Mountain West Men's Basketball Championship – Quarterfinals
Postgame Notes | March 13
#3 Utah State 70, #6 UNLV 58

Championship Notes
- The No. 3 seed is now 14-12 in the quarterfinal round of the MW men's basketball championship.

Utah State Notes
- Utah State earned a spot in the MW tournament semifinals for the seventh time in the last eight seasons, including three straight appearances.
- The Aggies defense held the Runnin' Rebels scoreless over the final 6 minutes, 20 seconds of the game.
- Thursday marked the sixth time this season that the Aggies held an opponent to fewer than 60 points.
- Utah State improved to 18-9 all-time in the MW championship.

UNLV Notes
- UNLV is now 30-22 all-time in MW tournament history.
- UNLV is the first team to have multiple players make 9+ free throws in a MW Tournament game since Boise State did so against Nevada in 2014.
- The Runnin' Rebels played seven players on Thursday night, including three which played the full 40 minutes.
- Forward Jalen Hill played every minute on Thursday evening, after playing 40 minutes in each of his last two games. He is one of two UNLV players this century to play 40-plus minutes in three straight games, joining Justin Webster (March 4-9, 2023).
- UNLV's field-goal percentage of 23.6% was the second lowest in a MW tournament game all-time.
