MISSY'S MESSAGE

"It never gets old getting your name called on Selection Show Day," Sun Devil Women's Golf Head Coach Missy Farr-Kaye mentioned following ASU's inclusion in the NCAA postseason. "I'm very proud of this team and how they have positioned themselves all season to make a run in the postseason."

"We are quickly shifting our focus towards having a great week of preparation before hosting," Coach Farr-Kaye added. "This is a great site selection for us. We can't wait to be able to compete for a spot in the NCAA Championship in front of our fans. This team is confident and ready to make a deep run in May."

GOLD CANYON REGIONAL HOSTS

The eight-time national champion Sun Devil Women's Golf team will remain in the state of Arizona after being selected to the Gold Canyon NCAA Regional, hosted by Arizona State University running May 5-7. Each regional will feature 12 teams and six individuals, with a total of 30 teams advancing to the National Championships to be played May 16-21 at Omni La Costa Resort & Spa in Carlsbad, California. The top two individuals (12 total) from non-qualifying teams from each regional will also advance to the Championship. Arizona State is one of six programs hosting a NCAA Regional with the event being held at Superstition Mountain Golf and Country Club in Gold Canyon, Arizona. It will be the first time that Sun Devil Women's Golf has hosted a regional since 2009.

BY THE NUMBERS

45

Career appearances for senior Grace Summerhays, which is the most of any Sun Devil. 42 of those have come in stroke play events.

8

The Sun Devils are one of just eight Division I Women's Golf teams to earn a spot at NCAA Regionals every year for the past 32 seasons. Only traditional powers Arizona State, Arizona, Duke, Florida, Stanford, USC, UCLA and Wake Forest have qualified for a regional each time since the postseason format changed in 1993.

5

Arizona State is one of only five schools to receive a Top-3 seed in each of the last five NCAA Regional selections. They are joined by only Wake Forest South Carolina, LSU, and USC in this exclusive group, an indicator of the consistent success of Coach Farr-Kaye's program.

SCHOLAR ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

- Sun Devil Women's Golf's Grace Summerhays was recognized as the 2025 Big 12 Women's Golf Scholar Athlete of the Year.
- Has been a steady presence in the lineup, performing admirably for an Arizona State team consistently ranked in the Top-10.
- Maintained a 3.99 GPA and is on her way to earning a degree in Communication in just seven semesters.
- Eighth recipient of the honor from Sun Devil Women's Golf, the most of any athletic program at ASU.

ALL-CONFERENCE HONORS

- Arizona State landed four individuals on the Big 12 All-Conference team, the most selections in the league.
- Patience Rhodes, Beth Coulter, Paula Schulz-Hanssen, and Isla McDonald-O'Brien were recognized for their spectacular seasons.
- This is the fifth consecutive year that at least two Sun Devils have received All-Conference distinction. For the fifth time in the Missy Farr-Kaye era, ASU had four or more honorees.
- Of the 11 All-Conference selections made by the league, four of them were Sun Devils.

REGIONAL HISTORY

- The program has claimed or shared a total of five Regional team championships, with the last coming during their National Championship run in 2017.
- In 2024, the Sun Devils had an impressive showing at the Cle Elum Regional, finishing fourth on their way to reaching the NCAA Championship in Carlsbad.
- Arizona State emerged victorious the last time they hosted a NCAA Regional in 2009 at Karsten Golf Course.

LAST TIME OUT

- Sun Devil Women's Golf mounted a massive comeback to force a team playoff for the Big 12 Women's Golf Championship.
- No. 8 Arizona State (+19/871) entered the last day 11 strokes behind overall leader No. 30 Oklahoma State and five strokes shy of No. 19 Arizona, but managed to finish even with both teams by the end of the third round.
- A three-team playoff would ensue, with all five golfers hitting the course and the cumulative score serving as the deciding factor for the title. The Wildcats edged Arizona State by one stroke in the playoff to earn the Big 12 Women's Golf Championship.
- Junior Beth Coulter (E/213) was a major reason behind the surge on the final day. She delivered one of the best rounds in program history at a conference championship.
- Coulter fired a 66 (-5), which tied conference medalist Kansas State's Sophie Bert for the best score on the day and the tournament. In fact, it is tied for the second-lowest score in the history of the Big 12 Women's Golf Championship.

MIKAYLA TATMAN PROMOTED

- Assistant Coach Mikayla Tatman was promoted to Associate Head Coach earlier in the season.
- In the midst of her second season in Tempe, Tatman has been critical to the success of the program.
- Arizona State has won four tournaments in her two seasons and qualified for the 2024 NCAA Championship.

NORDQVIST SOLHEIM CAPTAIN

- Sun Devil Athletics Hall of Famer and women's golf legend Anna Nordqvist (2007-09) was named the captain for Team Europe for the 2026 Solheim Cup, to be held 7-13 September at Bernardus Golf in North Brabant, Netherlands.
- Nordqvist has already established herself as one of the premiere competitors in Solheim Cup history and will look to add to her lore in the iconic event.

A TRADITION LIKE NO OTHER

- During the past five decades, many of the premier amateur women's golfers have called Arizona State University home. Arizona State won its NCAA-leading eighth national championship title in 2017 to reinforce its standing as the premier women's golf school in the country.
- Under legendary Head Coach Linda Vollstedt, the program became the first in women's collegiate golf to win six championships in a decade (1990, '93, '94, '95, '97, '98).
- ASU remains the lone program to ever capture three national titles in a row (1993, '94, '95).
- The Sun Devil Golf programs did something in 1990 that had never been done before and hasn't been accomplished since. ASU swept both the Men's and Women's Team National Titles in 1990, becoming the first school to capture both championships in the same year.

EMPTY THE NOTEBOOK

- Arizona State is one of ten teams that returns four golfers who competed at 2024 NCAA Championship.
- Missy Farr-Kaye enters her tenth season as the Head Coach of Sun Devil Women's Golf. She is tied with Bobby Hurley (Men's Basketball) and Greg Powers (Hockey) as the second-longest tenured Sun Devil Athletics Head Coach. She trails only Zeke Jones, who is getting ready for his 11th year at the helm of the Sun Devil wrestling program.
- ASU will play in the state of Arizona for the fourth time this year. Regular season events already had them playing Superstition Mountain Golf Club (Gold Canyon), Wigwam Golf Club (Litchfield Park), and Papago Golf Club (Phoenix).
