The UNLV men's basketball team, which has won six of its last eight games, will open play in the 2025 Credit Union 1 Mountain West Men's Basketball Championship against Air Force in the first round on Wednesday, March 12 at 4 p.m. at the Thomas & Mack Center.

The Runnin' Rebels (17-14, 11-9 MW) are the No. 6 seed, while the Falcons (4-27, 1-19 MW) are No. 11. The game will be broadcast on the Mountain West Network, ESPN Radio Las Vegas and SiriusXM.

UNLV had a three-game win streak snapped in its regular-season finale at New Mexico on Friday night (81-67). The three prior games consisted of a 77-71 road win at San Jose State on Feb. 25, a 68-55 home win over intrastate rival UNR on Feb. 28 and a 74-67 home victory against San Diego State on March 4, which completed the Runnin' Rebels' first regular-season sweep of the Aztecs in 12 years. Over their previous seven games (before playing at New Mexico), the Runnin' Rebels had held their opponents to just 59.1 points per game on average and 37.5% shooting.

UNLV had also won three straight - a 68-57 road win at Wyoming on Feb. 8, which snapped a five-game losing streak, a 77-52 home win over Air Force on Feb. 11 and a 52-51 road win at Fresno State on Feb. 15 - before falling on Feb. 22 at home to Colorado State, 61-53. That game was UNLV's first without point guard Dedan Thomas Jr., who missed because of injury. He has missed five games in total.

Air Force enters the MW Tournament having lost four straight games. The Falcons' lone win in conference play was a 72-69 overtime victory at home against Fresno State on Feb. 22. Their last contest was an 87-47 road loss to Utah State on Saturday.

UNLV has four players averaging double figures in scoring: Dedan Thomas Jr. with 15.6 points per game (9th in MW), Jaden Henley with 12.2 ppg, Jailen Bedford with 10.1 ppg and Jeremiah "Bear" Cherry with 10.0 ppg. Julian Rishwain, who suffered an injury in the first half at New Mexico, and Jalen Hill are averaging 9.2 ppg and 8.5 ppg, respectively. Cherry leads in rebounding with 5.3 rpg and blocks with 1.5 bpg (3rd in MW), while Thomas Jr. is the team's assist leader with 4.7 apg (3rd in MW) and Henley leads in steals with 1.5 spg (7th in MW).

UNLV is in its fourth season under head coach Kevin Kruger. He has a career record of 75-54 (.581).

ABOUT THE ROSTER: This season's UNLV squad features six returners from last year's team along with 10 newcomers. The newcomers are made up of four Division I transfers, a junior college transfer and five freshmen. UNLV has eight upperclassmen, including two sixth-year players. A total of six players on the roster are playing in their hometown of Las Vegas. The Runnin' Rebels returned two starters from last year's team in sophomore guard Dedan Thomas Jr., who was the Mountain West Co-Freshman of the Year last season and was named to this season's preseason all-conference team (has missed the last five games because of injury), and senior forward Rob Whaley Jr. (currently injured) Forward Jalen Hill is also back for a sixth year of college after suffering a season-ending knee injury in January of 2024 (in the MW opener at San Diego State). Thomas Jr. led UNLV in scoring and assists last year with 13.6 and 5.1 per game, respectively, Whaley Jr. had averages of 7.6 ppg and 3.6 rpg, while Hill averaged 10.7 ppg and 6.1 rpg in seven contests.

LAST TIME OUT: In Friday's loss at New Mexico, UNLV was already down multiple players because of injury and it suffered another big loss as Julian Rishwain left the game about seven minutes in because of an injury and did not return. The Runnin' Rebels had four players score in double figures, led by Jalen Hill's 16 points. Bear Cherry and Jaden Henley

In his second season, UNLV won 19 games, defeated two ranked teams (the most for the program in a season since 2015-16), and recorded its best non-conference record (11-1) in 32 years after its best start to a season (10-0) in 34 years. After the 10-0 start the team received votes in both top 25 polls and Kruger was named ESPN's National Coach of the Week. The 2023-24 season marked a turning point for the program. UNLV returned to the postseason for the first time in 11 years, won its first postseason game in 16 years, and recorded two postseason wins for the first time since 2007 as it advanced to the quarterfinals of the NIT. DEDAN THOMAS JR. EARNS THIRD TEAM ALL-MOUNTAIN WEST HONORS

UNLV sophomore guard Dedan Thomas Jr. has earned all-conference recognition for the second time as the Mountain West announced its 2024-25 season awards on Tuesday. Thomas Jr. was named All-Mountain West Third Team for this season. As a freshman in 2023-24, he earned Co-Freshman of the Year honors as well as Second-Team All-Mountain West recognition. The MW's 11 head coaches and select media voted on the league's awards this season. Thomas Jr., a 6-foot-1-inch point guard from Las Vegas, led UNLV in scoring this season with a conference-only average of 14.9 points per game. He also was the team leader in assist/turnover ratio at 2.9 (2nd in MW), assists at 5.1 apg (3rd in MW) and field-goal percentage (.420). He ranked No. 1 in the league in minutes played (36:59) and scored in double figures in 11 of his 15 games played, including 20 or more points in three contests. He was named the league's Player of the Week on Jan. 20 after leading the Runnin' Rebels to two upset wins the previous week: at home over then-No. 22 Utah State and on the road at San Diego State. In those games, he averaged 13.5 points per game and 5.5 assists per contest. He has missed each of the last five games because of injury.

JADEN HENLEY NAMED MOUNTAIN WEST MEN'S BASKETBALL PLAYER OF THE WEEK

UNLV junior guard Jaden Henley was named the Mountain West Men's Basketball Player of the Week on March 3 after leading the Runnin' Rebels to two wins the previous week: on the road at San Jose State (77-71) on Feb. 25 and at home against intrastate rival UNR (68-55) on Feb. 28. The Ontario, California, native set career highs in scoring in back-to-back games as he averaged a team-best 22.5 points per contest on 50% shooting from the field (15 of 30). He made 92.3% of his free throws (12 of 13), while collecting 6.5 rebounds per game, dishing out 4.0 assists per contest and recording 2.0 steals per game. Against the Spartans, Henley scored a career-high 22 points on 7 of 16 from the field with five rebounds, five assists and four steals. Additionally, he was 7 of 8 from the free-throw line. Against the Wolf Pack, he again tallied a career high in points with 23 as he was 8 of 14 from the field. He collected eight rebounds, dished out three assists and had a block, while also going a perfect 5 of 5 on free throws. It marked Henley's first Mountain West Player of the Week Award and second of the season for a UNLV player. Henley has stepped up as starting point guard Dedan Thomas Jr., who was UNLV's other MW Player of the Week Award recipient this season, has been out because of injury.

DEDAN THOMAS JR. EARNS UNLV'S FIRST MOUNTAIN WEST PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONOR

UNLV sophomore guard Dedan Thomas Jr. was named the Mountain West Men's Basketball Player of the Week on Monday, Jan. 20. Thomas Jr. led the Runnin' Rebels to two upset wins the previous week: at home over then-No. 22 Utah State (65-62) on Jan. 15 and on the road at San Diego State (76-68) on Jan. 18. The Las Vegas native averaged 13.5 points per game for the week, while dishing out 5.5 assists per contest. He shot over 90% from the free-throw line, collected 2.5 rebounds per game and had an assist-to-turnover ratio of 2.2. Against the Aggies, Thomas Jr. scored eight points with six assists (no turnovers) and collected four rebounds. Although he was 4 of 14 from the field, two of his baskets came at the most critical time to secure the win for his team. The Runnin' Rebels closed the game on a 7-0 run: after a 3-pointer by Julian Rishwain to cut their deficit to one point, Thomas Jr. made a tough transition layup to put UNLV up by a point with just under two minutes left, and then he capped it with a fadeaway jumper with 15.4 seconds left to create the final three-point margin. The win against Utah State was UNLV's first over a ranked team this season and its eighth win in its last 12 games against Top 25 opponents. It also pushed UNLV's record to 8-1 at home this season, while also snapping a six-game losing streak to Utah State. Against the Aztecs in San Diego, Thomas Jr. led the Runnin' Rebels in scoring with 19 points and had a game-high five assists. He was clutch from the free-throw line, making all 10 of his attempts. Thomas Jr. scored eight of UNLV's final 11 points of the game, all in the final 2:07. It was UNLV's first win in San Diego since 2020. Although Thomas Jr. has earned multiple awards and recognition from the conference in the past, this was his first Player of the Week Award. It was also the first for the Runnin' Rebels this season.

DEFENSE DURING SEVEN-GAME STRETCH FROM FEB. 8-MARCH 4

UNLV was 6-1 during a seven-game stretch from Feb. 8-March 4 before falling in its regular-season finale at New Mexico. Over that span, the Runnin' Rebels held five of their seven opponents to 61 points or fewer. Over those seven games, UNLV opponents averaged just 59.1 ppg, shooting 37.5% from the field and 24.9% on 3-pointers. In comparison, those numbers over UNLV's first 23 games of the season were 43.6% and 34.3%, respectively.

TRACKING THE TRENDS

UNLV is 16-2 this season when leading at the half, 16-2 when shooting a higher field-goal percentage than its opponent, 7-0 when shooting 50% or better from the field, 10-4 when shooting a higher FT% than its opponent, 11-2 when out-re-bounding its opponent and 7-0 when limiting its opponent to less than 60 points in a game.

INJURY BUG

UNLV has been bitten by the injury bug this season as Jaden Henley, Julian Rishwain, Dedan Thomas Jr., Rob Whaley Jr. and Jace Whiting have all missed time. Whiting is dealing with a foot injury (has missed last 28 games) and Whaley's injury is his back (has missed last 28 games). Thomas Jr. missed a game for the first time in his college career on Feb. 22 (has missed five straight) and Rishwain suffered an injury early in the first half at New Mexico on Friday in the regu-lar-season finale. Henley, who also had a foot injury, returned to play against Pacific on Dec. 14 after missing five games.

10 OF UNLV'S 14 LOSSES THIS SEASON TO TEAMS EXPECTED TO MAKE NCAA TOURNEY

Although UNLV has a 17-14 record, 10 of its losses are to teams that were expected to contend for their respective con-ference's championships and/or were or are expected to play in this year's NCAA Tournament. Memphis, who is ranked No. 16, has a KenPom rating of 48th in the country and made some noise in the Maui Invitational by defeating two-time defending national champion UConn at the event and playing in the championship game. The Tigers also won at then-No. 16 Clemson, at Virginia and against then-No. 16 Ole Miss. Mississippi State was No. 25 in the country when the Runnin' Rebels faced it in Arizona, spent most of the season in the Top 25 and is currently 32nd in KenPom. Northwestern is 47th in KenPom and beat then-No. 19 Illinois. Creighton, who has been in and out of the top 25 multiple times this season and beat then-No. 1 Kansas and UConn, is 36th in KenPom. Dayton, who was ranked No. 22 when the Runnin' Rebels played them, has wins over UConn and Marquette, and is 74th in KenPom, while New Mexico is 41st, Boise State is 49th, and Utah State is 53rd in KenPom, respectively. UNLV also lost to Colorado State twice, which is ranked 50th in KenPom and UNR once, ranked 79th. UNLV's current KenPom rating is 90th.

UNLV is 8-4 in its last 12 games against ranked teams under head coach Kevin Kruger. The following is a list of all Runnin' Rebel contests vs. ranked opponents since he was hired as head coach prior to the 2021-22 season:

RODEO ROAD TRIP

With the Thomas & Mack Center at UNLV hosting the National Finals Rodeo in December, the UNLV men's basketball team had to be out of its home arena. That is part of the reason that the Runnin' Rebels did not have a home game over a 28-day period. UNLV played at the Thomas & Mack Center on Nov. 23 vs. New Mexico State and then not again until Dec. 21 vs. UC Riverside.

PRESEASON MOUNTAIN WEST POLL

UNLV was picked to finish fifth in this year's Mountain West standings as voted on by select media and announced during the conference's media days in October. In addition, the Runnin' Rebels received two of 26 first-place votes. Boise State was predicted to win the conference title this season, while New Mexico was second, UNR third and San Diego State fourth.

"3-POINT GOAL…" - UNLV HOLDS NCAA RECORD

UNLV holds the NCAA record for most consecutive games scoring at least one 3-pointer. Since the 3-point field goal was adopted by the NCAA in 1986-87, UNLV has converted at least one 3-pointer in all 1,258 games played. With Vanderbilt failing to make one in a game during the 2019-20 season, UNLV and Princeton are the only schools left that have made at least one 3-pointer in every game played since the shot was introduced.

DEDAN THOMAS JR. EARNED MOUNTAIN WEST CO-FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR

UNLV men's basketball's Dedan Thomas Jr. earned Mountain West Co-Freshman of the Year honors for the 2023-24 season (last season) as well as Second-Team All-Mountain West recognition. He led UNLV in scoring last season with 13.6 ppg, also leading the team in assists (5.2 per game) and 3-point field-goal percentage (36.2%). He set the Mountain West's freshman season assist record with 174, also leading the nation among freshmen in that category. He was one of seven D-I freshmen to lead their team in points and assists last season. Only two other MW freshmen have done this over the previous 15 years – Colorado State's Isaiah Stevens (2019-20) and Dorian Green (2009-10). Prior to last season, he was recognized as the league's Preseason Freshman of the Year and in October, he was recognized as a member of the Preseason All-Mountain West Team for 2024-25. Last season he ranked 39th in the country in assists among all NCAA Division I players and was the only freshman to rank in the top 50. He also was first in the country in minutes played among freshmen (34:53 mpg) and had the fourth-best assist/turnover ratio among freshmen (2.32). He finished the season 16th in the MW in scoring, sixth in assists, 10th in free-throw percentage (.743), eighth in assist/turnover ratio and sixth in minutes played. He scored a career-high in points with 29 against San Diego State in the MW Tournament, had a career-high 11 assists vs. Utah State, scored in double figures on 25 occasions, including 20 or more points five times, had five or more assists in a game 20 times and made at least one 3-pointer in a game 25 times (nine games with two-plus made 3-pointers).

Former Runnin' Rebel student-athlete and assistant coach Kevin Kruger was appointed the head coach of the UNLV's men's basketball program in March 2021. Following the 2021-22 season, Kruger was named one of 15 finalists for the 2022 Joe B. Hall Award, which is presented annually to the top first-year coach in Division I men's college basketball by collegeinsider.com. During his first season at the helm of the program, Kruger led the Runnin' Rebels to 18 wins - the most for UNLV in four years. The team went 10-8 in Mountain West play, exceeding preseason expectations with a fifth-place finish in the league standings. He and his staff revamped the roster with nine transfers and the team continually improved as the season progressed, advancing 43 spots in the KenPom ratings along the way. Under Kruger's leadership, three UNLV individuals earned 2021-22 All-Mountain West accolades: Bryce Hamilton (First Team), Donovan Williams (Sixth Man of the Year) and Royce Hamm Jr. (Honorable Mention).

In Kruger's second season as head coach, the team won 19 games, including two over ranked teams. The two victories over top 25 squads were the most in a season for UNLV since 2015-16. The Runnin' Rebels raced out to a 10-0 start in 2022-23, marking the program's best in 34 years, while their non-conference record of 11-1 was their best in 32 years. After the 10-0 start, UNLV was receiving votes in both polls and Kruger was named the ESPN National Coach of the Week. EJ Harkless, a fifth-year transfer from Oklahoma State earned Second Team All-MW honors.

The 2023-24 season marked a turning point for the program. UNLV returned to the postseason for the first time in 11 years, won its first postseason game in 16 years, and recorded two postseason wins for the first time since 2007 as it advanced to the quarterfinals of the NIT. The team also recorded 21 wins, its most since the 2012-13 season. Dedan Thomas Jr. was named the MW's Co-Freshman of the Year, setting a MW freshman assists record along the way. UNLV defeated four ranked teams during the 2023-24 campaign, including a top-10 victory over No. 8 Creighton. The Runnin' Rebels finished the season strong, winning 12 of their last 16 games, and recording their best MW record in four years at 12-6.

Prior to being named head coach, Kruger completed his second year as an assistant for the UNLV program in 2020-21 after he returned to his alma mater in April 2019. The point guard on UNLV's 2007 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 team as a senior under his father, legendary coach Lon Kruger, Kevin returned to Las Vegas after spending three years as an assistant coach at Oklahoma (2016-19). With Kevin on the coaching staff, Oklahoma made multiple NCAA Tournament appearances. He was also an assistant coach at Northern Arizona for two seasons (2014-16) following a year as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma. Prior to making the move into coaching, Kevin played professionally from 2007-13.

During his first season on the coaching staff at UNLV in 2019-20, the Runnin' Rebels tied for second place in the Mountain West, marking the program's best league finish in 12 years. The team also sent shockwaves through the college basketball world with its victory at fourth-ranked and previously undefeated San Diego State, posting the program's best true road win since 1991 (a span of 29 seasons). Achievement in the classroom has been just as important with Kruger on staff. The team turned in a semester grade point average of 3.57 for fall 2020, the program's highest ever. It also achieved a record-cumulative GPA of 3.32 with an all-time program-high nine student-athletes on the Dean's Honor List.

Kruger began his collegiate playing career at Arizona State, where he earned his criminal justice degree in 2006, before transferring to UNLV. In his lone season as a Runnin' Rebel student-athlete, UNLV won 30 games. He earned All-Mountain West Third Team honors and was named to the conference's all-tournament team. At ASU, Kruger was named an honorable mention All-Pac-10 and second-team NABC District 15 selection in his third and final season in Tempe. Also a Pac-10 All-Freshman honorable mention pick, Kruger left the Sun Devils ranked fourth in career free throw percentage at ASU, fifth all-time in 3-pointers made and attempted and seventh in 3-point percentage. Kruger had professional basketball stints in Bulgaria, Italy, China, Mexico, Belgium and Germany in addition to NBA training camp invitations from the Orlando Magic and Milwaukee Bucks. He also played with the Utah Flash and Los Angeles D-Fenders of the NBA D-League before launching his coaching career. His father, Lon, coached the Runnin' Rebels from 2004-2011 and made four NCAA Tournament appearances (2007, 2008, 2010 and 2011) and an NIT (2009). Kevin earned a master's degree from Oklahoma in human relations in 2017 and is married to the former Allison Gerding. The couple has two daughters, Cameron (5) and Vivienne (3), along with a son, Maxwell, who was born in January 2024.

RUNNIN' REBELS RECORDED FIRST POSTSEASON WIN IN 16 YEARS
UNLV's victory at Princeton in the first round of the NIT last season marked its first postseason win in 16 years. Prior to that, the Runnin' Rebels' last win in the postseason was over Kent State in the first round of the 2008 NCAA Tournament. The Princeton win was UNLV's first victory in the NIT since 2005 when it defeated Arizona State at the Thomas & Mack Center, which also was the last time UNLV hosted a NIT game (until last season's Boston College game in the event's second round).

21 WINS FOR THE RUNNIN' REBELS - FIRST TIME IN 11 SEASONS
UNLV's 21 wins last season marked the first time the Runnin' Rebels won 21 games in a season since the 2012-13 campaign when they went 25-10. UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger's first team won 18 games (2021-22), his second squad won 19 (2022-23) and his third won 21.

UNLV BEAT THEN-NO. 8 CREIGHTON LAST SEASON - LAST TOP-10 WINS FOR THE REBELS
UNLV's win over then-No. 8 Creighton on Dec. 13, 2023 (last season) marked its first over a team ranked in the top 10 in the national polls in almost four years and was UNLV's fourth win over a ranked team in its previous five games against top-25 opponents. The last time the Runnin' Rebels defeated a team ranked in the top 10 prior to that was at then-No. 4 San Diego State (66-63) on Feb. 22, 2020. That win snapped the Aztecs' 26-game winning streak and ended their run as the nation's last undefeated team that season. Prior to the 2023-24 season, UNLV's last non-conference win over a top-10 team was nine years prior (Dec. 23, 2014) vs. then-No. 3 Arizona (71-67) at the Thomas & Mack Center.

AT LEAST TWO WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS IN SAME SEASON FOR SECOND STRAIGHT YEAR
With four wins over ranked teams during the 2023-24 season (then-No. 8 Creighton, then-No. 25 New Mexico, then-No. 22 Colorado State and then-No. 19 San Diego State), UNLV defeated at least two ranked teams in the same season for the second straight year.

FOUR RANKED WINS IN A SEASON FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE 2012-13
With UNLV's win over then-No. 19 San Diego State on March 5, 2024 (last season), the Runnin' Rebels defeated four ranked teams in the same season for the first time since 2012-13 when it also downed four ranked opponents. That year, UNLV won against then-No. 15/14 San Diego State, then-No. 15/16 New Mexico, then-No. RV/22 San Diego State and then-No. 22/21 Colorado State.

2022-23'S WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS
- UNLV's win over then-No. 21 Dayton on Nov. 15, 2022 marked its first win over a ranked non-conference opponent at the Thomas & Mack Center since defeating then-No. 3 Arizona (71-67) on Dec. 23, 2014.
- Prior to the win over Dayton, UNLV's previous win over any ranked team was during the prior season (2021-22) when it defeated then-No. 22 Colorado State in Fort Collins on Jan. 28, 2022. That win was its first win over a ranked team since Feb. 22, 2020 when it spoiled then-No. 4 San Diego State's bid at a perfect season.
- UNLV's win over then-No. 21 New Mexico on Jan. 7, 2023, gave the Runnin' Rebels two wins over ranked teams in the same season (2022-23) for the first time since the 2015-16 campaign when they beat No. 13 Indiana and No. 15 Oregon.

EIGHT TRUE ROAD WINS IN 2023-24
With eight true road wins in 2023-24, UNLV tied for the top spot in the Mountain West in that category with Utah State and UNR. The Runnin' Rebels tied for the second-best road record in Mountain West play last season with Utah State and UNR at 6-3. Boise State was 7-2 in road MW games. The last time prior to 2023-24 that UNLV won eight true road games was in 2010-11 when it finished the year 9-3 in such games and the last time it won six road games in MW play was also 2010-11 when it finished the conference slate 6-2 on the road. UNLV has never won seven MW road games in a season.

MOUNTAIN WEST REGULAR-SEASON SWEEPS
UNLV recorded four regular-season sweeps in Mountain West play last season. The Runnin' Rebels won both meetings against New Mexico, Fresno State, Wyoming and San Jose State. UNLV had not been swept in league play last season until it lost at UNR on March 9. This season, UNLV swept the season series with Air Force, Fresno State, San Jose State and San Diego State. The sweep over the Aztecs was UNLV's first in 12 years.

6-1 IN FEBRUARY 2024

10-1 IN 11 GAMES WAS UNLV'S BEST LEAGUE STRETCH SINCE 1992
UNLV's 10-1 stretch in 11 games last season (from Jan. 27-March 5) was its best in league play in 32 years (1992) when it went 18-0 during the Big West season.

NON-CONFERENCE RECORD UNDER KEVIN KRUGER
With an 8-5 non-conference record in Kevin Kruger's first season as head coach (2021-22), it marked the best non-conference mark for the Runnin' Rebels since they went 11-2 in 2017-18. With an 11-1 non-conference mark during the 2022-23 campaign, it was the program's best in non-conference play by percentage since the 1990-91 team was 9-0 in non-conference action. Under Kruger, UNLV is 32-16 in non-conference play.

The Runnin' Rebels, who were 12-5 in home games during the 2023-24 season with one game played at Cox Pavilion, have won 42 of their last 62 regular-season games at the Thomas & Mack Center. They are 11-5 at home this season.

UNLV was 11-5 in games played in the TMC last season (includes its Mountain West Tournament quarterfinal loss to San Diego State and its NIT second-round win over Boston College) and this season is 11-5.

I). The only schools ahead of UNLV are Kentucky, North Carolina, Kansas, Duke and UCLA. UNLV has finished the season with a winning percentage above .500, 60 times in its 66-year history.

NBA DRAFT PICKS
UNLV had a total of four NBA Draft picks over a four-year span from 2013-16: Anthony Bennett (No. 1 overall in 2013 by the Cleveland Cavaliers), Rashad Vaughn (No. 17 overall in 2015 by the Milwaukee Bucks), Patrick McCaw (No. 38 overall in 2016 by the Golden State Warriors) and Stephen Zimmerman Jr. (No. 41 overall in 2016 by the Orlando Magic).

RUNNIN' REBELS IN THE NBA
There were two former Runnin' Rebels on NBA rosters when this season began: Derrick Jones Jr. (Los Angeles Clippers), and Christian Wood (Los Angeles Lakers). Jones Jr., and Wood both went undrafted. Jones Jr. won the Slam Dunk Contest over Aaron Gordon during the 2020 NBA All-Star Weekend in Chicago on Feb. 15, 2020. On Jan. 1, the Utah Jazz signed former Runnin' Rebel Elijah Harkless to a two-way contract. Harkless played at UNLV during the 2022-23 season after transferring from Oklahoma.

MASON ABITTAN AND TYRIN JONES SIGN WITH THE RUNNIN' REBELS
The UNLV men's basketball program has received signed commitments from local products Mason Abittan and Tyrin Jones to join the Runnin' Rebels for the 2025-26 season, head coach Kevin Kruger announced during the early signing period.

Abittan is a 6-foot-6-inch, 185-pound guard from Las Vegas, who attends Coronado High School. He also attended Palo Verde High School in Las Vegas, where he averaged 19.6 points, 5.8 rebounds, 4.0 assists and 2.2 steals as a sophomore before transferring to Red Rock Academy, which is also in Las Vegas. He is about to begin his senior season at Coronado. Abittan was one of the top players this past summer on the Puma PRO16 Circuit and was recently selected as a Las Vegas Sun Super Seven selection for the 2024-25 season. He chose UNLV over Colorado State and UNR. He also played on the AAU circuit for Prominent Elite Basketball.

Jones is a 6-foot-9-inch, 190-pound forward who grew up in Las Vegas. He currently attends Layton Christian Academy in Layton, Utah. Ranked as a top-150 prospect by 247 Sports, he chose UNLV over New Mexico, Santa Clara and UC Santa Barbara. Jones averaged 6.0 ppg and 3.3 rpg this past summer for Utah Prospects, who won the Adidas 3SSB National Championship.

QUOTABLE: "I'm proud of our team for a lot of things. Every non-conference game for us will have a different challenge to prepare us for conference play. Alabama State brought back five starters and is a team that is comfortable with and understands each other well, which presented a really good and unique situation for us. I thought the guys did a really good job of talking, communicating and figuring it out, running the sets we were looking for and making plays for each other. We did a lot of good things that we can continue to build on, but also some things that we can fix and continue to get better." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

RUNNIN' REBELS FALL TO MEMPHIS IN CLOSE GAME

Dedan Thomas Jr. scored 22 points, but Tigers' 71.4% shooting in second half was the difference in 80-74 contest at Thomas & Mack Center.

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (1-1) lost to Memphis (2-0) in a close game on Nov. 9 at the Thomas & Mack Center, 80-74. The game featured eight lead changes and nine ties, including one with 3:25 to play at 68-all, but a late spurt by the Tigers, who shot 71.4% from the floor in the second half (20 of 28), proved to be the difference.

Memphis' PJ Haggerty led all scorers with 29 points on 10 of 18 shooting and 9 of 12 on free throws. Colby Rogers and Nicholas Jourdain also scored in double figures with 16 and 12 points, respectively, and Dain Dainja grabbed a game-high 11 rebounds to go along with nine points and four assists.

Dedan Thomas Jr. led the Runnin' Rebels with 22 points, but was held without an assist for the first time in his 36 games as a collegian. Jalen Hill added 14 points with five rebounds, five assists and four steals, while Jailen Bedford scored 10 points and Bear Cherry tallied nine points with team highs of seven rebounds and two blocks.

HOW IT ENDED: UNLV led 69-68 with 3:25 to play after two Hill free throws, but Memphis scored seven straight points to take control. A Jaden Henley 3-pointer cut the deficit to three with 54 seconds left, but a Haggerty basket and free throw on the play pushed the lead back to six. UNLV cut it to four with 20 seconds to go but would get no closer.

QUOTABLE: "It was a good, competitive game. Both teams obviously played really hard. We weren't quite able to get a little more separation and they went on a run, doing a good job speeding us up. A couple of turnovers late turned into points, which ended up being the difference in the game. It is early in the season and to play a team like Memphis right now, they are going to win a lot of games, but also leave knowing that we feel that we can play better and that we can continue to work and get better as a group. That's what we will do as we get ready for a good Omaha team." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

OTHER NOTES:
- This was the sixth all-time meeting between UNLV and Memphis in men's basketball, but the first since the 1997 NIT. UNLV is 4-2 all-time against the Tigers.
- The Runnin' Rebels held Memphis to just 32.1% shooting in the first half (9 of 28), including 1 of 9 on 3-pointers.
- Memphis finished the game at 51.8% shooting overall, while UNLV was at 39.7%.
- UNLV led by as many as 12 points late in the first half, but Memphis cut its deficit to just four at the break (34-30).
- UNLV held the outright led for 25:24 of the contest, with Memphis doing the same for just 8:29.
- Memphis led in rebounding 39-33 and in points in the paint 36-24.
- UNLV led in points from turnovers 18-12. UNLV committed just 10 miscues.
- UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,229 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS PULL AWAY FROM OMAHA IN 80-69 WIN

Four UNLV players scored in double figures, while the team shot 96% from the free-throw line at Thomas & Mack Center

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (2-1) got back in the win column with an 80-69 victory over Omaha (2-2) on Nov. 14 at the Thomas & Mack Center.

Four Runnin' Rebels scored in double figures, led by Jalen Hill with 17 points, eight rebounds and a career-high five assists. Bear Cherry also added 17 points with four rebounds, while Dedan Thomas Jr. scored 15 and Jaden Henley contributed 10.

The Mavericks also had four players in double figures in scoring, led by Ja'Sean Glover's 17 points on 5 of 6 3-pointers.

GAME OF RUNS: UNLV led by as many as 13 midway through the second half, but Omaha came back to tie the score at 63-63 with under five minutes to go. The Runnin' Rebels used an 11-1 run, started by six straight points from Hill and a long 3-pointer by Julian Rishwain, over the next 3:30 to pull away.

QUOTABLE: "Extremely happy with the result. Every game that we play during the non-conference has a purpose or a reason, whether it is coaches we know or styles they play. Omaha brought another unique challenge for us tonight and we're getting better. We just have to be more consistent, but it's not from a lack of effort or lack of time and investment that the guys are putting in. We are going to have some great film to show the guys to continue to get better, because we had a lot of really good possessions and we've got some things that we can tighten up. There is a lot to be excited about right now." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

OTHER NOTES:
- This was the third all-time meeting between UNLV and Omaha in men's basketball. The Runnin' Rebels have won all three meetings.
- UNLV was 24 of 25 from the free-throw line (96.0%).
- Hill's 17 points were his UNLV high. His career high is 26.
- Cherry, who was 7 of 8 from the floor, has started the season by making 21 of his 23 shot attempts (91.3%).

- UNLV led in points in the paint, 36-24, and in fastbreak points, 17-8.

RUNNIN' REBELS RACE OUT TO BIG LEAD, CRUISE TO 80-59 WIN OVER PEPPERDINE

Five UNLV players scored in double figures at the Thomas & Mack Center in team's second straight victory

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - Five Runnin' Rebels scored in double figures as the UNLV men's basketball team (3-1) won its second straight game with an 80-59 victory over Pepperdine (1-3) on Nov. 20 at the Thomas & Mack Center.

Brooklyn Hicks scored a team- and career-high 16 points on 7 of 11 shooting off the bench, while Bear Cherry added 14 points, Dedan Thomas Jr. had 13, Julian Rishwain added 12 in his first start as a Runnin' Rebel and Jailen Bedford contributed 11.

The Waves were led by Stefan Todorovic's 19 points, while Jaxon Olvera and David Mager each scored 10.

FIRST-HALF RUNS: UNLV used a 9-0 spurt to take a 15-5 lead nine minutes into the game, increasing its advantage to 23-8 with 8:25 to go in the first half and then led 46-17 at halftime.

LARGEST LEAD: UNLV increased its lead to as many as 38 in the game, leading 66-28 with 11:41 to go.

STATS OF THE GAME: UNLV shot 64.0% from the field in the first half (16 of 25), including 54.5% on 3-pointers (6 of 11). The Runnin' Rebels forced 16 turnovers and led in points off turnovers 24-7.

QUOTABLE: "Really happy and proud of the guys for a very good first half. We knew we could see some lineups that hadn't played together in games and it was great to see them play that way, figure things out, be very talkative and try to problem solve. We tried to get as many good looks offensively as we could and then take away as many easy, free ones as we could defensively. Without question, it was our best 20 minutes (in the first half), which put us in a good spot for the second half. Now we need to get some rest and carry that over to another tough one on Saturday." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

RUNNIN' REBELS WIN THIRD STRAIGHT WITH 72-65 VICTORY OVER NEW MEXICO STATE

Dedan Thomas Jr. led UNLV with 22 points and Jalen Hill contributed 16 as it closed out season-opening five-game homestand

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - Dedan Thomas Jr. led all scorers with 22 points and Jalen Hill added 16 as the UNLV men's basketball team (4-1) won its third straight game in a 72-65 victory over New Mexico State (3-2) on Nov. 23 at the Thomas & Mack Center. The game closed out the Runnin' Rebels' season-opening five-game homestand.

A total of four UNLV players scored in double figures as Julian Rishwain added 12 points and Jeremiah "Bear" Cherry added 10. Fifteen of Thomas Jr.'s points came in the first half and he scored a career-high 13 from the free-throw line. Hill led UNLV with nine rebounds and Cherry had eight rebounds with five blocks. Rishwain was 3 of 6 on 3-pointers.

The Aggies also had four players in double figures in scoring, led by Gabe Pickens' 14 points. Peter Filipovity and Robert Carpenter each recorded double-doubles with 12 points and 11 rebounds, and 10 points and 13 rebounds, respectively.

HOW IT ENDED: New Mexico State used a 6-0 run to take a one-point lead at 63-62 with just over four minutes to play, but a Cherry dunk off a feed from Hill put the Runnin' Rebels back in the lead for good. UNLV closed the game on a 9-2 run with NMSU's only basket during that stretch coming on a goaltend call.

STAT OF THE GAME: UNLV had just eight turnovers, which was a season low.

QUOTABLE: "I couldn't be more proud of the guys for the fight. It's always, of course, better to end up on the winning side of it. But a great November game to help us get ready for the challenges that are ahead and the really good Mountain West Conference. It was really good for us to be in a tight game against a good team that plays incredibly hard and plays really well together. I'm happy to see things go our way as we continued to figure things out in the flow of the game. Our talking to each other and problem solving was great tonight. We had some really good plays late where we executed and got what we were looking for. Defensively, we made shots tough and rebounded it well, so just really proud of them, happy for them and of course, it makes Sunday a lot better." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

OTHER NOTES:
- This was the 31st all-time meeting between UNLV and New Mexico State in men's basketball and the first since both schools were members of the Big West in 1996.
- UNLV improved to 21-10 all-time against the Aggies and 39-13 against teams that currently make up Conference USA.

RUNNIN' REBELS FALL TO NO. 25 MISSISSIPPI STATE AT ARIZONA TIP-OFF

Jailen Bedford scored a season-high 13 points in 80-58 loss at Mullett Arena in Tempe on Thanksgiving night

TEMPE, Ariz. (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (4-2) saw its three-game win streak come to an end with an 80-58 loss to No. 25 Mississippi State (6-0) on Nov. 28 in the Arizona Tip-Off at Mullett Arena.

Jailen Bedford scored a season-high 13 points, while Jalen Hill had 11 and Dedan Thomas Jr. scored 10 with six assists for the Runnin' Rebels.

The Bulldogs were led by KeShawn Murphy's double-double of 14 points and 13 rebounds. Josh Hubbard added 11 points for Mississippi State, which outrebounded UNLV 46-29 including a 19-4 advantage on the offensive glass.

TURNING POINT: With a five-point lead at 22-17 with 12 minutes to go in the first half, Mississippi State went on a 12-2 run to take a 15-point lead with 6:30 left until halftime and led 45-32 at the break. The Bulldogs then used an 11-0 run over an almost four-minute stretch in the second half to take a 62-36 lead with 12:50 to play, taking full control of the game.

QUOTABLE: "We have to figure it out. There's a fun approach to that too. It doesn't have to be doom and gloom. We played a really good team tonight and of course, it wasn't the way we wanted it to go, but there's a lot of really good things we can take from it. They sped us up, they had us doing some things offensively in the second half, especially, that we have to avoid. Defensively, they did some things that we've got to do better at covering. Obviously the defensive rebounding sticks out, but there were a lot of times where we had a good chance to get them, we just have to finish the possession. So hopefully we are looking back at this game in a few weeks and we say that was a nice little eye-opener for us, because that's a tournament team. They are going to win a lot of games and compete for an SEC title. But the fun has to be in preparing and figuring out now how we are going to go compete against another really good, really physical team tomorrow, and we will start as soon as we get back to the hotel." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

OTHER NOTES:
- This was the third meeting all-time between the two schools in men's basketball with UNLV still holding a 2-1 advantage.
- UNLV dropped to 7-3 over its last 10 games vs. ranked teams under Coach Kruger.
- UNLV, which was without Jaden Henley, Rob Whaley Jr. and Jace Whiting because of injuries, lost Bear Cherry early in the second half because of a back injury. He had scored eight points and was 4 of 5 from the field with two blocks.
- Bedford was 3 of 6 on 3-pointers.
- Jacob Bannarbie, Brooklyn Hicks and Hill all recorded five rebounds.
- UNLV shot 56% (14 of 25) in the first half, but managed just 7 of 23 in the second.
- Mississippi State made 7 of 14 3-pointers in the first half.
- Mississippi State committed just 10 turnovers, while UNLV had a season-high 15.
- Mississippi State's bench outscored UNLV's 48-13.
- UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,233 straight games.

NORTHWESTERN EDGES RUNNIN' REBELS IN ARIZONA, 66-61

Dedan Thomas Jr. and Jailen Bedford led UNLV in scoring with 17 and 15 points, respectively, at Mullett Arena in Tempe

TEMPE, Ariz. (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (4-3) got edged by Northwestern (6-2), 66-61, on Nov. 29 in the Arizona Tip-Off at Mullett Arena.

Dedan Thomas Jr. and Jailen Bedford led the Runnin' Rebels in scoring with 17 and 15 points, respectively. Jeremiah "Bear" Cherry had a game-high 10 rebounds, while Jacob Bannarbie, who made his first career start, pulled down eight boards.

The Wildcats were led by Brooks Barnhizer's 23 points, nine rebounds and six assists. He made a game-high four 3-pointers. Jalen Leach added 15 points and Nick Martinelli scored 12.

DOWN THE STRETCH: Northwestern led 26-25 at the half and it was close throughout most of the second half. The Wildcats led by six with eight minutes to play, but Julian Rishwain hit back-to-back 3-pointers to cut the deficit to just two at 51-49. However Northwestern pushed its lead back to seven with two minutes to go. A Bedford 3-pointer cut it to four with 1:43 left but that was as close as it would get from there.

QUOTABLE: "We just need to tighten up on some things, but the guys are working at it. We a great spark by Jacob Bannarbie in the starting lineup and from Jailen Bedford off the bench. Great minutes all around. I thought everybody contributed and did a good job, but it just came down to a couple critical plays there at the end where we just have to come up with a loose ball and come up with a rebound. We did a good job executing on the offensive end and getting some good looks. Northwestern is a really good defensive team, always is. So a good job sharing it, moving it, creating for each other. But again, we can take that next step here of getting not just an okay shot every time, but a really good or a great shot and that's what we'll keep working on. But the fight tonight was much better and that's what we need to do going into every game." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

OTHER NOTES:
- This was just the second all-time between the two schools. UNLV won the only previous meeting, 101-95 in Las Vegas in 1977.
- Bedford was 6 of 7 from the field, including 3 of 4 on 3-pointers, off the bench.
- Northwestern (18 of 26) shot 16 more free throws than UNLV (7 of 10) did.
- UNLV out-rebounded the Wildcats, 34-33.
- The Runnin' Rebels held Northwestern to just 29.2% (7 of 24) on field goals in the first half, however the Wildcats shot 52.0% (13 of 25) after halftime.
- Northwestern led in points off turnovers 13-7, but the Runnin' Rebels had the advantage in points in the paint (32-18) and bench scoring (19-7).

RUNNIN' REBELS FALL AT CREIGHTON IN SEASON'S FIRST TRUE ROAD GAME

Jailen Bedford scored a season-high 20 points, while Dedan Thomas Jr. had 18 in 83-65 loss

OMAHA, Neb. (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (4-4) lost at Creighton (7-3), 83-65, in its first true road game of the season on Dec. 7 at CHI Health Center.

Jailen Bedford scored a season-high 20 points, while Dedan Thomas Jr. added 18 and Julian Rishwain was also in double figures with 10 points.

Creighton had five players in double-figure scoring, led by Jamiya Neal's 19 points, nine rebounds and nine assists. Steven Ashworth had 17 points with seven assists.

STAT OF THE GAME: Creighton shot 73.1% from the field in the second half (19 of 26), including 62.5% on 3-pointers (5 of 8).

TURNING POINT: UNLV led 22-21 with 7:46 to go in the first half, but Creighton used an 18-5 run to take a 39-27 lead at the break. The Bluejays also scored the first 10 points of the second half in a three-minute stretch to go up by 22 (49-27).

QUOTABLE: "Our confidence is a little rattled right now. Confidence is a tricky thing. When you're going through it, it feels like you're never going to feel good again, but then something happens, something sparks it. A good night's sleep, a good shooting session, or something like that and you are back to your old self. Our team is bummed, their down. We have lost three in a row, but at the same time we have four losses to teams that are going to be in the NCAA Tournament. We are playing teams that are going to compete for conference championships and play in the NCAA Tournament. We have to stick our chest out and know that we are going to put the work in to get that turned and once it does, this is a team that can still do a lot of great things. We are competing right now, battling and trying to figure it out." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

OTHER NOTES:
- This was the fifth all-time meeting between UNLV and Creighton in men's basketball, but the first outside of Southern Nevada.
- UNLV leads the series, 3-2.

- Creighton out-rebounded UNLV 34-21.
- UNLV forced 16 turnovers and led in points off turnovers 18-6.
- Creighton shot 63.3% for the game (31 of 49), including 50% on 3-pointers (10 of 20).

We guarded them the way we wanted to and put them into the spots that we wanted to. Our guys didn't let that affect them too much. When they took the lead, DJ changed gears and ended up being the difference. He made some big-time shots and big-time plays. We came up with some stops to get the lead back, and of course, Julian extended it with back-to-back threes." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

RUNNIN' REBELS NEARLY PULL OFF UPSET AT NO. 22 DAYTON

UNLV held the lead late and had a chance to win on a buzzer beater that fell short in 66-65 loss

DAYTON, Ohio (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team nearly upset No. 22 Dayton on Dec. 17 at University of Dayton Arena, but Dedan Thomas Jr. missed what would have been the game winner at the buzzer in the 66-65 loss.

Thomas Jr. scored a game-high 16 points for the Runnin' Rebels (5-5), while Jaden Henley scored 15 and Julian Rishwain added 12.

The Flyers (10-2) had four players score in double figures, led by Nate Santos' 14 points.

HOW IT ENDED: Henley scored a basket in the paint and was fouled, making the free throw, to give UNLV a 62-58 lead with 1:25 to go. Santos responded with a 3-pointer 10 seconds later and after a missed 3-point attempt by Thomas Jr., Dayton's Malachi Smith scored on a fast-break layup to give the Flyers a one-point lead with 37 seconds left. Rishwain hit a 3-pointer with 23 seconds to go giving UNLV the lead again, 65-63, but Smith answered once again with a basket and was fouled, making the free throw and giving Dayton a 66-65 advantage with eight seconds left. Thomas Jr. drove the left side of the lane and pulled up on the baseline, missing a mid-range jumper at the buzzer that would have given the Runnin' Rebels the win.

QUOTABLE: "It was a great atmosphere and turned out to be a great college basketball game, but there are things that we need to clean up. We need to keep taking steps to get better. We will have some good teaching points from this game, both positive and on the other side. This was a heartbreaker. We will have a really good couple of days of practices and be ready to get back out there to play on Saturday." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

OTHER NOTES:
- This was just the second meeting all-time between the two teams. The series is now tied 1-1.
- This game was scheduled to be played last season, but the shooting on UNLV's campus resulted in it being canceled.
- Dayton extended its homecourt win streak to 25 games.
- Henley led UNLV in rebounding with seven and shot 5 of 8 from the field, making all five of his free-throw attempts and recording a steal.

We are extremely excited about it and now will get ready for another very unique challenge coming up (at Air Force)." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

RUNNIN' REBELS WIN THIRD STRAIGHT, MOVE TO 2-0 IN MW WITH 77-58 WIN AT AIR FORCE

UNLV led by as many as 28 points as four players scored in double figures in team's fourth win in last five games

COLORADO SPRINGS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (8-5, 2-0) led by as many as 28 points in a 77-58 win at Air Force (3-10 ,0-2) on New Year's Eve day.

It was the Runnin' Rebels' third straight win and fourth victory in their last five games as they improved their Mountain West record to 2-0.

Four UNLV players scored in double figures, led by Julian Rishwain's 16 points as he made 4 of 7 3-pointers.

Air Force was led by Ethan Taylor's 14 points. He also had eight rebounds and four steals.

TURNING POINT: After a slow start UNLV found itself down 10-6 almost six minutes into the game, but a 20-3 run over a five-plus minute stretch gave the Runnin' Rebels a 26-13 lead with 8:30 to go in the first half. Air Force cut it to five with 5:30 until halftime, but UNLV increased its advantage from there and led 38-26 at the break.

STAT OF THE GAME: UNLV outshot Air Force 57.1% (28 of 49) to 33.3% (19 of 57).

QUOTABLE: (Asked what has been working during the three-game win streak) "We are sticking together, doing what each other expects to do. In the six halves that we have played since we got back from Dayton, we have had five pretty good ones. We are continuing to learn each other and play for each other. I thought today, minus a little stretch where they hit back-to-back 3-pointers in the second half, we were about as disciplined and had the most conviction in terms of what we wanted to do and what we wanted to be like from the scouting report in practice to the game and that's why we were able to have a steady offense and defense throughout today." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

OTHER NOTES:
- UNLV improved its all-time record against Air Force to 48-16.
- The Runnin' Rebels have won five of the last six against the Falcons and 10 of the last 12.

RUNNIN' REBELS STUN NO. 22 UTAH STATE WITH THRILLING 65-62 WIN

Dedan Thomas Jr. capped a 7-0 game-ending UNLV run as the Runnin' Rebels improved to 8-1 at home this season

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (10-7, 4-2) upset No. 22 Utah State (16-2, 6-1), 65-62, on Jan. 15 at the Thomas & Mack Center. The victory was the Runnin' Rebels' first over a ranked team this season and eighth win in their last 12 games against Top 25 opponents. It also pushed UNLV's record at home this season to 8-1.

UNLV finished the game on a 7-0 run, sparked by a Julian Rishwain 3-pointer, then a transition layup by Dedan Thomas Jr. and capped by a Thomas Jr. fadeaway jumper with 15.4 seconds left.

Jalen Hill led the Runnin' Rebels with 15 points and eight rebounds, while Rishwain scored 13 points on four made 3-pointers.

BACK AND FORTH: There were eight lead changes and eight ties throughout the course of the game.

QUOTABLE: "Proud of them, happy for them. Unbelievable fight. To get up off the mat after last week was a great thing to see, but as we know in this conference, the next one is tough no matter where it is, who it is. Felt like our defense was the focal point tonight and it led to a lot of good offensive possessions. When we do that, we have pretty good days. When we watch the film, I think we are going to be incredibly proud of how much they fought, how locked in they were and how much they played for each other, which you have to do if you are going to beat an unbelievably good team like Utah State." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger.

OTHER NOTES:
- UNLV improved to 35-15 all-time against Utah State, including 18-6 at home.
- The win snapped a six-game UNLV losing streak to Utah State.

QUOTABLE: "Proud of the way they fought, proud of the effort and the energy that was there. Need that at a baseline to beat a team like New Mexico and give yourself a chance, which was a positive from the game in terms of just having that compete and that energy level that was needed. But just because you play hard, it doesn't always go your way. It was a tough one and just like every night in this conference, now we have to get ready for another tough one." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

RUNNIN' REBELS BATTLE BACK, BUT FALL 76-71 AT UTAH STATE

UNLV erased a 16-point first-half deficit; Dedan Thomas Jr. led all players with a season-high-tying 22 points and six assists in Logan

LOGAN, Utah (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (11-10, 5-5) battled all the way back from a 16-point first-half deficit to tie the game at 56 apiece with 5:50 to play, but ended up being defeated 76-71 at Utah State (19-2, 9-1) on Jan. 29.

Dedan Thomas Jr. led all players with a season-high-tying 22 points and six assists for the Runnin' Rebels. Jaden Henley and Jalen Hill each scored 16 points with Henley recording a game-high six rebounds and Hill collecting five boards and three steals.

The Aggies had five players score in double figures, led by Deyton Albury's 16 points and Drake Allen's 15, while three tallied five rebounds each.

TURNING POINT: After Hill's and-1 tied the game with 5:50 to play, UNLV only made one field goal over the next five minutes as Utah State took a 10-point lead (69-59).

QUOTABLE: "This is a tough place to win. It is an unbelievable venue. For the guys to battle from 16 down, when it would have been very easy to give up and lay down, they just continued to fight. I'm not a moral victory guy. I won't sleep, I won't eat, I won't feel good about it, but when I watch the film, I'm going to take the positives of the things we did well and the things that we can build on, because we've proven we're a good team in this conference. We've just been on the short end of some of these really tough games. There's no shame to lose to Utah State in Logan, but now it's how do we get up off the mat? How do we react? How do we respond tomorrow? Because it's a very quick turnaround (to our next game at UNR)." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

OTHER NOTES:
- UNLV has lost its last three games by a combined nine points.
- It was UNLV's seventh straight loss in Logan and eighth in the last nine meetings at the Spectrum.
- UNLV shot just 4 of 20 on 3-pointers (20.0%), but made 82.6% of its free-throw attempts (19 of 23).
- Both teams shot at least 50% in the second half. UNLV was 15 of 30 (50.0%), while Utah State made 55.0% (11 of 20).
- Utah State built its 16-point lead with 8:41 left in the first half after a 13-0 run.
- Utah State was just 19 of 31 at the free-throw line (61.3%).
- Thomas Jr. was 8 of 13 from the field and Henley was 7 of 12, while Hill made 8 of 9 free throws.

RUNNIN' REBELS DEFEATED IN CLOSE GAME AT UNR, 71-65

Jaden Henley led UNLV in in scoring with 14 points in Reno

RENO, Nev. (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (11-11, 5-6) was defeated 71-65 by UNR (12-10, 4-7) on Feb. 1 at Lawlor Events Center. The game was a part of the Silver State Series, presented by America First Credit Union.

After trailing by 12 points early in the second half, the Runnin' Rebels used a 14-4 run to cut their deficit to just two at 50-48 with a little over 10 minutes to go.

It was extremely tight from there as a Jaden Henley 3-pointer gave the Runnin' Rebels a 57-55 lead with seven minutes to go and later, back-to-back 3-pointers by Julien Rishwain tied the score at 63-63 with 2:30 left. A Dedan Thomas Jr. jumper tied the game at 65-65 with 1:17 remaining, but UNLV did not score again as the Wolf Pack finished the game on a 6-0 run.

STAT OF THE GAME: UNLV committed 15 turnovers, which led to 17 points for UNR.

QUOTABLE: "We've been in four close games. I've been telling them that we have given ourselves a chance to win close games. We are going to focus on the positive. This is going to turn for us and we are going to be on the other side of them. It is going to be because of having some close games here where we felt what it feels like to have an opportunity to make a play or have an opportunity to do something different. It is going to turn for us for the better and we are going to start coming out on top of some close games." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

OTHER NOTES:
- UNLV has lost four straight games by a combined 15 points.
- This was the 100th all-time meeting between UNLV and UNR in men's basketball. UNLV leads the series 64-36.
- It was UNR's third straight win against UNLV dating back to last season.

BOISE STATE DEFEATS RUNNIN' REBELS 71-62

Dedan Thomas Jr. scored a game-high 20 points, while Bear Cherry added 19 for UNLV at the Thomas & Mack Center

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (11-12, 5-7) was defeated 71-62 by Boise State (16-7, 8-4) on Feb. 4 at the Thomas & Mack Center.

Three Runnin' Rebels scored in double figures, led by Dedan Thomas Jr.'s 20 points and Bear Cherry's 19. Julian Rishwain grabbed a career-high nine rebounds with four assists.

The Broncos had four players score 13 or more points, led by Tyson Degenhart's 16. He also had seven rebounds and three blocks. Andrew Meadow added 14 points, while Alvaro Cardenas and Javan Buchanan each scored 13 points with eight rebounds. RJ Keene had a game-high 10 boards, while Cardenas had a game-high six assists.

TURNING POINT: At the end of the first half, which included six lead changes and five ties, Boise State led 33-29. The Broncos scored the first nine points of the second half to go up 42-29 with 16 minutes left.

WITHIN STRIKING DISTANCE: UNLV used a 6-0 run, ignited by its defense, to trim Boise State's lead to 56-52 with 4:57 to play. The run was made up of three straight steals, leading to three straight dunks. The Broncos, however, pushed their lead back to nine with 1:26 to play.

STAT OF THE GAME: UNLV shot just 1 of 16 on 3-pointers, including 0 of 9 in the second half.

QUOTABLE: "Against a good team like Boise, we had a couple of lapses that ended up costing us. They did a good job of making us pay. Our confidence is rattled and we were a little hesitant. We just need that spark and it is going to turn things for the better. When we were aggressive, when we made plays for each other, when we attacked the rim, when we did what we needed to do defensively, sliding and staying in front and knowing what each other wanted to do, we had some really good possessions. But just a couple of possessions with offensive rebounds and a good play made here or there is what made the difference for them." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

OTHER NOTES:
- Boise State swept the regular-season series with UNLV.
- It was UNLV's fifth straight loss.
- Jailen Bedford added 11 points and six rebounds.
- Cherry was 9 of 11 from the field and had two blocks.
- Boise State went to the free-throw line 15 more times than UNLV.
- Boise State led in rebounds 45-34.
- UNLV turned Boise State's 14 turnovers into 13 points. UNLV committed just five turnovers.
- UNLV led in points in the paint 42-20, but Boise State led in second-chance points 10-4 and bench scoring 26-15.
- UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,250 straight games.

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (14-13, 8-8) had its three-game win streak snapped on Feb. 22 with a 61-53 loss to Colorado State (18-9, 12-4) at the Thomas & Mack Center.

SLOW START: UNLV found itself down 14-2 five minutes into the contest, but battled back to tie the game at 18 apiece with 6:30 to go until halftime. CSU held a one-point lead at the break, 27-26.

BACK AND FORTH: CSU started the second half with an 8-1 spurt but the Runnin' Rebels fought back again and a long Bedford 3-pointer gave them a 37-36 lead with 13 minutes to play. The Rams pushed their lead back up to eight at 48-40 with 7:30 to go, but UNLV again battled and tied the game on a Cherry hook shot with 3:11 to go (53-53). Colorado State held the Runnin' Rebels scoreless from there, finishing the game on an 8-0 run.

QUOTABLE: "Obviously, a tough one. We did what we needed to do to give ourselves a chance to win the game. Guys were locked in. There was disappointment in the locker room because of the investment put in, getting ready for a very good Colorado State team. There are a lot of great things that we will take from the film, but the most important thing is that I am so unbelievably, incredibly proud of them for taking that prep and for giving it every single thing they had out there, trying to make it work in a number of situations that were new and that hopefully lights even more of a fire for us tomorrow to get ready for another really good team in conference." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

QUOTABLE: "We competed like crazy. This is a tough place to come in and play and a tough place to come in and get wins. A handful of guys went 40 minutes and competed as hard as they could for 40 of those minutes. It was tough, and fatigue kicked in but that's going to happen in the situation that we were in. We had a lot of fight and made lot of great plays. We will turn our attention now and get ready for the next one." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger
