LAST MATCHUP VS FRESNO STATE- NEVADA DOMINATES FRESNO STATE WITH BALANCED ATTACK IN 94-69 VICTORY

The Nevada Wolf Pack put together a dominant performance at Lawlor Events Center, overpowering Fresno State 94-69. Behind a strong shooting effort and stifling defense, Nevada controlled the game from start to finish, never trailing after the opening moments.

Nick Davidson led the charge with an efficient 25 points on 10-of-12 shooting, while Justin McBride added 19 points and eight rebounds. Xavier DuSell provided a spark from beyond the arc with 15 points, knocking down five three-pointers, and Kobe Sanders contributed across the board with 10 points and 10 assists.

Fresno State was led by Jasir Tremble, who scored 19 points on five three-pointers, and Brian Amuneke, who added 14 points.

First Half

The first half saw Nevada set the tone early with their efficient shooting and defensive pressure. The Wolf Pack jumped out to a double-digit lead midway through the half, fueled by a balanced offensive attack. Davidson was nearly unstoppable, scoring inside and out, while DuSell connected on key three-pointers to keep Fresno State from gaining momentum. McBride also made his presence felt in the paint, converting high-percentage looks and grabbing rebounds to create second-chance opportunities. Fresno State struggled to match Nevada's pace, shooting just 43 percent from the field in the first 20 minutes. Despite a few short scoring bursts, the Bulldogs found themselves trailing 41-31 at halftime.

Second Half

Coming out of the break, Nevada wasted no time extending their lead. A quick scoring flurry from Davidson and a three-pointer from Sanders stretched the advantage to 15 early in the second half. The Wolf Pack's defense intensified, forcing turnovers and limiting Fresno State's clean looks at the basket. McBride continued to dominate inside, adding a pair of emphatic finishes at the rim. Fresno State attempted to rally behind Tremble's outside shooting, but every run was met with an answer from Nevada. DuSell's sharpshooting from deep helped put the game out of reach, as the Wolf Pack extended their lead to as many as 28 points.

Nevada's offensive efficiency proved to be the difference, as they shot 61 percent from the field and 44.8 percent from beyond the arc. Their defensive effort also forced 18 Fresno State turnovers, leading to 20 points on the other end. With the win, the Wolf Pack improved to 14-10 overall and 6-7 in Mountain West play, strengthening their push toward the conference tournament. They will look to build on this performance when they hit the road for their next matchup.

LAST TIMEOUT VS SAN DIEGO STATE - NEVADA FALLS TO SAN DIEGO STATE IN ROAD FINALE

Nevada Men's Basketball dropped its final regular-season road game, falling to San Diego State 80-61 on Saturday night at Viejas Arena. Despite a strong second-half effort, the Wolf Pack couldn't overcome a slow start as the Aztecs pulled away early.

Tyler Rolison led Nevada with 19 points, adding five rebounds and an assist. Nick Davidson followed with 16 points and seven rebounds while shooting a perfect 4-for-4 from the free-throw line. The Pack battled in the second half, outscoring the Aztecs 40-37, but San Diego State's efficiency from the field proved too much to overcome.

First Half

San Diego State jumped to an early lead, capitalizing on Nevada's cold start from the field. The Pack shot 31.6% in the first half, including 3-of-12 from beyond the arc. Davidson provided early offense, converting on free throws and a driving layup to keep Nevada within reach. However, the Aztecs' defensive pressure forced multiple turnovers, leading to transition baskets that extended their advantage. Nick Boyd led the charge for San Diego State, knocking down timely shots to widen the gap. Nevada trailed 43-21 by halftime, with the Aztecs shooting an impressive 60% from the field.

Second Half

Nevada responded with a more potent offensive performance after the break. Rolison caught fire, scoring 14 of his 19 points in the second half while attacking the basket and drawing fouls. The Pack improved their efficiency, shooting 46.4% from the field, and chipped away at the deficit with a 6-0 scoring run midway through the half. Davidson added a key three-pointer to cut the Aztecs' lead to 15, but San Diego State answered with a balanced attack led by Miles Heide, who had 14 points and six rebounds, and Pharaoh Compton with 13 points and five rebounds. Despite the Pack's effort to close the gap, the Aztecs maintained control down the stretch to seal the win.

XAVIER DUSELL BECOMES MOUNTAIN WEST'S ALL TIME THREE-POINT LEADER

Nevada's sharpshooting guard, Xavier DuSell, has etched his name in Mountain West history, becoming the conference's all-time leader in making three-pointers. DuSell accomplished the feat in last night's matchup against San Diego State, surpassing former Boise State standout Justinian Jessup, who previously held the record with 325 career threes.

With his signature smooth stroke from beyond the arc, DuSell's record-breaking three brought his career total to 326, cementing his place as one of the most prolific perimeter shooters the Mountain West has ever seen. As the Wolf Pack now shifts focus to the Mountain West Tournament, DuSell will have the opportunity to add to his record and further solidify his legacy.

The veteran guard's journey to the top of the record books has been defined by consistency and excellence. DuSell began his collegiate career at Wyoming, where he spent three seasons and quickly established himself as a reliable three-point threat. After a brief stint at Fresno State, he found a home in Reno, where his impact was immediately felt.

Throughout his career, DuSell's ability to stretch the floor has made him a nightmare for opposing defenses. His high basketball IQ, quick release, and unwavering confidence from deep have allowed him to thrive in multiple systems and under different coaching staffs. Now, as the new standard-bearer for three-point excellence in the Mountain West, he joins an elite club of shooters who have left a lasting mark on the conference.

With the postseason on the horizon, DuSell's historic milestone only adds to the anticipation for Nevada's tournament run. As he continues to add to his record, Wolf Pack fans will be watching closely, knowing they have one of the greatest long-range shooters in Mountain West history on their side.

DuSell is en route to becoming the all-time Mountain West 3-Point Leader. He is chasing Justinian Jessup, who played at Boise State from 2017 to 2020 and knocked down a record-high 325 3-pointers in his stint there. Duseell currently has 324-pointers, placing second on the all-time Mountain West 3-pointer-made leaderboard.

TRE COLEMAN MAKES HISTORY AS NEVADA'S ALL-TIME STARTS LEADER

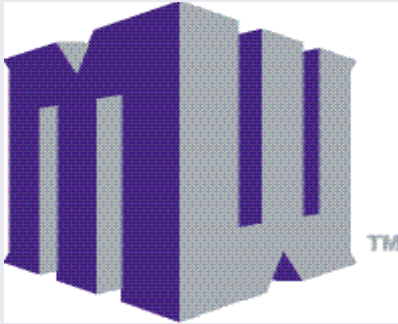

Senior forward Tre Coleman etched his name in Nevada basketball history on Wednesday night, becoming the program's all-time leader in career starts.

Taking the floor against San Jose State on February 14, Coleman recorded his 131st career start, surpassing former Wolf Pack star Deonte Burton, who held the previous record with 130 starts.

A staple in the Wolf Pack lineup since his freshman year, Coleman's consistency, leadership, and defensive presence have been instrumental to Nevada's success. Over his career, he has been a key contributor on both ends of the floor, guarding multiple positions while playing a vital role in the team's identity.

Breaking the record in a road victory made the milestone even more special. As Nevada took down San Jose State 73-58, Coleman's name was cemented in Wolf Pack history as one of the most durable and reliable players to wear the silver and blue.

With several games still left in the season, he now has the opportunity to add to his record and leave an even greater legacy at

-3x MW Coach of the Year (2009, 2010, 2013)
-2023 NABC District 17 Coach of the Year

NCAA Champion, All-American, and Olympic Gold Medalist Steve Alford enters his sixth season at the helm of the Wolf Pack program in 2024-25. Alford is in his 34th season overall as a head coach, boasting a career record of 683-357.

Alford's career-win total of 683 victories places him 11th among all active Division I coaches in career wins. Alford also ranks third all-time and second among active coaches in career Mountain West victories (122).

Heading into the 2024-25 campaign, Alford has the Wolf Pack continuing its upward momentum on the heels of back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances. Nevada earned an at-large bid to the 2024 NCAA Tournament and finished the 2023-24 season with a 26-8 overall record while going 13-5 and finishing tied for second in a highly-competitive Mountain West which earned a record six bids to the Big Dance.

Over his five seasons at the Wolf Pack helm, Alford has won 96 games (an average of 19.2 per season), and, over the past two seasons, gone an impressive 29-3 (.906) at Lawlor Events Center.

The 2024-25 campaign featured numerous high points, including Alford leading the Wolf Pack back into the Associated Press Top 25 for the first time since 2019. Furthermore, four members of the Wolf Pack were named All-Mountain West following the regular season: Jarod Lucas (Second Team), Kenan Blackshear (Second Team), Nick Davidson (Third Team), and Tré Coleman (All-Defensive Team).

Lucas had a sensational season for the Pack. Appearing in and starting all 34 games, Lucas averaged a career-high 17.8 points per game on 42.1 percent shooting from the field, 39.4 percent from behind the arc, and 89.9 percent at the free throw line.

In Mountain West play, Lucas completed the regular season ranked second in the Mountain West in scoring (17.8 PPG), second in free throw percentage (90.1%), second in made free throws (155), third in made 3-pointers (75), and ninth in 3-point field goal percentage (40.1%).

During his time at Nevada, Alford has mentored three Mountain West Newcomers of the Year (Jarod Lucas, 2022-23; Grant Sherfield, 2020-21; Jalen Harris, 2019-20), the program's first Mountain West Freshman of the Year (Darrion Williams, 2022-23), a Mountain West Sixth Man of the Year (Nisré Zouzoua, 2019-20), two Mountain West All-Defensive Team selections (Tre Coleman, 2022-23; Kenan Blackshear, 2022-23), and nine All-Mountain West selections, including first-teamers Harris and Sherfield.

The 2022-23 campaign displayed Alford's ability to tap the full potential of his roster. After losing 58.1 percent of the scoring output from the previous season to the transfer portal, and losing seniors K.J. Hymes and Hunter McIntosh to injury at the beginning of the season, Alford led the Pack to a 22-11 overall record, fourth-place finish in the Mountain West, and the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance since the 2018-19 season. The 22 wins marked one of the biggest turnarounds in all of Division I, as the Pack increased their win total by nine from the previous season.

Nevada had an impressive outing at the 2022 Cayman Islands Classic at the beginning of the season, claiming a third-place finish in the outstanding field. Nevada earned victories over Tulane and Akron, while only suffering one defeat at the hands of Kansas State, an 87-96 overtime loss in the semifinal round to the Wildcats who went on to win the tournament.

Nevada produced an exceptional record of 14-1 on their home court, and the team earned back-to-back victories over ranked opponents at Lawlor for the first time in program history, beating #25 New Mexico (1/23/23) before taking down #22 San Diego State (1/31/23).

The Pack matched a program record following the completion of the regular season, as five different players earned All-MW recognition. Nevada also set a program record by obtaining seven different All-MW awards by players only.

Nevada earned its 10th NCAA Tournament berth in program history following the completion of the regular season, marking Alford's 12th career appearance in the tournament. The selection also signified the fifth different school that Alford has taken to the NCAA Division I Tournament, making him just one of four coaches throughout history to accomplish the feat (Lon Kruger, Rick Pitino, Tubby Smith).

Alford was named the NABC District 17 Coach of the Year at the end of the season, and Blackshear garnered First Team All-District honors while Lucas was named to the All-District Second Team.

In the 2020-21 campaign, Alford also showcased his ability to make the most of his roster. Entering the season returning just 20 percent of the scoring output from the previous year's team, Alford's young Wolf Pack squad opened up by capturing the Golden Window Classic title, highlighted by a last-second victory over Nebraska on the Cornhuskers' home court.

Nevada would navigate the challenges and turns of a season operating under the increased safety protocols as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, going 16-10 overall and reaching the Mountain West Championship semifinals.

The 2019-20 campaign was highlighted by Alford winning his 600th-career game Jan. 25, 2020, when Nevada defeated New Mexico 96-74 at Lawlor Events Center. The win made him, at the time, the 16th active NCAA Division I coach to reach the 600-win mark.

Alford became the first coach to win two Paradise Jam titles as the Pack swept the field, winning all three games by double figures in the U.S. Virgin Islands. In 2012, he led his New Mexico squad to the title. Junior Jalen Harris was the MVP and was joined on the All-Tournament Team by Jazz Johnson.

Four members of Alford's first Nevada team garnered postseason honors led by Harris. Harris was named to the NABC and USBWA all-district teams after leading the Mountain West in scoring at 21.6 points per game. He was also a Mountain West coaches and media first team selection. Three times he was named the Mountain West Player of the Week, and on Feb. 9 was the Oscar Robertson Player of the Week. He scored 30 or more points six times including becoming the first Pack player with four-consecutive games of 30 or more points.

Johnson was named to the Mountain West coaches second team and media third team. Senior Nizre Zouzoua was the Mountain West Sixth Man of the Year as selected by the coaches and media. Johnson earned the Sixth Man of the Year honor in 2019. Another of the Pack seniors, Lindsey Drew, was named the Mountain West All-Defensive team for the second time in his career and was an honorable mention pick by the coaches and media. He was named the Mountain West Player of the Week the first week of the season.

Alford, a highly successful coach with 11 NCAA Tournament berths and four Sweet 16 appearances, signed a 10-year deal to lead Nevada.

Alford is the 19th coach in the history of the Nevada program. Alford has a career record of 683-357 (.657) in 33 seasons as a collegiate head coach and is 605-328 (.648) in 29 seasons as a Division I head coach.

No stranger to the Mountain West, Alford led New Mexico to four regular season and two tournament titles in six seasons (2007-14) as the Lobos head coach. In 2009, 2010 and 2013 he was named the Mountain West Coach of the Year. He posted a record of 155-52 at New Mexico and was 68-26 in conference play. Three of his New Mexico players; JR Giddens (2008), Darrington Hobson (2010) and Kendal Williams (2013) were named Mountain West Player of the Year. The Lobos 30 wins in 2012 and 29 in 2013 are the two highest win totals in program history. The 2012 and 2013 teams secured No. 3 seeds in the NCAA Tournament, which tied New Mexico's record for highest-seeded team.

In 17 seasons he has led his teams to 20 or more wins, and thrice to 30 or more victories. His 2016-17 UCLA squad posted a 31-5 record with the 28 regular-season victories tying the Bruins' record for wins.

During his UCLA tenure he coached 11 NBA Draft picks, including seven first-rounders: Zach Lavine, Jordan Adams, and Kyle Anderson (2014), Kevon Looney (2015), Lonzo Ball and TJ Leaf (2017), and Aaron Holiday (2018). While at New Mexico, JR Giddens and Tony Snell were first-round NBA picks.

At Manchester College, Alford earned conference coach of the year honors three times. The 1994-95 team was inducted into the school's hall of fame and in 1999 Alford was inducted into the Manchester Hall of Fame.

As a college senior Alford led Indiana to the 1987 NCAA Championship. Playing his Hoosier career under legendary head coach Bob Knight, the 1983 Indiana Mr. Basketball was a two-time consensus NCAA All-American (1986-87), a three-time selection to the All-Big Ten First Team, and the Big Ten MVP in 1987. He ended his collegiate career as Indiana's all-time leading scorer, with 2,438 points, and ranks second in the Hoosier record book through the 2020-21 season.

At the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles, Alford earned gold with the United States team coached by Knight, which was also the last United States' amateur team to win Olympic Gold.

Against France Aug. 3, 1984, Alford set the USA Basketball Olympic single-game record for field-goal percentage, going a perfect 8-for-8 from the field.

In 1997 he was inducted into the Indiana University Hall of Fame and in 2001 was one 15 players named to Indiana's All-Century team.

Following his career at Indiana he was selected 26th overall in 1987 NBA Draft by the Dallas Mavericks. He played four years from 1987-1991 in the NBA for Dallas and Golden State.

He is married to the former Tanya Frost. The couple has two sons Kory and Bryce and a daughter Kayla. The couple also has two grandchildren in AJ and Kai.

COACH STEVE ALFORD MAKES HISTORY WITH HIS 100TH WIN AT NEVADA

Coach Steve Alford has cemented his place in college basketball history by becoming one of only two Division I coaches to achieve 100 victories at four different schools. With a milestone win at Nevada, Alford joined the ranks of coaching legend Lefty Driesell, who previously accomplished this remarkable feat after securing the win over Santa Clara at home on Saturday November 16th, 2024. Alford's path to this achievement has been marked by consistent success, earning 100 wins at the University of Iowa, the University of New Mexico, UCLA, and now the University of Nevada.

The only other coach to achieve this distinction, Lefty Driesell, was a pioneer of college basketball. Driesell's legendary career saw him achieve 100 wins at Georgia State University, James Madison University, the University of Maryland, and Davidson College. Driesell is perhaps best remembered for his time at Maryland, where he transformed the program into a national powerhouse, recruiting iconic players and competing at the highest levels. Beyond his on-court achievements, Driesell left a lasting legacy by introducing Midnight Madness, a concept that became a staple of college basketball culture.

Driesell's career spanned nearly five decades, and his contributions to the sport were recognized with his induction into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. Though known for his fiery demeanor and innovative coaching, Driesell's influence extended beyond wins and losses, as he mentored countless players and coaches who carried forward his lessons. Tragically, Driesell passed away last year, leaving behind a legacy of excellence and passion for the game that continues to inspire.

The parallels between Alford and Driesell highlight their shared dedication to building winning cultures and fostering competitive teams. While Alford continues to guide Nevada's basketball program, his latest milestone not only celebrates his individual achievements but also ties his name to the storied history of Lefty Driesell. Together, they exemplify the rare blend of longevity and success that defines the greatest
