

#MWMADNESS
#MWMADNESS
#MWMADNESS

CREDIT UNION 1 MW WOMEN'S BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP – SEMIFINAL

#5 Boise State vs. #9 Air Force Postgame Notes

Championship Notes

- Air Force advanced to the title game of the 2026 Credit Union 1 Mountain West Women's Basketball Championship with a 68–66 win over fifth-seeded Boise State, marking the first time in school history that Air Force has made the MW Championship. Prior to this year, Air Force had never won two-consecutive games in the MW tournament.
- After becoming the first No. 9 Seed to ever make the semifinal of the Mountain West women's basketball tournament, Air Force is now the first No. 9 seed to ever make the title game.
- Air Force's Milahnie Perry followed up her career high yesterday with 27 points today. Perry now has tied Nevada's T Moe (2018) for the Mountain West's record for points in a single tournament with 78. Moe accomplished the feat in four games.
- Perry is also just the second player in MW tournament history to have multiple 25-point games in a single tournament, joining BYU's Erin Thorn in 2003. Perry is averaging 26 points and five assists so far in the tournament.

Air Force Notes

- Perry is the first Air Force player to score 20+ points in consecutive MW tournament games.
- Keelie O'Hollaren joined Perry in double figures with 15 points, including 10 in the second half.
- O'Hollaren knocked down 4-of-8 from 3-point range. It was the fourth game this season that she made at least four 3-pointers. Two of those games came against Boise State.
- As a team, Air Force had a 24-point advantage over Boise State in points from 3-point range.
- Jayda McNabb registered her sixth game this season with at least five rebounds and five assists. That ties her with Nala Williams for the most such games by a Mountain West player this season.

Boise State Notes

- Boise State was held to just 1-of-3 from 3-point range. The three 3-point attempts are the lowest number of attempts by an Mountain West team this season. It is also tied for the fewest in MW tournament history, last happening in 2018 when Utah State attempted just three 3-pointers against Air Force.
- Libby Hutton led the way for Boise State with 25 points and seven rebounds. Her 25 points is tied for her most points in a Boise State uniform.
- Mason Borcherding scored at least six points for the second consecutive day after having eight in the win over New Mexico. Prior to that, she had one career game with at least six points.