Maria Konstantinidou hit multiple career highs against San Jose State on Saturday. The sophomore hit a career high 18 points, 3-of-3 3PFG, 60% (6-of-10) from the field and 30 minutes on the court.

Fresno State hit over 50% in shooting for the first time this season. Bulldogs' went 29-of-56 from the field and 53% from the three going 15-of-28. Four starters shot 50% or better from the field; Maria Konstantinidou (6-10), Mia Jacobs (9-15), Mariah Elohim (5-10) and Kylee Fox (3-6).

Fresno State also shot a season-high 15 3PFG. Mia Jacobs led the scoring from beyond the arc with six, a new career-high, four of which came in the first half.

FRESNO STATE NOTES

Mariah Elohim followed in suit with five, matching her career high.

MINUTES ON THE COURT

Fresno State has five players that rank in the Top 25 of the MW in minutes played this season, the most of any team as of Jan. 31. Wyoming comes at a close second with four players.

5. Kylee Fox (32.9)
6. Taija Sta. Maria (32.2)
10. Mia Jacobs (31.4)
19. Saga Ukkonen (29.0)
25. Mariah Elohim (28.4)

LET THE COUNTDOWN BEGIN

There is a lot on the line for the Bulldogs as these final ten conference games approach. Fresno State stays in a good standing coming into the week at No. 5, Bulldogs look to remain here in hopes of grabbing a first-round bye for the Mountain West Tournament.

Fresno State looks to pack in plenty of milestones in this ten game stretch. Head coach Jaime White is shy of nine wins to become the winningest coach at Fresno State with 200 wins. Seven wins in this final ten game stretch will guarantee coach White a tie with Bob Spencer, for most wins at Fresno State. Spencer coached from 1981-93 and totaled a 198-147 record in 12 seasons.

Mia Jacobs is looking for her next shot to reach 1,000 points, as she recently marked 1,000 career points on Jan. 8 against San Jose State. Now Jacobs moves forth on 1,000 points in a Bulldog uniform. In her first season with the 'Dogs Jacobs totaled 449 on the season, through 22 games this season the forward owns 406.

Jacobs would be the second player in program history to achieve 1,000 career and program points in a single season (Ki-Ki Moore). If Jacobs hits the 1,000 point mark this season, she would be the third Bulldog in program history to do so in two seasons (Haley Cavinder & Ki-Ki Moore).

TAKING IT TO THE TOP

Fresno State has now defeated two conference opponents that were ranked higher than the Bulldogs the week they competed, Boise State and New Mexico.

The two teams also swept the Bulldogs in their two meetings last season and held at least a three-game series win streak over the 'Dogs.

This season the Bulldogs flipped the script to pull out a win. Fresno State had not seen a win against New Mexico since Mar. 2022 and a win at The Pit since Feb. 2020.

Bulldogs snapped Boise's four game series win streak and now look to grab their first win at Extra Mile Arena since Feb. 2022. Bulldogs and Broncos will meet once again on Feb. 15 in Boise.

ROAD FIGHT

Fresno State earned their third road win of the season in a turnabout game against the Lobos that saw eight lead changes, for the second time this season (8, UNLV).

Against the Lobos, Fresno State had a 16-3 run in the fourth quarter holding New Mexico to seven points.

'Dogs have shot over 45% from the field in two conference road games. 49% at San Jose State and 48% at New Mexico.

Bulldogs are staying on the road as they visit Nevada for a Wednesday morning matchup. This will be the earliest start time in the last two seasons, with tip off set for 11 a.m. PT.

Fresno State has lost by less than ten points in their last three road visits, falling short by one in the last road meeting on Jan. 24, 2024 (63-62).

CAREER HIGHS

Three Bulldogs posted new career highs against New Mexico; Saga Ukkonen, Danae Powell and Rayna Williams

Ukkonen posted a new career high 13 points going 5-of-11 (45%) from the field and 3-of-7 (42%) from beyond the arc. The senior guard also matched her career-high six rebounds (3x), four assists (3x) and three 3PFGM (2x).

The two freshmen put in work as well. Powell put a new career high of nine points after hitting a ceiling of eight points five times this season. The Las Vegas native went a perfect 100% from the field (3-of-3) and the foul line (3-of-3). The freshmen guard also tacked on a career high seven assists and two steals. Williams had a career high six points going 3-of-4 from the field.

TO THE LINE

Fresno State ranks second in the Mountain West for Free throw percentage through 20 games at 74% (219-293) and first through seven conference games

Junior forward Mia Jacobs has made the most trips to the charity line (No. 2) shooting 86% (105-121). The Australian went a perfect 6-of-6 from the line against UNLV on Jan. 22 and has seven games with 100% FT. Jacobs holds a conference individual game high in free throws made with 13 against Boise State and Southern Utah.

THREE'S UP

Fresno State is third in the Mountain West in 3PFGM per game averaging 7.95. Two Bulldogs hold high ranks in the MW.

Mariah Elohim is high up on the charts in third averaging 2.2 per game and has made 44 through 20 games. Jacobs ties for seventh with 1.9 per game and 36 on the season.

Fresno State is 12-7 when making six or more 3PFG and have made at least six in the last five games.

FOX TAKES THE COURT

For the second time this season, Fox led the team in scoring with 14 points and marked her seventh game this season scoring 10+ points. The forward is 65 points away from 500 in a Bulldog uniform.

The sophomore forward ranks No. 127 in the national rankings in minutes played. With 630 minutes logged thus far the Richland native averages 33.1 minutes per game. Fox sits fourth in the MW in minutes played trailing Ronsiek, Jackson and Cumber.

In games where Fox has finished in double-figures, she's played at least 30 minutes.

OUR HOUSE

Fresno State holds a 9-2 record at the Save Mart Center this season. Bulldogs last home loss was against Wyoming in the conference home opener.

In the only two home losses this season, Bulldogs have lost by no more than nine points.

BECKY HAMMON MID-MAJOR MIDSEASON WATCH LIST

Fresno State's Mia Jacobs was selected as one of the 15-players to the midseason watch list for the 2025 Becky Hammon Mid-Major Player of the Year Award presented by Her Hoop Stats on Wednesday morning. The Becky Hammon Award was first given out in 2020, with South Dakota's Ciara Duffy being named the inaugural winner. Gonzaga's Yvonne Ejim won the most recent award in 2024.

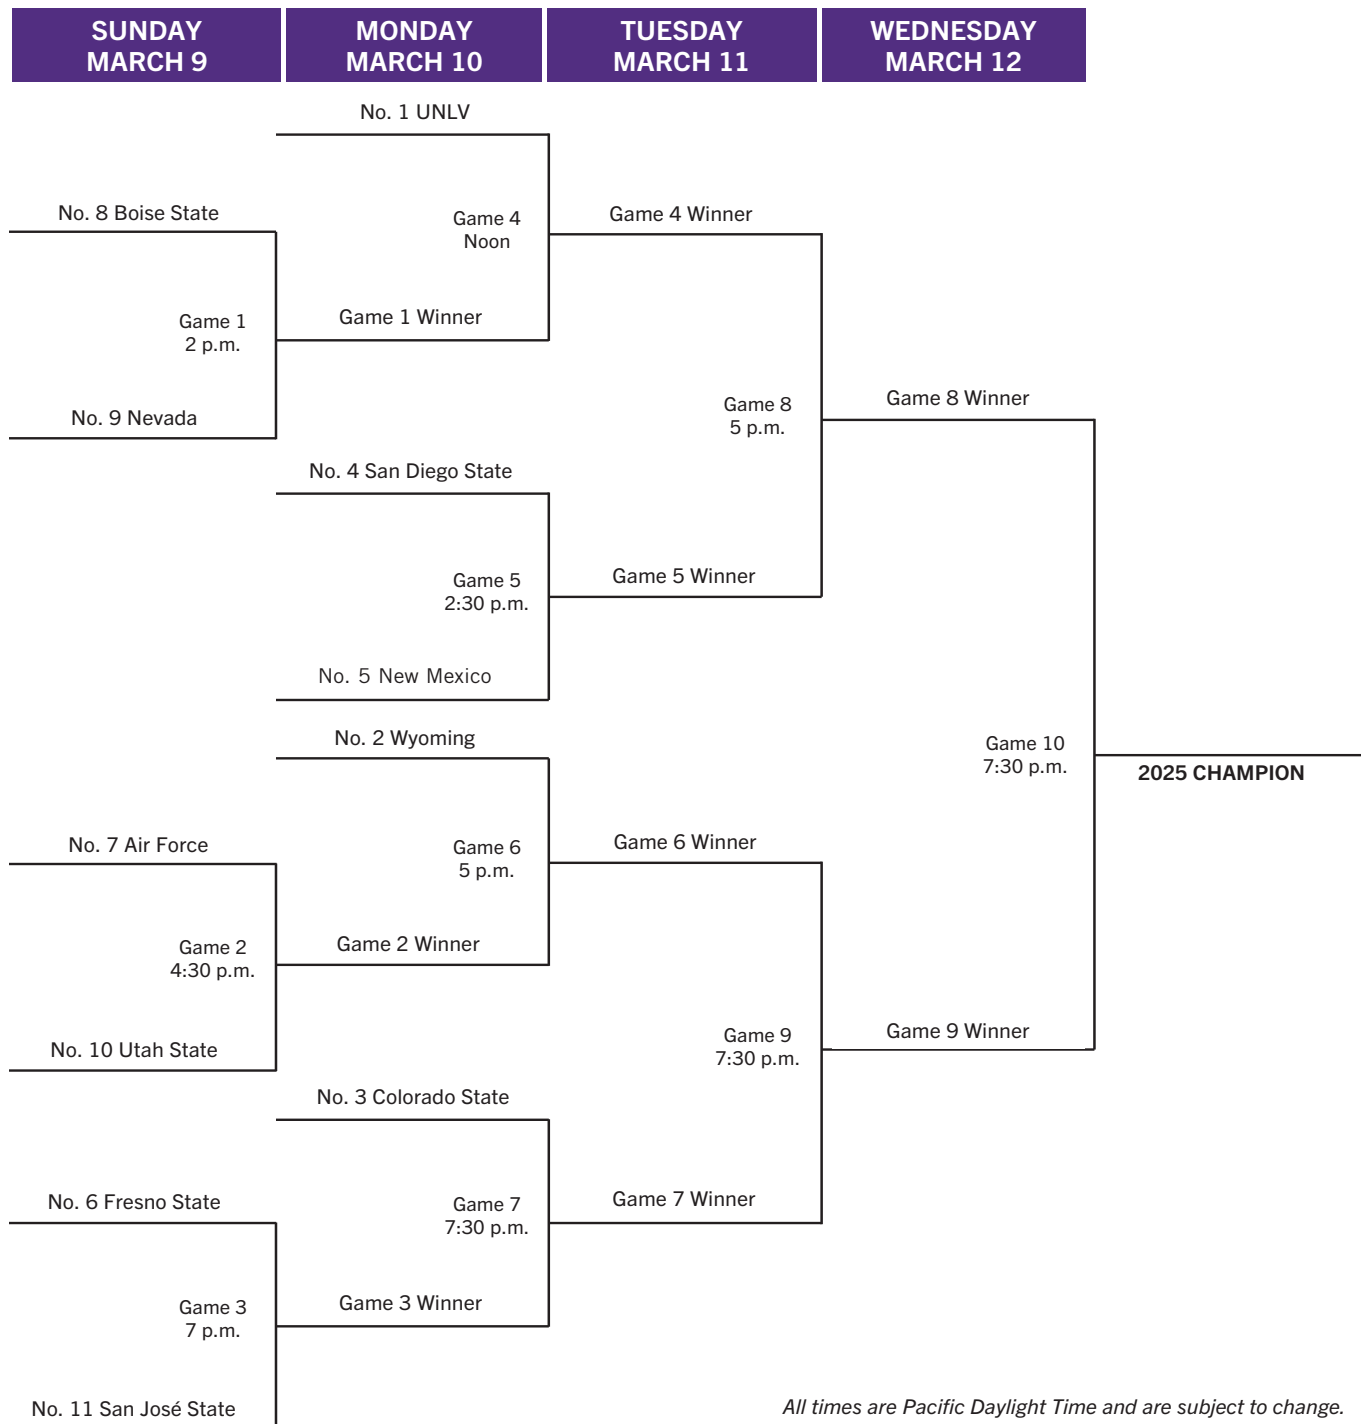

This year's mid season list includes representatives from 15 teams and 10 conferences. Five conferences – the A-10, MEAC, Mountain West, Missouri Valley and Summit League – placed two players on the watch list.

To be eligible for this award, players must compete in one of the 26 conferences deemed to be "mid-major." The following conferences are considered high-major for the purposes of this award and thus ineligible: ACC, Big 12, Big East, Big Ten, and SEC. Additionally, players from Oregon State and Washington State are ineligible this year as membership in the Pac-12 Conference evolves.

The 25-player preseason watch list was announced in October, and 10 semi finalists will be announced in February. The five finalists will

Jaime White will enter her eleventh season as the head coach of the Fresno State women's basketball program for the 2024-25 season. In her ten seasons with the Bulldogs thus far, White has guided the 'Dogs to three 20-win seasons, five postseason appearances and four appearances in the Mountain West Tournament championship game. White holds an overall a .556 winning percentage at Fresno State (177-141), and a .271 winning percentage (104-78) in Mountain West games with a .522 career winning percentage (294-269.)

In the 2023-24 season, Coach White came out of a rebuilding season on the stronger side and guided the 'Dogs to a quarterfinals appearance at the Mountain West Championships. The Bulldogs' finished the season with a 15-18, 7-11 MW record.

It was a milestone season for Coach White, as she achieved 100 Mountain West Conference wins. Coach White earned her 100th Mountain West win at Utah State on Feb. 3, 2024 in a 70-50 win over the Aggies. Thus making her the third active Mountain West Women's Basketball Head Coach with 100 or more conference wins, the only active Mountain West Women's Basketball Female Head Coach with 100 or more conference wins and is the first Fresno State women's basketball head coach with the most conference wins at 104.

True-freshman Taija Sta. Maria was tabbed All-MW Freshman Team and sophomore Mia Jacobs was named All-MW Honorable Mention.

In 2022-23 season, Coach White saw her toughest conference record at Fresno State, going 3-15 and a first round elimination to Nevada in the Mountain West Tournament. Fresno State would close out the season on a three game losing streak shooting 39% from the field (663-of-1701), 29% from the three (163-of-552) and 74% from the foul line (396-of-530).

In the 2021-22 season that was shortened by nearly a month, and saw cancellations, postponements and program shutdowns across the country due to Covid-19, the 'Dogs successfully played 28 of its 30 scheduled games and avoided any program shutdowns during the pandemic while finishing with a 17-11 record (12-6 MW). Under unprecedented conditions, White guided the Bulldogs back to the postseason as one of 32 teams selected to the WNIT. The 'Dogs also returned to the MW Championship game, following an upset of top-seeded New Mexico in the semifinals. Fresno State's offensive production increased to 77.8 per game which ranked 13th in the nation, second-highest in program history. The Bulldogs' efficiency also moved up to 45.2 percent, 26th nationally, and fourth-best at all-time at Fresno State.

For the second consecutive year, Haley and Hanna Cavinder were named to the All-MW Team. Haley was tabbed as the conference's Player of the Year. It was the first time in league history that a player had won the award a year after being selected Freshman of the Year.

White's sixth season in Fresno was a banner year as she guided the Bulldogs to a 25-7 record on the program's first MW regular season championship with a 16-2 record, and only third outright regular season conference title. The 'Dogs also reached their third MW championship game in five seasons. White's team won its first 15 games of league play, the second-longest win streak to open a season for Fresno State. The Bulldogs also won 14 consecutive games from Dec. 28-Feb. 15, a streak that is also second in the program's history. The wins added up as Fresno State averaged its highest scoring average (76.1 ppg) in more than 30 years and posted its second-best free-throw percentage (76.2%) behind only last season's school record. Limiting turnovers was key to the team's offense, breaking program records for assist-to-turnover ratio (1.30) and turnovers per game (12.1).

The Bulldogs racked up their most postseason honors in a season (9) as White was named Coach of the Year, Maddi Utti was selected Player of the Year and Haley Cavinder was tabbed Freshman of the Year. It was just the second time in conference history that a team claimed all three awards in the same season.

Led by Candice White in 2018-19, the senior paced the MW in scoring for the second season in a row with 18.4 points per game, the Bulldogs earned their third trip to the WNIT under White. The 'Dogs finished the year with a 19-13 record after placing fourth in the MW while reaching the semifinals of the conference tournament for the sixth time in their seven seasons in the league. Fresno State averaged 69.7 points per game, the highest during White's tenure. The Bulldogs' scoring was aided by the team shooting a program-record 78.4 percent from the free-throw line.

While Candice White earned her second All-MW selection in her final season, Maddi Utti garnered an honorable mention nod. The sophomore was also selected to the MW All-Defensive Team after being the only player in the league to rank in the top 10 in rebounds, blocks and steals.

With her youngest roster to date, White navigated the 2017-18 season by starting three true freshmen in 24 games, the most of any Division I team during a year in which they finished 17-15. Fresno State finished fourth in the league (11-7) to earn a first-round bye in the tournament for the fifth time in its six years in the conference. The 'Dogs returned to the postseason with a bid to the Women's Basketball Invitational where they captured the program's first postseason win in a true road game at CSU Bakersfield, 77-66.

Junior Candice White led the young group of Bulldogs as she garnered All-MW honors after leading the team in points, rebounds, assists and steals while being one of the most well-rounded players in the conference. She became just the second Fresno State player to score more than 600 points in a season (605). Joining the junior with postseason accolades were freshmen Aly Gamez and Maddi Utti who were both named to the MW All-Freshman Team after being instant impact players for the Bulldogs as each ranked second or third on the team in points, rebounds, assists and steals.

Through an up-and-down 2016-17 season in which the 'Dogs finished 18-15, White's team came together late in the season to propel it to a run of three wins in three days at the MW Tournament to reach its second-straight championship game. Along the way, the Bulldogs became the first No. 7 seed to defeat a No. 2 seed, and the lowest seed to reach the championship game in tournament history.

The Bulldogs were led by two-time MW Defensive Player of the Year, Bego Faz Davalos, and a breakout season from sophomore guard Candice White who earned All-MW honorable mention honors. Faz Davalos ranked in the top 10 in the NCAA in seven stat categories while breaking multiple season and career records at Fresno State and in the Mountain West. White ranked 15th in the NCAA in free-throw percentage and 37th in 3-point percentage. The sophomore's 87.7 percent from the free-throw line set the Fresno State single-season record while also moving into the top 10 in points in a season, 3's made in a season and career 3-point percentage.

White's 2016 squad went 22-12 overall and reached the second round of the WNIT with a 59-53 win over Santa Clara. It was the second consecutive season with a postseason victory for the Bulldogs, a first in the program's history.

A year after turning Fresno State into one of the top defensive teams in the Mountain West, White's defensive brand of basketball set a program low for opponent field-goal percentage (.371) and allowed 59.4 points per game, the team's lowest since 2006 and the third lowest in program history. A big piece to that was the shot blocking of Bego Faz Davalos who was named MW Defensive Player of the Year after leading the NCAA with 136 blocked shots.

Faz Davalos also garnered postseason All-MW honors along with Toni Smith who earned honorable mention accolades and Breanne Knishka who was selected to the MW All-Freshmen Team.

In her first season, White guided the 'Dogs to their seventh consecutive season of 20 or more wins (23) and to the postseason for the eighth consecutive year, reaching the second round of the Women's National Invitational Tournament. The team's 79-73 win over San Francisco at the Save Mart Center in the first round of the WNIT was the program's first postseason win since 2006. During the middle of the season, White's group recorded the second-longest win streak in Fresno State's history at 13 games, an unbeaten stretch that lasted nearly two months. The final win of that streak gave the 'Dogs a 17-3 record to open the season, a mark that ranks as the best 20-game start in school history.

It took White little time to put her stamp on the Bulldogs' defense as her squad was the only team in the conference to finish
