LARAMIE, Wyo. (March 3, 2026) – It was a back-and-forth, hard-fought affair all night, but in the end, the Wyoming Cowgirls got the defensive stops they needed in the final minute to escape with a 59-57 Senior Night victory Tuesday in a gritty win over Grand Canyon. Wyoming got two stops in the final 44 seconds to hang on for the thrilling win.

Wyoming came out cold to start the game, missing its first four shots before driving layups from Jane Rumpf and Payton Muma got the first points of the game. The Cowgirls scored the first six points Tuesday and led 8-8 at the first media timeout as the cold shooting then returned for UW. Following the timeout, GCU took its first lead of the game and continued its run to take a 12-8 lead. Wyoming closed the quarter with the last three points and trailed 12-11 going to the second.

The Cowgirls got the first two buckets of the second quarter, forcing a quick Grand Canyon timeout a minute into the frame. After the timeout, the Wyoming lead was nine thanks in large part to Malene Pedersen and Henna Sandvik. From there, the Lopes clawed their way back before the end of the half and cut the UW lead down to 24-19 going into halftime as the Cowgirls offense remained stagnant for the first half.

After Wyoming got the first hoop of the third quarter, the Lopes went on a 13-2 run to go up by four as they started getting hot offensively. The Cowgirl offense continued its struggles as they trailed 37-30 at the media timeout as GCU couldn't miss from the outside. Out of the timeout, the Cowgirls would get to within two a couple times as a Pedersen 3-pointer, Wyoming's first of the game, made it 44-42. Grand Canyon held onto a 46-44 lead going into the fourth.

A Sandvik jumper tied things to begin the fourth quarter before the two teams started trading baskets. A Pedersen layup after a lengthy defensive possession by the Cowgirls gave Wyoming the lead with 7:23 to play. UW built the lead up to 54-48 before a quick response from Grand Canyon. The Lopes would tie the game at 55-55 before three straight points from the Brown & Gold with under two minutes left.

From there, GCU would respond once again, this time getting to within one on the next possession. From there, the Cowgirls clamped down defensively on one trip and then after a made free-throw were able to force a miss with under four seconds left and secured the rebound and the win, the next time down the floor. UW was also able to win an out-of-bounds challenge with 14 seconds left to be able to get to the line to go up by two.

"I think this was the epitome of the 'Cowgirl Toughness' that we talk about," said Head Coach Heather Ezell.

"Where you have to just grind out the win and to do it for the seniors tonight, we were going to leave everything out on the court. A handful of players, that's exactly what they did."

Pedersen recorded a game- and team-high 20 points as she recorded her 17th-career 20-point game in her final home contest as a Cowgirl. Pedersen also made Wyoming's lone 3-pointer on the night. Pedersen had a masterful all-around game, grabbing five rebounds, recording five assists and tallying a steal in the win.

Sandvik closed with 16 points, four assists and a block while Rumpf finished with eight points. Off the bench, Madi Symons was dynamite, scoring eight points and grabbing eight rebounds to go along with a pair of assists. Logann Alvar had a block and five rebounds on her Senior Night while Aurore Eyango had three assists and played strong defense in her final home game in the Brown & Gold.

As a team, the Cowgirls shot 23-for-53 (43.4-percent) from the floor but went just 1-of-11 from beyond-the-arc. The Lopes shot 21-of-62 (33.9-percent) and made just 6-of-24 from 3-point range. Four of those 3-pointers came in GCU's 27-point third quarter. UW made three more free throws and was plus-one on the boards.

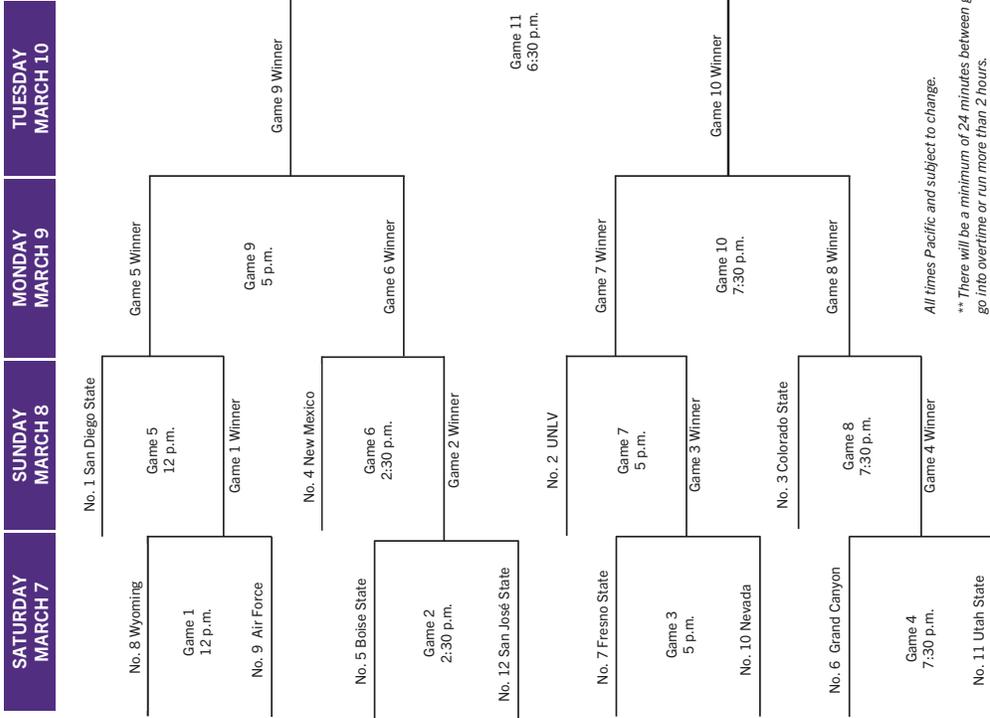

Grand Canyon had a 12-11 edge in points off turnovers as both teams committed 11 miscues. Wyoming held a 32-28 margin in points in the paint while the Lopes had a 9-5 advantage in second-chance points. The Cowgirls got 11 points from their bench while GCU had 13.

SCOUTING THE OPPONENT - AIR FORCE

SCOUTING AIR FORCE

Air Force is averaging 59.4 points per game and are allowing 62.9 a contest. The Falcons are shooting 35.3-percent from the floor overall and just 27.4-percent from 3-point range. AFA opponents are shooting 44-percent overall and 34-percent from beyond-the-arc. Air Force, as always, is disruptive on defense, forcing 17.4 turnovers per contest and averaging nearly nine steals a contest. The Falcons are minus-2.3 in rebounding margin but average a league-best 12 offensive rebounds per game.

The Falcons are led by the league's leading scorer in Milahnie Perry, who is averaging 17.1 points per game and is the program's single-season record holder for points scored. Perry is second on the team with 69 assists. Jayda McNabb continues to be Air Force's Swiss Army Knife, as she leads the team in rebounding (7.6), assists (80), steals (66) and blocked shots (26). Keelie O'Hollaren is second on the squad in scoring with 8.8 points per game and leads the Falcons with 43 3-pointers.

LAST TIME AGAINST AIR FORCE

USAFA, Colo. (Feb. 25, 2026) – The Wyoming Cowgirls led for almost all of regulation Wednesday on the road, but in the end, the Cowgirls failed to get defensive stops in the fourth quarter and overtime as they fell 69-61 in OT. Wyoming failed to execute on both ends of the court in the final five minutes of regulation as it committed six fourth quarter turnovers. The Falcons were able to control things in the game's extra frame as UW fell to 0-2 in overtime games this season.

Both teams started off trading baskets to begin the game as the Cowgirls had an early 7-4 lead. From there, Wyoming kept scoring the ball inside off assists and carried a 11-8 advantage into the first media timeout. Following the timeout, the two defenses started stepping up, forcing turnovers and missed shots. UW led 18-14 after one as Payton Muma scored the final five points in the frame for the Cowgirls.

Wyoming opened the second with a 10-2 run and opened up a 28-16 lead midway through the frame. The Cowgirls led 28-18 at the second quarter media timeout. After the timeout, it was Air Force's turn for a run as the UW offense went cold and started turning the ball over, while the Falcons started crashing the offensive glass. AFA ended the final 5:01 of the half on a 12-1 run and cut the Wyoming lead down to just 29-28 at halftime.

Air Force opened the second half exactly where it left off the first and took its first lead of the game. From there, the Cowgirls would respond right back with three consecutive hoops to reclaim the lead. Henna Sandvik came alive for the Brown & Gold in the third quarter and helped UW to a 38-33 lead at the first media timeout of the half. Out of the timeout, both offenses struggled to end the quarter for the most part, as a Madi Symons layup to end the third helped Wyoming carry a 44-37 lead into the fourth quarter.

After a Malene Pedersen mid-range jumper opened the scoring in the fourth, the Falcons were able to counter back. The Wyoming lead was trimmed down to only 54-53 at the final media timeout as it struggled to get defensive stops as Air Force made some low-percentage shots to get to within one. Following a Cowgirl turnover, AFA was able to get a layup on the other end to push out in front for the first time since the opening minute of the second half. UW barely got any stops down the stretch as the Falcons wouldn't relinquish the lead in the final minutes. However, a Jane Rumpf layup with 3.1 seconds left tied things at 59-59 to force overtime.

Overtime went exactly the same as the fourth did, as Air Force couldn't miss a shot and scored the first seven points of the extra frame to take control early. The Cowgirls forced OT but never threatened in the extra five minutes of action. A Sandvik layup were the only points for Wyoming in overtime as it has been outscored by 18 in its two overtimes this season.

The Cowgirls shot the ball fairly well from the floor, going 26-of-59 (44-percent) but made just 3-of-15 from 3-point range and went 6-for-9 from the free-throw line. Air Force, meanwhile, shot just 37.3-percent, but went 8-of-14 in the fourth and made 5-of-18 from beyond-the-arc. The Falcons also made 14 free throws. UW committed 17 turnovers for the game, leading to a 19-4 Air Force advantage in points off turnovers. The Falcons had an 8-3 edge in second-chance points while UW outscored AFA 44-36 in points in the paint.

Pedersen led Wyoming with 17 while Sandvik had 16 as they were the only two to finish in double figures. Jane Rumpf led the Cowgirls with seven rebounds while adding four assists and three blocks. Sandvik was a menace defensively, recording a career-high five blocks and drew the primary defensive assignment on the league's leading scorer, Milahnie Perry, holding her to nine points on 3-of-13 shooting. Perry entered Wednesday averaging over 17 points per game. Muma recorded a career-best seven assists on the day.

HEATHER EZELL

University of Wyoming
Head Women's Basketball Coach

Heather Ezell will be in her fourth season as the head coach of the Cowgirls in 2025-26 after spending the seven previous seasons on the UW staff, including three seasons as the associate head coach. In her inaugural campaign leading the Cowgirls, Ezell set a program record for wins by a first-year head coach with 23. Wyoming finished second in the Mountain West and made an appearance in the MW Tournament Championship Game, as well as the Women's NIT. Ezell helped guide a trio of All-Mountain West student-athletes in Allyson Fertig, Malene Pedersen and Quinn Weidemann in 2023.

In 2024-25, Ezell led the Cowgirls to a program record 14 conference wins. Wyoming finished second in the Mountain West in '24-'25 and made it to the Mountain West Tournament Championship Game for the second time under Ezell. A trio of Cowgirls received All-Mountain West honors on the season as Allyson Fertig became the third Cowgirl in Mountain West history to be named the league's player of the year. Emily Mellema became the fourth Cowgirl in MW history to be named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year. Malene Pedersen, meanwhile, was named to the All-Mountain West Team. Ezell guided Wyoming to 22 victories in 2024-25, the second time the Cowgirls have eclipsed 20 wins under Ezell's leadership. UW was selected to play in the WBIT for the first time in program history to cap Ezell's third season at the helm.

In 2023-24, Ezell led Wyoming to an 18-win season, a third-place finish in the Mountain West and an appearance in the Great Eight of the WNIT. Ezell helped guide a pair of Cowgirls to All-Mountain West honors as Allyson Fertig was named to the All-MW Team for the second consecutive season, while Emily Mellema was named to the All-Defense Team. Fertig becomes the first Cowgirl to be named all-league for the second straight time since Liv Roberts in 2016-17 and 2017-18.

In 2023, Fertig and Weidemann were both named to the All-Mountain West Team, becoming the first pair of Cowgirl teammates to be named to the all-league team since 2018-19. Weidemann was also named to the league's All-Defense Team while Pedersen was named the Mountain West Freshman of the Year.

In her first seven seasons with the program as an assistant, the Cowgirls won 130 games, including a run of three-straight 20-plus win seasons from 2017-19 and a Mountain West Tournament title and NCAA Tournament appearance in 2020-21. UW has played in the postseason five times (4 WNIT, 1 NCAA) with Ezell on staff, has had 18 All-Mountain West performers and 48 MW Scholar-Athletes.

She came to Wyoming after spending four seasons at Southeast Missouri State. She joined the staff in 2011 and was responsible for working with the guards along with organizing practices, game day preparation and running summer camps. In 2012-13, she helped mentor Kara Wright to an Ohio Valley Conference All-Newcomer selection, marking the first Redhawk to earn postseason honors since the 2008-09 season.

Ezell spent the 2010-11 season as an assistant coach at Fairfield University, where the Stags posted a 17-13 overall record and a 10-8 mark in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference. She worked primarily with perimeter players while assisting in the day-to-day operations of the program, including practice and game planning, recruiting and coordinating the team's community service efforts.

Ezell had a highly decorated career both collegiately and professionally which began as a four-year letterwinner at Iowa State University (2005-09). She finished her career tied for the Cyclones' career record with 287 made three-point field goals and finished 10th in program history with 1,339 points. In her senior season, Ezell earned Second Team All-Big 12 honors. She ranked 27th nationally with 2.5 three-point field goals made per game and eighth in the Big 12 with 3.5 assists per contest. Ezell also earned a spot on the 2008 Big 12 All-Tournament Team and helped the Cyclones to three NCAA appearances including the Elite Eight in 2009.

Ezell moved onto the professional level in 2009-10, playing in Iceland for Haukar where she was named Best Player in the Iceland Express League. She led the league in points and steals while finishing second in assists and rebounds. She also earned Most Valuable Player recognition in the league's All-Star Game.

A native of Springfield, Mo., Ezell led her Kickapoo High School team to two state championships and a 113-7 record during her prep years. She was named Miss Show Me Basketball as Missouri's top player in 2005. Ezell graduated from Iowa State in 2009 with bachelor's degrees in management and marketing.
