GAME NOTES

WHAT'S NEXT

No. 5 Boise State women's basketball will face No. 12 San Jose State in Las Vegas for the first round of the 2026 Credit Union 1 Mountain West Women's Basketball Championship. The game will tip-off on March 7 at 3:30 p.m. MT and will be broadcast on the Mountain West Network and 670 KBOI AM.

WHAT'S AT STAKE

The winner will face No. 4 New Mexico in the quarterfinals on March 8 at 3:30 p.m. MT.

ONE OF ONE

Boise State has the most active 1,000-point scorers in the nation who each scored all points at the same program. Natalie Pasco leads with 1,536 career points, followed by Tatum Thompson (1,220), Dani Bayes (1,184) then Mya Hansen (1,032).

SCOUTING THE SPARTANS

No. 12 San Jose State holds a 4-27 overall record and 2-18 mark in conference play. The Spartans are still searching for their first win outside their home arena. The team's last win came on Feb. 18 against Utah State, posting a 58-56 score. San Jose State sits second in the MW in blocks per game (3.9), while Gabriela Pato is ranked third individually in the category (1.2). Boise State has won the past seven games over the Spartans, boasting a 32-14 all-time record. Additionally, the Broncos' hold a perfect 3-0 record against San Jose State in a neutral setting.

MW TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Presnell has totaled 21 MW tournament wins, the second-most behind New Mexico's Don Flanagan who has 22.

BIG 5

Starters Bayes, Hansen, Libby Hutton, Pasco and Tatum Thompson have each surpassed 200 points this season. The Broncos were the first MW team to have five players pass the 100-point threshold, as well as the 150-point mark.

14 MW WINS

The Broncos earned their 14th conference win for the first time since 2018-19 when the Broncos collected 19. The feat marked Presnell's second time doing so in the MW and this time overall since being at Boise State.

23 WINS

Boise State earned its 23rd win of the season for the first time since 2019-20 when the Broncos collected 29. It marked the seventh time overall, fifth time in the MW, that the team has done so under Presnell.

THIRD QUARTER SCORING

Boise State has outscored its opponents 608-490 in the third quarter this season.

BOARDS

The Broncos are 17-1 while outrebounding the opponent.

SCORE LEADERS

In the 31 games that Boise State has played, a Bronco has been the game-high scorer in 22. Tatum Thompson leads with eight games as the leading scorer, followed by Pasco with five, Bayes with four, Hutton with four and Hansen with one.

COACH P

Presnell ranks 18th all-time in NCAA D1 women's basketball history with 792 victories. He ranks fourth among active D1 head coaches.

LONG RANGE SHOOTING

Boise State has converted 38.4% (218-of-567) of its 3-point field goal attempts, leading the Mountain West and ranking second nationally. The Broncos sit behind UConn in the category, which is shooting 39.4% (292-742) from behind the arc.

FROM DEEP

Pasco has made 75 3-pointers this season, leading the MW. She also tops the conference in 3-pointers per game at 2.4. Pasco currently shoots 44.1% from three, the 10th-highest in the nation.

BUCKETS

Tatum Thompson sits first in the conference individual rankings for field goal percentage at 47.3%.

HELPING HAND

Hansen leads the MW with 136 assists and 4.4 assists per game. As a team, the Broncos lead the conference with 16.2 assists per game.

SCORING OFFENSE

The Broncos are averaging 70.1 points per game, the second-highest mark in the MW.

FOR THREE

Bayes holds the 13th-highest, 2nd in the MW, single-game three-point percentage nationally this season. She shot 77.8% (7-of-9) against UC Davis on Nov. 14. Bayes' mark also ties for the second-best single-game percentage in program history.

TOP FIVE ALERT

Bayes has moved into the top five in program history in career 3-pointers made with 209. She sits in fourth, trailing Pasco in second with 270.

HOME COURT

Boise State ended its home season with 15 wins in ExtraMile Arena, the most since the 2007-08 season.

WINNING ON THE ROAD

The Broncos earned their sixth road victory of the season at San Jose State, the first time doing so since the 2019-20 season.

NINE-STRAIGHT

Boise State's nine-game conference win streak ended on Feb. 11 with a 75-69 loss to Fresno State. The streak was the longest the team has achieved in a single season since 2007-08 and the first time that the Broncos have done so since joining the MW in 2011-12.

*NOTE: Only regular season games over a single season are included in the winning streak; the conference tournament is excluded.

CAREER MILESTONES

Bayes and Tatum Thompson both surpassed the 1,000 career points milestone against Grand Canyon on Jan. 3, with Tatum Thompson also eclipsing 500 career rebounds in the same game. Hansen notched her 1,000th career point against New Mexico on Feb. 7.

TAKES A TEAM

Twelve different Broncos scored against Wyoming on Jan. 14, the most scorers in a single game this season.

OFF THE BENCH

Boise State's bench scored a season-high 37 points against Wyoming on Jan. 14.

HOME SWEET HOME

The Broncos have started their season 7-0 at home for three-consecutive seasons and 8-0 for two-consecutive seasons.

HOME STREAK

Boise State won 10-consecutive home games, spanning from Feb. 18, 2025 to Dec. 31, 2025. This marks the program's first such home winning streak since the combined 2017-18 and 2019-20 seasons when the Broncos won 14 straight.

GOING THE EXTRAMILE

Boise State has won 22-straight nonconference games at ExtraMile Arena, the 14th-highest nationally.

PRESEASON ACCOLADES

Tatum Thompson was named the 2025-26 Mountain West Preseason Player of the Year. Pasco joined her on the pre-season all-conference team.

GORDY PRESNELL

Boise State Head Coach

21st Season at Boise State; 39th Overall
Alma Mater: Northwest Nazarene, 1983;
Seattle Pacific, 1989
Hometown: Lapwai, Idaho

BOISE STATE TENURE (2005-present)

Twenty years ago Gordy Presnell returned to his home state to become the sixth head coach in Boise State University's women's basketball program history. He brought with him a mild and laid-back demeanor, 18 years of head-coaching experience and a long record of success. Presnell currently ranks first in Bronco history for victories by a coach with a record of 355-241 (.596) overall. The 2025-26 season will mark his 39th as a collegiate head coach.

With 751 career victories through the 2023-24 campaign, Presnell currently sits at 30th on the all-time victories list of NCAA (all levels) wins and 12th among active coaches. He coached the 1,000th game of his illustrious career in the 2020-21 season opener and recorded his 750th career win on March 10 in the opening round of the MW Tournament with an 84-49 win over Utah State.

Presnell's Bronco teams have qualified for the NCAA Tournament on six occasions (2007, 2015, 2017-20) and 10 times have qualified for the postseason. Under his watch, Boise State has also won four regular-season titles (2007-08 WAC; 2018-19 Mountain West) and six conference tournament titles (2007 WAC; 2015, 2017-20 Mountain West).

Boise State's 80-76 overtime win over Fresno State in the 2020 Mountain West Basketball Championship Game made the Broncos the first program in conference history to win four-straight tournaments (2017-20), and, with five tournament titles (2015, 2017-20), tied the Broncos with New Mexico for the most all-time.

Presnell, the 2018-19 Mountain West Coach of the Year, has taken the Broncos to 198 victories over the past ten seasons, including 132 (regular season and conference tournament) against Mountain West competition. Boise State has won 10 or more conference games in nine of the past 10 seasons, the most of any team in the MW in that span.

After setting the program record for wins in a season with 25 in 2016-17, Presnell guided the Broncos to 23 wins in 2017-18 before establishing the new benchmark with 28 victories in 2018-19. The Broncos followed that with the program's fourth-straight 20-win season in 2019-20, going 24-9.

The first of the recent 20-win seasons came in 2014-15, when Presnell led the Broncos to a 22-11 mark, the Mountain West Tournament title, and the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2007. In the first round, the Broncos, a 15-seed, fought valiantly at No. 2 Tennessee, trailing the Lady Volunteers by just five with under three minutes to play before falling 72-61.

Over this span, Presnell's players have earned 22 All-Mountain West selections, including 11 first-team honors. They have stepped up even more when the lights shine brightest, as Brooke Pahukoa (2015, 2017), Riley Lupfer (2018), Braydey Hodgins (2019), and A'Shanti Coleman (2020) have combined to capture five Mountain West Tournament MVPs.

Since Boise State joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, the Broncos, under Presnell, lead all conference schools with five NCAA Tournament bids. Presnell's teams have gone 124-85 (.593) in MW games and an impressive 197-79 (.722) at home in Boise, including a perfect 15-0 mark in 2007-08.

The Broncos have recorded 14 winning seasons over Presnell's 19-year tenure. After going 15-15 in his first season (2005-06), the Broncos recorded four-consecutive winning seasons, including a then-school-record 24 wins in both the 2006-07 (24-9) and 2007-08 (24-8) campaigns.

In 2006-07, Presnell led the Broncos to the program's first postseason appearance under his watch, and first since 1998. Boise State went 24-9 overall, winning the WAC regular-season and tournament titles to advance to the NCAA Tournament for just the second time in program history, and to the postseason for the first time since making the 1998 WNIT. For his coaching performance he was named the WAC and WBCA Division I Regional Coach of the Year.

Prior to taking over at Boise State, Presnell coached for 18 successful years at Seattle Pacific University in Washington. At SPU, he inherited a program that had not recorded a winning season in the previous nine years. He built the Falcons into a NCAA Division II national power, accumulating an overall record of 396 victories with 127 defeats (.757). Along the way his teams amassed an average of 22 wins per season while claiming seven conference championships, including four in his last five seasons. In addition, his teams were an impressive 221-29 (.884) at home in Broughman Pavilion, including five unbeaten home seasons.

On the national scene under Presnell, the Falcons advanced to nine-straight (1997-2005) and 10 of 11 NCAA Division II tournaments while he was in Seattle. Overall, Seattle Pacific made postseason appearances in 13 of his 18 years, 10 NCAA and three NAIA. Presnell's teams reached three NCAA Division II Elite Eights and advanced to the 2005 title game.

At the time of his departure from Seattle Pacific in the summer of 2005, Presnell was ranked tied for 10th-place nationally among NCAA Division II coaches for win percentage (.757) and 21st for total victories.

In 36 years as a collegiate head coach Presnell has experienced 31 winning seasons and one at .500. His teams have won a combined 11 regular-season titles, seven at SPU and four at Boise State. In addition, he has guided 21 of his 36 squads to postseason national-tournament bids.

During his career he has been named conference coach of the year eight times, WBCA Regional Coach of the Year five times (four at NCAA Division II level and one at Division I), and the WBCA NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year twice. His coach of the year honors now total 16 in 36 years. In 2007, during the NCAA's 25th anniversary celebration for women's sports, coach Presnell was listed as one of the top coaches all-time in their publication "Women's Basketball Finest."

His student-athletes have accumulated numerous honors along the way: one All-American; seven individuals have earned 10 honorable mention All-American awards; five league players of the year; 11 freshman/newcomers of the year; one freshman of the year; 35 players have combined for 55 all-conference honors; 12 conference all-freshmen team members; five conference all-defensive team members; 41 individuals have combined for 105 academic all-conference honors; 14 combined for 16 national academic honors including two academic All-Americans.

Presnell, a Lapwai, Idaho, native graduated from Northwest Nazarene in Nampa, Idaho, in 1983 with a B.A. in physical education. He was awarded an honorary doctorate degree from NNU in 2024. He continued his studies in physical education at Seattle Pacific, where he earned a master's degree in 1989. He and his wife, former SPU gymnast Susan Nolte, live in Meridian, Idaho. They have two children, a daughter, Jacquelyn, and a son, Ryder.

In 2008 he was honored by his alma mater as the "Outstanding Educator of the Year." While at Seattle Pacific he was asked to throw out the opening pitch at two Seattle Mariners games.
