, Bob Gobrecht, have two children, Eric and Madeline (Mady). Major Eric Gobrecht is a graduate of USAFA and Air Force flight school. A former U-2 and C-5M transport pilot, Major Gobrecht is currently studying at the Naval Post Graduate School in Monterey, Calif. In October of 2011, Eric married Catherine Cheney, a 2010 graduate of Yale. Eric and Catherine welcomed their first son, Bennett Gobrecht, in February of 2020, and daughter Grace, who arrived in May of 2022. Mady graduated from Yale in 2011 after four standout seasons on her mother's women's basketball team. She married Greg Moviel, a 2007 graduate of Vanderbilt, in 2015. Grandson, Mack, born to Mady and Greg in May of 2018 was joined by brother Mark, in June of 2020. Mady is currently a registered nurse serving at Memorial Hospital in Colorado Springs.
