THIS GAME

- >> GCU enters its first MW Championship as the No. 4 seed.
- >> In D-I conference tournament play, GCU is 16-3 overall and 12-1 under Bryce Drew. The Lopes have won their last nine games. GCU is 10-0 as the better seed and 6-3 as the worse seed.
- >> GCU faces Nevada for just the second time this season. The Wolf Pack was one of two teams GCU played once (Colorado State). GCU missed Caleb Shaw and Brian Moore Jr. in an OT loss.
- >> Both head coaches played in the NBA and both won the "Mr. Basketball" award in Indiana, with Drew in 1994 and Alford in 1983.

LAST TIME OUT

- >> GCU ended the regular season with an 85-60 rout of Fresno State.
- >> Dusty Stromer (17) and Dennis Evans (12) set new career highs.

STORYLINES

- >> GCU All-MW voting: Jaden Henley was a first teamer, Makaih Williams was on the third team, and Nana Owusu-Anane was on the all-defensive team and an honorable mention.
- >> GCU leads the MW and is 41st nationally in scoring defense (68.2), holding opponents to 70 or less in 20 of 31 games.
- >> GCU is No. 18 in KenPom defensive efficiency and holds teams to 41.2% shooting (36th). Under Drew, GCU has held opponents to 40.2% - the nation's No. 5 mark over the six-season span.
- >> The Lopes are one of 15 teams in the country to rank in the top 50 for scoring defense, field goal defense and rebound margin.
- >> GCU is shooting 38.9% (21 of 54) from 3 in its last four games. Dusty Stromer has made 9 of his last 14 (64.3%).
- >> Jaden Henley ranks in GCU's top five for points in a D-I season (547) and needs 15 to tie Josh Braun's 2015-16 total for fourth. Along with Mason Falslev, he was the only player in MW games to rank top 10 in points, rebounds, assists, steals and FG%.
- >> Nana Owusu-Anane is in GCU's top-five for rebounds in a D-I season (263), needing 17 to tie Gabe McGlothlan's 2023-24 mark for fourth. Averaging 8.6, he is fourth in the MW, 58th nationally.
- >> Makaih Williams averaged 15.2 points in MW play, a significant uptick from his 10.7 ppg in nonconference games.
- >> At 69, GCU is one of eight MW teams ranked in the NET top 100.
- >> The Lopes are 10-0 when they shoot over 35% from distance.
- >> GCU has won 36 in a row when it leads at half (18-0 this season).
- >> The Lopes have qualified for three straight NCAA Tournaments.

[QUOTED]

GCU HEAD COACH BRYCE DREW

"I'm really proud of these guys. For us to come into a new league with a lot of newness and not having a lot of retention from last year, to finish tied for third in the sixth-best conference in the country and get 20 wins is a great accomplishment for these guys.

"We talked to the underclassmen from the juniors down and said, 'Hey, it's Senior Night, Make sure you help your seniors go out the best way they can on their home court.' You want to help honor your seniors that way, and I really thought the guys really bought in and were really focused. They wanted their seniors to have a good last night, and credit our seniors. They played with a lot of emotion, did a lot of good things out there and really set a tone ... You could see the determination in their faces and how bad they wanted to win this game."

GRADUATE GUARD BRIAN MOORE JR.

"I wanted to leave it all out there. I wanted to leave no regrets. I wanted to go out in my last time here and have people think, 'Yeah, Brian Moore was a dawg.' I think I did that too.

"We take for granted how amazing our crowd is. We see it every game. This is the stuff, when I was a kid, I would want to watch on TV (and say), 'This is what college basketball looks like.' It's amazing that I could end my college basketball career with such great fans..."

[QUOTED]

GCU HEAD COACH BRYCE DREW

"This is a grind, and road games are even harder, so I'm really proud of our guys for being locked in from the very beginning to the final buzzer.

"Our guards did a really good job of finding them and trying to take away their looks. I thought our two bigs really protected the rim well for us, especially in the first half. They really set a great tone around the rim. Even with the ones they didn't block, they just had a presence to alter shots."

REDSHIRT SOPHOMORE CENTER DENNIS EVANS

"It was very exciting. We did exactly what we were supposed to do in the first 15 (minutes) and made it as hard as possible. We forced them to take shots they didn't want. We forced them off the 3-point line and forced them to come toward me to take a tough shot. And we were patient on offense.

"I'm trying to be more physical and be more active for him (Breidenbach), just so I can continue to show his energy because he can't play right now. It was really tough to see him go down that game (Saturday at Utah State)."

- » Grand Canyon led 52-43 with 4:46 remaining and 53-47 with 1:03 left but ultimately lost 66-60 in overtime after Nevada forced extra time in the final second.
- » The Lopes delivered a strong defensive performance, holding Nevada to a season-low 32.8% shooting and 26.7% in the second half, but late rebounds and fouls allowed the Wolf Pack to rally.
- » With 5.1 seconds left, the Lopes missed two free throws that could have sealed the win, and Nevada's Tyler Rolison was fouled on a 30-foot attempt at the buzzer, making all three free throws to tie the game.
- » Henley recorded 16 points and a career-high 13 rebounds for his second consecutive double-double, while freshman center Efe Demirel added his first career double-double with 14 points and 10 rebounds on 7-for-8 shooting.
- » Playing without two injured starters, GCU's starters logged 92% of the game's minutes, and fatigue showed in overtime when Nevada closed the game with an 8-0 run to secure the win.

» TOURNEY REGULARS

The Bryce Drew era has been marked with championship success. The Lopes' head coach has built GCU into a tournament mainstay.

The Lopes are one of 28 schools to have made at least four of the last five NCAA Tournaments.

GCU has made more NCAA Tournaments in the last four seasons than two-thirds of the basketball schools from the ACC, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12 and SEC.

» FLAT-OUT WINNERS

In addition to success in qualifying for the NCAA Tournament, the Lopes have just flat out won games the last five years. As of March 10, 2026, GCU is one of the nation's 10 winningest programs by percentage since Bryce Drew took over for the 2020-21 season.

» CLUTCH TIME: CONFERENCE TOURNEY

Putting a weekend of undefeated basketball together in do-or-die March tournaments is a task that proves difficult. However, GCU is one of two programs to seemingly handle it with ease. GCU and Drake are the only two programs in the nation to claim three consecutive conference tournament championships.

GCU secured WAC Tournament titles in 2023, 2024 and 2025. Its most recent came with an 89-82 victory over Utah Valley. Drake achieved its three-peat by winning the 2025 championship over Bradley by a 63-48 margin.

Given how often conference tournament titles bounce around—especially in leagues with good parity—these two programs stand alone right now in having mounted that sustained run of three straight tournament crowns.

» LEVELING UP TO THE MW

Grand Canyon officially joined the Mountain West Conference on July 8, 2025, immediately becoming eligible for regular-season competition and conference championships in 17 sports. The conference's board of directors approved GCU's accelerated entry, marking the Lopes' move into one of the nation's most competitive and nationally recognized leagues. The MW has consistently ranked among the top D-I conferences in multiple sports and has sent at least four men's basketball teams to the NCAA Tournament for four straight years, underscoring the heightened level of competition GCU will now face.

The Lopes' move marks the culmination of a decade of sustained success at the Division I level. Since joining the WAC, GCU captured 76 conference championships, won seven WAC Commissioner's Cups—five consecutively—and built nationally competitive programs across multiple sports. The men's basketball team has reached four of the past five NCAA Tournaments, softball has earned three straight NCAA wins, and several Olympic sports programs have also achieved repeated national berths. With its thriving Phoenix campus, rapid growth and strong academic expansion, GCU's move to the Mountain West reflects its evolution into one of the nation's premier private Division I universities.

MW Commissioner Gloria Nevarez

"The addition of Grand Canyon for the 2025-26 academic year is a significant win for the student-athletes at GCU and in the Mountain West. Grand Canyon brings elite recruiting, a passionate fan base, and state-of-the-art facilities, elevating the Mountain West's competitiveness and national profile. In a time when the student-athlete experience is of utmost importance, we felt it was in the best interest to allow them to compete for conference championships and the NCAA postseason immediately. GCU is a great addition to the Mountain West and positively raises the competition level in the league."

GCU VP of Athletics Jamie Boggs

"The strong support of President Brian Mueller and the entire university community has led to tremendous competitive success, positioning GCU for this move to a conference as strong as the Mountain West. We are thankful to the coaches, student-athletes and staff, with the backing of the Havocs, the greatest student section in college sports, that have worked tirelessly to build a nationally competitive athletic department to earn this opportunity. We want to thank Commissioner Nevarez and the member institutions, and we are eager to compete for championships with our new peers in the Mountain West."

GCU Strategic Advisor Jerry Colangelo

"I think, holistically, what has transpired at GCU over the last 15-16 years has been one of the most remarkable transformations I have ever seen. GCU is doing it the right way on every level – in the classroom, in the community and on the playing field."

IT STARTS NOW.

» NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT ON THE BIG SCREEN

GCU's national basketball profile continues to surge in its first MW season, as the Lopes will appear on national television 13 times during the 2025-26 campaign. The slate includes 10 Mountain West matchups, the Jerry Colangelo Classic against Oklahoma State and both games from the Acrisure Classic. GCU will also make its first-ever appearance on a Big Four network when it faces UNLV on Feb. 7 on FOX—the only Mountain West game selected for that platform.

"In moving conferences, obviously a big part of the decision was the national TV exposure to help to be seen across the country on a variety of days of the week and at a variety of times," Bryce Drew said. "Hopefully, more people can get their eyes on GCU."

» LOPES = RELOADED

GCU was tasked with replacing a ton of college basketball experience and production in the offseason. Six of the Lopes' top seven scorers are gone (five exhausted eligibility, one transfer).

The Lopes ensured they were reloading instead of rebuilding with one of the nation's top transfer classes. GCU brought in 11 new players including seven from the transfer portal, and 247Sports ranked the Lopes' transfer class No. 39 nationally and best among non-Power Five conferences.

» PRESEASON RESPECT

The Lopes may be the new kids on the block in the loaded Mountain West, but GCU is already garnering preseason respect from the league's media. The Lopes were picked fourth in the 12-team conference, a conference that has earned no less than four NCAA Tournament bids in the last four seasons. GCU and San Diego State were the only teams in the league to have multiple players named to the 10-man Preseason All-MW team.

» STRENGTH OF THE MW

It's not all talk when Grand Canyon says its joining one of the nation's elite conferences. The Mountain West has sent no less than four teams to the NCAA Tournament in each of the last four seasons, highlighted by a six-team tourney in 2024. It has also been one of the nation's top six or seven conferences.

» BENCH BOLSTERED

Bryce Drew's new-look GCU men's basketball staff blends experience, energy and faith, uniting four new coaches who bring unique backgrounds and proven success to the Lopes' Mountain West debut.

Matt Lottich reunites with Drew after their successful Valparaiso partnership that produced two of the winningest seasons in program history. A former Stanford guard and 10-year pro, Lottich later succeeded Drew as Valpo's head coach, compiling 108 wins and leading the program through its move to the Missouri Valley. He spent recent seasons at Missouri and Brown, where he worked with new Lope forward Nana Owusu-Anane.

LOTTICH

Kam Murrell joins the staff after stints at Iona, Fairleigh Dickinson, Memphis and St. Thomas Aquinas, where his coaching path began under mentor Tobin Anderson. A former Long Beach Poly and George Mason player, Murrell brings strong recruiting ties on the West Coast and a faith-driven approach. Known as a "connector" between players and staff, the 29-year-old coach has already been part of history—helping FDU engineer the 2023 NCAA Tournament upset of top-seeded Purdue.

MURRELL

Jordan McCabe, a former viral ball-handling sensation turned collegiate floor leader, brings perspective and basketball intellect. After playing under Bob Huggins at West Virginia and finishing his career at UNLV, McCabe transitioned quickly into coaching with experience already under his belt at West Virginia and Green Bay.

McCABE

Derrick Wrobel returns to the Valley as GCU's chief of staff after 22 years across Power Five programs, including Arizona State, California, St. John's, Washington State and Stanford. A veteran of nine NCAA Tournament teams, Wrobel offers invaluable organizational expertise and mentorship. Having witnessed Drew's legendary "Shot" in person as a student manager at Ole Miss, Wrobel now joins him.

WROBEL

In addition to the four new full-time coaching staff members, two longtime undergraduate managers, Matt Harvey and Isaac Demosthenes, took on new roles as graduate assistants.

» BACK IN PURPLE

Among all the new for GCU in 2025-26 is a touch of familiarity. Makaih Williams and Caleb Shaw are back as the lone returning Lopes who saw minutes last season.

Williams ranked fifth on the team in starts and scoring at 8.2 points per game while finishing second in assists (2.4) and third in steals (1.2). His season highlight came with a 31-point outburst against Bryant on Dec. 30, marking GCU's highest individual scoring game since 2023 and the first 30-point effort off the bench in the program's Division I era. He scored in double figures 14 times, earned MVP honors of the Acrisure Holiday Invitational win over Stanford, and became the second GCU player ever to record five assists and five steals in a Division I game.

Shaw emerged as GCU's most efficient 3-point shooter, leading the WAC at 42.6% from deep (26 of 61) and improving to 46.7% in conference play — the fifth-best single-season mark in the program's Division I era. Often the first option off the bench, he provided key scoring bursts, highlighted by a career-high 22 points on 72.7% shooting against Life Pacific and a perfect 6-for-6 performance, including three 3-pointers, vs. UT Arlington. Shaw also delivered one of GCU's viral moments with a dunk featured by ESPN on TikTok and closed the season strong by scoring in double figures in four of the Lopes' final eight games.

» SO-CAL CONNECTION

Southern California continues to serve as a recruiting hotbed for GCU under head coach Bryce Drew, particularly through assistant coach and Los Angeles native Marc Rodgers, with six Lopes hailing from the region.

Makaih Williams, Dusty Stromer, Jaden Henley, Dennis Evans, Kaleb Smith and Wilhelm Breidenbach all grew up within about an hour's drive of each other in the basketball-rich Greater Los Angeles and Inland Empire areas. The group represents a mix of top programs across Southern California — from powerhouse Mater Dei to talent factories like Notre Dame, Damien and Hillcrest — showcasing how GCU has tapped into one of the nation's most competitive prep regions to build its roster.

» AT HOME ON THE ROAD

Grand Canyon has three marquee neutral-site matchups scheduled for 2025-26. Although not in the friendly confines of Global Credit Union Arena, the Lopes have some familiarity with the two venues that the neutral-site games will take place.

GCU returns to Acrisure Arena for the second straight year. A large and loud group of Havocs and other Lopes fans trekked a few hours west to Palm Desert last season to see GCU defeat Stanford. The Lopes return to Palm Desert for a pair of nationally televised games in November.

The Lopes have also made a comfortable home 15 minutes southeast of campus in Downtown Phoenix at the home of the Phoenix Suns. GCU first played in the venue in 2017 against St. John's and have since played Nevada (2018), Liberty (2019), San Francisco (2021), North Texas (2022), Portland (2023) and Arizona State (2024), mostly under the banner of the Jerry Colangelo Classic and frequently with thousands of Havocs filling the seats.

» INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR

The Lopes' roster features two international newcomers, Turkey's Efe Demirel and France's Evan Boisdur, who bring global experience and high-level pedigree to the Lopes.

Demirel, a 6-foot-10 freshman from Izmit, joins GCU after competing for EuroLeague power Anadolu Efes and later Pinar Karşıyaka in Turkey's Basketball Champions League. A FIBA-recognized rising star and bronze medalist with Turkey's U19 national team, he brings size, mobility and international polish to the Lopes' frontcourt. Having represented his country across multiple European championships, Demirel said he's quickly embraced GCU's facilities and culture, calling campus life "bigger, more comfortable and much better" than what he experienced in Europe.

Boisdur, a guard from Guadeloupe by way of France, arrives after starring for BCM Gravelines-Dunkerque, where he averaged 21.7 points, 4.7 rebounds and 3.9 assists in France's U21 league while splitting time with the nation's top professional division. A member of France's U20 national team and 3x3 U18 World Cup silver medalist, Boisdur chose GCU for its faith-based environment and family atmosphere. He described feeling an immediate connection with the coaching staff and sees GCU as the ideal place to grow both as a player and a person.

» MOUNTAIN WEST FAMILIARITY

Although the Lopes are in Year 1 of Mountain West membership, they have a long history of matchups with many MW schools. Since transitioning to D-I for the 2013-14 season, GCU has matched up against five of the other 11 MW schools with plenty of success. Most recently, the Lopes won their first top-25 game against San Diego State on Dec. 5, 2023.

GCU RECORD VS. MW SCHOOLS (D-I ERA)

| School | W-L | Series history |
|-----------------|-----|--|
| Boise State | 1-1 | Home and home in 2017, 2018 (home teams win) |
| Nevada | 1-2 | Home and home in 2020, 2022 (home teams win) |

| Wyoming | 1-1 | Home and home in 2021, 2022 (road teams win) |

» BRIAN MOORE JR. X LOU HENSON

Brian Moore Jr. enters his first season at GCU as the reigning Lou Henson Award winner, an honor recognizing the top mid-major player in college basketball. The Harlem, N.Y., native starred at Norfolk State last season, averaging 18.1 points, 3.7 rebounds and 3.0 assists while shooting an impressive 54.5% from the field and 39.4% from 3.

Moore became the only guard in the nation to average at least 18 points on 54% shooting, leading the Spartans to a MEAC Tournament title and earning Tournament MVP honors. Now named the Mountain West Preseason Newcomer of the Year heading into 2025-26, Moore brings elite scoring efficiency, experience and leadership to a GCU squad poised to make an immediate impact in its new conference.

Moore has the unique insight of being an opposing player at Global Credit Union Arena, as his Spartans visited the Lopes on Nov. 22, 2024. He scored 17 points with three steals, and chose GCU as a transfer destination after being impressed with the fan base and environment.

» FAMILY TIES RUN DEEP

Family ties run deep for a segment of the GCU program.

Sixth-year Lopes assistant coach Casey Shaw is living a dream scenario this season by coaching his two youngest sons, Caleb and Luke, after previously coaching his oldest son, Isaiah, who now plays at Northern Arizona. A former NBA Draft pick and longtime European pro, Shaw has turned basketball into a true family affair. His wife, Dana Drew Shaw, serves as GCU's vice president of government relations, and their daughter, Anna, is a GCU graduate student. The family's deep basketball roots trace back to Hall of Famer Homer Drew and uncles Scott and Bryce, making GCU the latest chapter in a multigenerational basketball legacy grounded in faith and family.

The Shaws' shared journey from Italy to Phoenix has made the game a family bond as much as a career. Caleb, a junior guard who averaged 6.1 points per game last season, and Luke, a freshman, both cherish the opportunity to play under their father while learning to separate "Dad" from "Coach." Casey calls it "living the dream," grateful for a rare chance to guide his sons on and off the court while continuing the Drew-Shaw family tradition of keeping faith at the center of competition.

SHAW & DREW FAMILY TIES

| Player | Relation | Tie to GCU |
|-------------|---|----------------------------------|
| Casey Shaw | -- | 6th-year assistant coach |
| Dana Shaw | Casey's wife, Bryce's sister | GCU vice president |

» CARRY THE TRADITION

The Mountain West will undergo some offseason transition with several members departing and a few more joining the league. After the transition, a strong league will remain including an exciting Southwest triangle of basketball tradition with GCU, UNLV and New Mexico.

MOUNTAIN WEST MEMBERSHIP (EFFECTIVE 2026-27)

The league also announced it will be adding men's soccer and men's swimming and diving for the 2026-27 academic year, meaning 19 of GCU's 20 athletic programs will call the Mountain West home.

» ASCENDING... ELEVATION IN THE MW

A lot of talk around the Mountain West surrounds playing at altitude. GCU will play three games at elevations above 5,000 feet this season. Good news for the Lopes? They have handled altitude with successful results in recent history including several wins at Southern Utah and one at the 7,200 feet of Wyoming.

REGULAR-SEASON GAMES AT ALTITUDE (5,000+ FT.)

» MW MEDIA DAY: QUOTED

Grand Canyon took part in its first Mountain West Basketball Media Day in Las Vegas on Oct. 23. There was buzz about the Lopes' membership in the conference.

Boise State head coach Leon Rice

"My son was a redshirt freshman (on Boise State's 2018 visit to GCU) and was like, 'I've never seen anything like it.' We've played all over the country in great environments, and he goes, 'We just played a game in a nightclub.' It was crazy. It was the loudest, craziest environment, which is going to fit right into the Mountain West. (GCU has) a great coach, great players."

San Diego State head coach Brian Dutcher

"I've got my butt beat at GCU a couple times, so I know what kind of environment it is and how special it is. I know what GCU is capable of. They have the kind of home-court advantage that's hard to win at. Everyone talks about home-court advantage on the West Coast. You have to put GCU up there with San Diego State, Gonzaga, Arizona, GCU."

Mountain West Commissioner Gloria Nevarez

"The in-game experience at GCU is absolutely second to none. It is top in class, professionally produced and developed. The students are just so energetic and organized. Really organized. I'm impressed."

Mountain West Preseason Player of the Year Miles Byrd (San Diego State)

"It's like a true Mountain West team, just the physicality they played with two years ago when we were there and the environment. It felt like going to a Utah State or a New Mexico. I'm glad GCU got brought into the conference this year. I'm excited to go play there."

San Diego State's Reese Dixon-Waters

"Although we lost and I didn't have a great game - I think I had 11 - it was one of the most fun games I've had. The stuff (the Havocs) were saying was funny. I'm excited to go back."

UNLV head coach Josh Pastner

"As the league continues to progress and there's a change in the league next year, the rivalry of UNLV-GCU is so important. We're excited about Grand Canyon coming in."

» LOCAL BROADCAST REACH EXPANDS

Grand Canyon and Gray Media announced a landmark television partnership making Arizona's Family (3TV, CBS 5 and Arizona's Family Sports) the Official Home of GCU Athletics. The agreement gives the Lopes their most extensive free TV coverage ever, delivering live broadcasts of men's and women's basketball, along with select baseball, softball, soccer and volleyball games to nearly 2.8 million Arizona households. GCU becomes the first university to join Arizona's Family's growing sports lineup, which already features the Suns, Mercury, Cardinals, Rising and AIA events. The partnership officially launched Aug. 29, complementing GCU's national coverage through the Mountain West's media rights deals with CBS and FOX. Veteran broadcaster Daron Sutton joins as the new TV voice of the Lopes, alongside returners Dan Bickley and Kate Longworth. GCU is also enhancing its production capabilities inside Global Credit Union Arena with a new broadcast production room under construction.

With returning voices Michael Potter and Paul Coro, the GCU Radio Network goes digital through the GCU Lopes app and GCUlopes.com. The GCU Radio Network will stream a record number of events this year including all women's basketball games. For men's basketball, the pregame show expands to 30 minutes to allow for more engaging content including student-athlete interviews.

» MW CHAMPIONSHIP DETAILS SET

As a new Mountain West member, Grand Canyon now knows how and when its first basketball venture into MW Madness will occur in March.

The conference announced its new format and schedule with the men's and women's Mountain West Championship each having all 12 teams participate at Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas. The UNLV arena will host the women's tournament from March 7-10 and the men's tournament from March 11 to March 14.

The MW Championship brackets are formatted to give byes to the top four conference finishers in each regular-season standing, putting those No. 1 through No. 4 seeds in the quarterfinals and adding a day to each tournament. Tournament games will be played on four consecutive days in each tournament, starting with four games in each bracket's first round for the No. 5 through No. 12 seeds and concluding with 6:30 p.m. championship games on March 10 for the women and March 14 for the men.

» MADNESS RINGS IN NEW ERA

Grand Canyon tipped off its Mountain West era in trademark fashion with Midnight Madness, transforming Global Credit Union Arena into "The Biggest Party in College Basketball" on Oct. 3 into Oct. 4. Thousands of students camped out overnight to celebrate the season launch, filling the arena in costume as fireworks, music and energy set the stage for the midnight countdown. Head coaches Bryce Drew and (women's coach) Winston Gandy made a show-stopping entrance in a Lightning McQueen-style car, while players from both programs danced through the Havocs crowd, joined by performances from GCU Cheer, Drumline and Dancers.

The night served as both an introduction and a declaration — a showcase of GCU's spirit, unity and ambition entering its first Mountain West season. Drew reflected on the program's rise since 2020, crediting the GCU community for helping fulfill the university's national vision and challenging fans to "leave no doubt who's on top of the mountain." With 25 combined newcomers between the men's and women's teams, Midnight Madness gave fans a first look at the new teams.

» MOORE, HARRISON IN THE G-LEAGUE

A pair of former Lopes are getting their chances in the NBA's G-League following successful careers in Phoenix. Ray Harrison was selected by the Motor City Cruise (Detroit Pistons) with the 59th pick in the G-League Draft on Oct. 25. Collin Moore joined the training camp roster of the Delaware Blue Coats (Philadelphia 76ers).

Harrison, in three seasons at GCU, cemented his place among the program's all-time greats, ranking top five in multiple categories, including third in free throws made (416), fourth in scoring average (14.3), and tied for fourth in career points (1,490). A consistent leader and three-time All-WAC Tournament selection, he started 105 games, guided the Lopes to three straight WAC titles and NCAA Tournament appearances, and finished his college career with 2,381 points—ninth among all active NCAA players at the time.

In two seasons at GCU, Moore started 63 of 68 games and became one of the program's best defenders, earning back-to-back All-WAC Defensive Team honors. He set single-season records for steals in both years, finishing second all-time in GCU's Division I history with 122 steals and ranking 15th in career scoring with 539 points.

» LEADERS OF THE MW

The Mountain West is a league filled with high-level head coaching experience.

Among the league's 12 head coaches, the average amount of NCAA head coaching experience is 14.6 seasons. Continuity is a strong point with nearly half of the league entering their sixth season at their school.

Bryce Drew immediately fits in with his new peers, holding among the best win percentages at his current institution and for his full career.

» THROWBACK TO 1975

Fifty years ago, Grand Canyon's 1974-75 men's basketball team captured the school's first national championship, winning the NAIA title and igniting what would become the foundation of GCU's basketball legacy. Coached by Ben Lindsey and led by standout center Bayard Forrest, the Lopes overcame modest resources and a tiny campus to dominate the season, finishing 30-3 and claiming Arizona's first-ever basketball national crown. Forrest, who averaged 18 points and 12.7 rebounds for his career, headlined a tight-knit group that also featured sharpshooter Mike Haddow, athletic guard David Everett, and versatile forward Rodney Hightower, each playing vital roles in the team's championship run.

The Lopes' disciplined, family-style approach helped them topple higher-profile programs, including defeating Midwestern State in the national final. That remarkable 1975 season remains a defining moment in GCU history.

QUOTED

"I think it's a great addition for the league to bring (GCU) in. For the league, it was huge. The success you've had at Grand Canyon, the support, the resources. It belongs in a really good league like this."

- Jeff Goodman, Field of 68

"The Mountain West is getting a tremendous addition in 2025-26 in Grand Canyon. It wouldn't shock me if Bryce Drew's squad comfortably finishes in the top half of the league standings. Grand Canyon has power conference caliber size ... Expect high energy and also one of college basketball's most underrated environments." - Jon Rothstein, CBS Sports

"I know what GCU is capable of. They have the kind of home-court advantage that's hard to win at. Everyone talks about home-court advantage on the West Coast. You have to put GCU up there with San Diego State, Gonzaga, Arizona, GCU." - Brian Dutcher, San Diego State

"We've played all over the country in great environments, and he goes, 'We just played a game in a nightclub.' It was crazy. It was the loudest, craziest environment, which is going to fit right into the Mountain West. (GCU has) a great coach, great players." - Leon Rice, Boise State

Bryce Drew is in his sixth season as Grand Canyon's head men's basketball coach in 2025-26 after being named the program's 14th head coach prior to the 2020-21 season.

Drew has elevated the Lopes into an NCAA Tournament mainstay with four appearances in his first five seasons, highlighted by the program's first March Madness win in 2024 over fifth-seeded Saint Mary's. He has guided all three programs he's led—Valparaiso, Vanderbilt and GCU—to the NCAA Tournament.

GCU's 2023-24 season set a new standard for the program. The Lopes won their first outright WAC regular-season championship, claimed the WAC Tournament title, earned their first NCAA Tournament win and posted a 30-win season. Tyon Grant-Foster became GCU's first WAC Player of the Year, while Drew was a Naismith Men's Coach of the Year finalist and NABC District 6 Coach of the Year. GCU also recorded its first two top-25 victories, defeating No. 25 San Diego State and No. 15 Saint Mary's.

Drew made an immediate impact in 2020-21, leading GCU to its first NCAA Tournament in his debut season. The Lopes won both the WAC regular-season and tournament titles before facing No. 2 Iowa in March Madness. He quickly established a new culture and roster—headlined by WAC Newcomer of the Year Asbjørn Midtgaard—while navigating the challenges associated with the COVID-19 season.

GCU returned to the NCAA Tournament in 2023 after a historic four-wins-in-four-days run as the No. 5 seed in the WAC Tournament. In 2024-25, the Lopes finished second in the regular-season race and improved to 12-1 under Drew in WAC Vegas, celebrating their fourth tournament title in five years.

Before GCU, Drew built consistent winners at Valparaiso and Vanderbilt. He averaged 25 wins per season at Valpo, capturing four Horizon League regular-season titles and two NCAA berths. At Vanderbilt, he led the Commodores to an NCAA appearance in 2017, secured five top-25 wins, and signed the top recruiting class in school history, including Darius Garland, the No. 5 pick in the 2019 NBA Draft.

Drew played six NBA seasons after being selected 16th overall by Houston in 1998. Known for his perimeter shooting, he's best remembered for "The Shot" that lifted No. 13 Valparaiso past No. 4 Ole Miss in the 1998 NCAA Tournament. He finished his college career with 2,142 points, two conference Player of the Year honors, a Sweet 16 appearance and a retired No. 24 jersey.

Drew comes from a storied basketball family. His father, Homer, coached him at Valparaiso; his brother Scott led Baylor to a national championship; and his sister Dana was a MAC Player of the Year at Toledo. Drew and his wife, Tara, have one son, Bryson.

Opened 2011

Global Credit Union Arena at Grand Canyon University is Phoenix's premier mid-sized indoor venue and home to Lopes men's and women's basketball and women's volleyball. Opened in 2011 with 7,000 seats, it's known for packed crowds, elite game-day atmosphere, and a strong home-court advantage.

The Havocs student section, nationally recognized as "the biggest party in college basketball" by outlets like Bleacher Report and USA Today, has helped make the arena one of the most intimidating venues in the country. Home attendance has tripled since opening, with crowds of 7,000+ now routine.

GCU men's basketball owns a 203-45 (.819) record in the building, including a perfect 16-0 season in 2023-24 and seven 15-win home campaigns. The Lopes averaged 7,170 fans in 2018-19 (102.42% capacity), the nation's highest percentage. The men's team holds a 160-39 home Division I record, while the women's team stands at 132-47 since 2013-14. GCU clinched its first D-I conference title on this floor in 2021.

Athletes benefit from on-site training, recovery, and locker room facilities just steps from student housing, creating an ideal environment for competition and development. The arena broke ground in 2010 and remains a centerpiece of GCU's rise to national prominence.

The Havocs are some of the most dedicated and rowdy fans in all of collegiate sports. Often 3,000 students strong, they turn GCU athletic venues into some of the rowdiest environments in all of college sports.

Known for their constant energy, support and pride, the Havocs support and encourage GCU athletic teams, promote school spirit and build Lope pride.

Tabbed as the "Biggest Party in College Basketball," the Havocs bring the noise and excitement every game with different cheers and chants to give every team a competitive advantage when playing at home. In 2018, Global Credit Union Arena was ranked 22nd in the country for best college basketball atmospheres, and was quoted as "easily one of the rowdiest fan bases in the entire country."

The Havocs' mission is to be the most spirited, energetic and disruptive student section in the country. Havocs strive to create the most unique game day experience in college basketball and a sense of camaraderie for all students.

The Havocs cheer at more than just home events, sending droves of students to rival New Mexico State and to the WAC Tournament in Las Vegas. The support has garnered national attention over the past five years including being featured on ESPN's Scott Van Pelt's SportsCenter show.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

"In college basketball, in my 40-plus years, this was the toughest crowd I've ever faced. Awesome ... you've got something special here. Really special."

- Rick Pitino, Hall of Fame coach

"GCU created college basketball's rowdiest secret with stunning quickness ... home to possibly the best student section in college basketball. Duke has the Cameron Crazies. Kansas has the Phog. GCU has the Havocs."

- Andrew Joseph, USA Today

"This is not a college basketball game. It's a Miami nightclub in the desert."

- Myron Medcalf, ESPN.com

"The Havocs are the biggest party in college basketball." - SB Nation

» A FAMILY COACHING TRADITION

Basketball is ingrained in the family tree of Bryce Drew. Between Bryce, his brother, Scott, and their father, Homer, the trio is a part of the second-winningest family coaching tree in college basketball history.

ALL-TIME NCAA VICTORIES BY FAMILY

| Rank | Family | Wins |
|----------|-----------------|--------------|
| 1 | Iba | 1,632 |
| 2 | Drew | 1,445 |
| 3 | Sutton | 1,173 |

| 7 | Meyer | 950 |
| 8 | Thompson | 942 |
| 9 | Bennett | 923 |
| 10 | Van Breda Kolff | 674 |

Homer was a head coach for 34 seasons including 22 at Valparaiso. He won 640 games and is a member of the College Basketball Hall of Fame.

Scott was an assistant under Homer at Valpo before taking the reins at Baylor in 2003. He is one of the top-20 longest tenured head coaches in D-I men's basketball, leading the Bears to the 2021 National Championship in what some characterized as one of the greatest rebuilds in sports history. Scott has 500 wins.

Bryce played under both Homer (head coach) and Scott (assistant coach) at Valpo before taking over the program in 2011 and accumulating 124 wins in five seasons. Add 40 more at Vanderbilt plus his time at GCU and Bryce has 304 as a head coach.

» NBA EXPERIENCE

Drew played six NBA seasons after being drafted 16th overall by the Houston Rockets in 1998, where he started 41 games in 2000-01. In 1999, the NBA awarded him with the Henry P. Iba Citizen Athlete Award for sportsmanship.

The 6-foot-3 point guard, who also played for the Chicago Bulls and New Orleans Hornets, was known for his perimeter shot (37% 3-point shooting).

He is one of 21 active Division I head coaches to play in the NBA.

NOTES

THIS SEASON

- » ALL-MW: Earned All-MW third-team honors. Was 10th in scoring during conference play (15.2 ppg) and ninth in 3s per game (1.85).
- » FAMILIAR FACE: Alongside teammate Caleb Shaw, one of two returning rotation players for an otherwise revamped Lopes roster.
- » MW OPENER, LOPES LEADER: Led GCU with 20 points in the program's first conference game in the Mountain West.

OTHER NOTES

- » HISTORIC SCORING OUTBURST: Scored a GCU season-high 31 points vs. Bryant on Dec. 30, 2024 — including 25 in the first half — marking the program's first 30-point effort off the bench in the Division I era and one of only four 30-point games in the WAC last season.
- » WAC IMPACT PLAYER: Ranked among the WAC's top 11 in free throw percentage (76.9%) and assists (2.4 per game) in 2024-25, after winning WAC Freshman of the Year honors in 2023-24 at UT Arlington.
- » STEADY PLAYMAKER: Logged 14 double-figure scoring games and a rare five-assist, five-steal performance vs. Abilene Christian on Jan. 16, 2025, becoming just the second GCU player to achieve that feat against a Division I opponent.

NOTES

THIS SEASON

- » 20-POINT MARK: Set season high with 20-point effort on Jan. 17 in the Lopes' win over No. 23 Utah State. Moore said he committed his life to Christ the day before: "I actually gave my life to Christ yesterday ... I felt like I was on that fence. Yesterday, I told him, I'm all in."
- » MW HONORS: Alongside teammate Jaden Henley, named to the 10-player All-Mountain West Preseason Team and was selected as the league's Preseason Newcomer of the Year. GCU and San Diego State were the only teams with multiple players selected.

OTHER NOTES

- » MID-MAJOR NATIONAL STAR: Captured the 2025 Lou Henson Award at Norfolk State after averaging 18.7 points and shooting 54.5% from the field — the only guard nationally to pair 18+ points with over 52% shooting.
- » GCU CONNECTION GAME: Scored 17 points with three steals against GCU on Nov. 22, 2024, inside Global Credit Union Arena — a performance that helped spark his transfer destination decision for his final collegiate season.
- » WELL-TRAVELED SCORER: Across stints at Norfolk State and Murray State has amassed more than 1,100 Division I points and showcased elite scoring at every level.

NOTES

THIS SEASON

- » HE'S BACK: Missed Jan. 24 to March 3 games with injury. Missed first meeting with Nevada. Played 16 minutes in March 7 return.
- » FAMILIAR FACE: Alongside teammate Makaih Williams, one of two returning rotation players for an otherwise revamped Lopes roster.

OTHER NOTES

- » ELITE 3-POINT SHOOTER: Led the WAC in 3-point percentage among high-volume shooters in 2024–25, hitting 42.6% overall and 46.7% in conference play — the fifth-best single-season mark in GCU's D-I era.
- » IMPACT OFF THE BENCH: Served as GCU's first sub in 17 games and started three straight in December, highlighted by a 22-point, 7-rebound performance vs. Life Pacific and a perfect shooting night (6-for-6) vs. UT Arlington.
- » BASKETBALL FAMILY LEGACY: Son of GCU assistant coach Casey Shaw and nephew of head coach Bryce Drew, continuing a multigenerational basketball lineage that includes collegiate and professional success. Grandfather is Homer Drew, a College Basketball Hall of Famer. Brother, Luke, is a true freshman on the Lopes. Older brother, Isaiah, began his career at GCU before transferring to Valparaiso and Northern Arizona.

NOTES

THIS SEASON

- » LATE-YEAR SCORING: Posted new career high in points in back-to-back games to close regular season (10 at Air Force on March 3, 12 vs. Fresno State on March 7).
- » BLOCK PARTY: Set GCU's single-game D-I blocks record with six to fuel the Lopes' win over No. 23 Utah State on Jan. 17.
- » INJURY RETURN: Missed the majority of the 2023-24 season at Louisville and the full 2024-25 season at GCU due to injury. Started five games during his freshman campaign at Louisville.

OTHER NOTES

- » DEFENSIVE FORCE: Former five-star prospect with a 7-foot-7 wingspan who averaged nearly six blocks per game as a senior at Hillcrest High School (Riverside) and once recorded a state-record 16-block performance.
- » INTERNATIONAL GOLD MEDALIST: Won gold with the USA Basketball U17 Men's National Team at the FIBA Championships in Malaga, Spain, showcasing elite rim-protecting ability on the global stage.

NOTES

THIS SEASON

- » MW RANKS: In conference play, ranked 10th in rebounding (5.2) and sixth in blocks (1.3).
- » DOUBLE-DOUBLE: Recorded first of his career on Jan. 27 at Nevada and repeated at San Diego State on Feb. 17.
- » PHX ARRIVAL: Joined GCU in August 2025 after playing in Turkey's top leagues, describing the transition as "everything is much bigger, more comfortable and much better." Took in an Arizona Cardinals preseason game and traveled to Sedona and the Grand Canyon during his first week in Phoenix.

OTHER NOTES

- » INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE: Competed for Anadolu Efes S.K. and Pinar Karsiyaka, averaging 3.6 points and 2.7 rebounds in the Turkish Basketball Champions League, including an 18-point, 7-rebound performance in his final game.
- » FIBA RISING STAR: Named one of FIBA's top 10 rising stars at the U18 European Championships and helped Turkey win bronze at the 2023 FIBA U19 Basketball World Cup.

NOTES

THIS SEASON

- » ALL-MW: Landed on the all-defensive team and was an All-MW honorable mention. Ranked fourth in rebounding (8.0) and third in steals (1.8) in conference play.
- » IMPACT TRANSFER: Joins GCU for his fifth college season as part of a top-40 nationally ranked transfer class per 247Sports.

OTHER NOTES

- » IVY LEAGUE STAR: Earned Second Team All-Ivy honors at Brown in 2023-24 after recording 11 double-doubles and a standout 19-point, 15-rebound performance in an Ivy League Tournament upset over Princeton.
- » DOMINANT REBOUNDER: Ranked second in the Ivy League in rebounding in 2022-23.
- » INSTANT FIT: Took part in his first summer workouts at GCU after transferring, noting how the experience stood out from his Ivy League years where offseason team activities weren't permitted.
- » RECRUITING CONNECTION: Attended a GCU home game during his redshirt year in February 2025 on an official recruiting visit while injured, where the gameday energy and fan atmosphere played a key role in his decision to transfer.
