THREE'S A CHARM AGAIN: After completing the four-peat Mountain West regular season title for only the second time in league history and first in UNLV history, the Lady Rebels were honored for their accomplishments by the conference's coaches tying a school-record for the second consecutive season, and earned three MW best of the year honors, the league announced Sunday. Head coach Lindy La Rocque was named MW Coach of the Year for the third time in her five seasons at the helm and Meadow Roland was named the league's Freshman and Sixth Player of the Year. This is the second time in program history that a Lady Rebel has earned Freshman and Sixth player of the year in the same season. This marks the second straight year the Scarlet & Gray collected Freshman and Sixth Player of the Year. UNLV has now collected four straight Sixth Player of the Year nods and a combined five Freshman of the Year nods. La Rocque is the first coach in MW history to be named Coach of the Year three times in just her first five seasons, and marks the second time in program history UNLV has collected three Coach of the Year accolades. In addition, senior Kiara Jackson and sophomore Amarachi Kimpson were selected to the All-Mountain West team. Senior Alyssa Brown picked up All-Mountain West honorable mention and All-Defensive team accolades and Roland was also named to the All-Freshman squad.

FOUR-PEAT MW REGULAR SEASON CHAMPS: The Lady Rebels secured the No. 1 seed for the Mountain West Basketball Championships and the regular season title for the fourth straight year. UNLV defeated Boise State 83-53 to clinch and move to 15-1 overall in the MW standings. This marks the first time in program history the Scarlet & Gray claimed the MW regular season title and the second time in MW history and first time since Colorado State's four-peat in 2014-17.

NON-CONFERENCE WRAP: The Lady Rebels played the 23rd toughest non-conference schedule in the nation finishing with a solid 8-4 performance. UNLV collected two double-digit wins over Power Conference teams with 19-point wins over both UCF (Big 12) and DePaul (Big East). The Scarlet & Gray played opponents from nine different conferences in their non-conference slate.

JACKSON KEEPS DISHIN': Senior guard Kiara Jackson is the only Mountain West player thus far this season to record three nine assist games this season. Her first came against UCF on Nov. 27, the second was at Baylor on Dec. 8 and the most recent was at New Mexico on Jan. 12. Jackson's career-high of single-game assists is nine which happened twice last season. She also jumped into the top-10 all-time in career assists with a total of 449 and counting. She is currently in sole possession of third on the all-time list.

WELCOME TO THE 1K CLUB, KIARA JACKSON: Kiara Jackson collected her 1,000 career point in a Lady Rebels uniform on Wednesday, Dec. 29 in the Mountain West opener versus Fresno State. She became the 27th Lady Rebel in history to reach the 1K mark. Jackson had 10 points to total 1,006 career points in the 78-53 victory over the Bulldogs.

JACKSON JUMPS INTO TOP-25 ALL-TIME SCORING: After collecting her 1,000th career point, Kiara Jackson has not let off the gas when it comes to scoring. She dropped 20 points the game after against San Jose State on Jan. 1, and was 12 points away from tying 25th all-time in scoring. Against Boise State, Jackson put up 18 points to lead the Lady Rebels in a 61-57 victory. Jackson currently has 1,227 career points, which is good for 21st all-time.

LADY REBELS' DOUBLE-DIGIT WINS OVER POWER CONFERENCE TEAMS: UNLV has 19-point wins over both UCF (Big 12) and DePaul (Big East) this season. That is tied for the most wins by that margin or more against power conference teams in a single season in Mountain West history (ACC, Big 12, Big East, Big Ten, Pac-12, SEC).

WEEKLY HONORS: Redshirt freshman Meadow Roland was named MW Freshman of the Week on March 3 after leading the Lady Rebels to a 2-0 week averaging 20.0 points per game. She shot 62.5% from the field (15-for-24), and 10-for-11 (90.09) from the free throw line. Roland was third on the squad through two games in rebounds averaging 6.0 boards per game.

Redshirt freshman Meadow Roland notched the third Mountain West weekly honor for the Lady Rebels this season as she was named MW Freshman of the Week on Feb. 3 after leading UNLV with a career-high 17 points in a 68-59 win over UNR. She shot 7-for-9 from the field and did not miss a shot from the three-point line (1 of 1) and charity stripe (2 of 2). She also led the Scarlet & Gray in rebounds with nine and the Lady Rebels' lone block of the game.

Graduate guard Aaliyah Alexander tabbed the second Mountain West accolade for the Lady Rebels this season as she was named MW Player of the Week on Dec. 16 after putting up a season-high 25 points to lead UNLV to a 80-61 victory over DePaul. She shot 8-for-10 from the field, did not miss a three-pointer (3-for-3) and was 6-for-10 from the free throw line. Her 25 points against the Blue Demons have been the most thus far this season in a game by a Lady Rebel. She was only six points away from tying her career-high she set at Eastern Washington.

Redshirt freshman forward Meadow Roland collected the first Mountain West Freshman of the Week accolade on Nov. 11 after helping UNLV to a 2-0 start. Roland earned her first career double-double in her debut for the Lady Rebels with 11 points and 10 rebounds against LMU. She then had another double-figure rebounding night against NAU bringing down a season/career-high 16 boards. Roland led the Lady Rebels in rebounds through two games.
