Mountain West Women's Basketball Championship – First Round
Postgame Notes | March 9
#6 Fresno State 67, #11 San José State 62

Championship Notes
- The No. 11 seed falls to 1-11 all-time in MW women's basketball championship history. The No. 6 seed is now 9-1 against the No. 11 seed.
- In Sunday's first round, the higher seed was victorious in all three contests. This is the first opening round without an upset since the 2019 Mountain West Women's Basketball Tournament.

Fresno State Notes
- Fresno State overcame a nine-point first-half deficit, marking the Bulldogs' largest come-from-behind victory in a Mountain West tournament game all-time.
- With the win, Fresno State improves to 19-10 all-time in the MW tournament.
- The Bulldogs .655-win percentage (19-10) in MW tournament play since joining the Conference in 2012-13 is second-best in that span, trailing only Boise State (.741; 20-7).
- Fresno State advances to the quarterfinals of the MW women's basketball championship for the 11th time in the last 13 tournaments.
- Junior Mia Jacobs, who earned All-Mountain West honors on Sunday afternoon, recorded her 18th double-double (14 points-10 rebounds) of the season. This is the most double-doubles in a single season by a Bulldog since Bego Faz Davalos in 2016-17 (21).

San José State Notes
- San José State falls to 5-11 all-time in MW women's basketball championship history.
