ASU SOCCER GAME NOTES

QUICK KICKS...

• Arizona State will continue their road stand this week with a Friday match at Northern Arizona in Flagstaff, before returning home to face Weber State Sunday afternoon at Sun Devil Soccer Stadium. Friday's match is scheduled for a 7 p.m. (PT) kickoff while Sunday's match is slated for a 1 p.m. start.

• The weekend matches provides the Sun Devils their final non-conference matches before beginning Pac-12 play at Cal. on Sept., 22.

• The Sun Devils have been doing a great job of making the most of their goal scoring opportunities through the 2018 season. In Monday's win over the Jackrabbits, ASU carded a .667 shots on goal percentage, marking a new season high for the Sun Devils. The team's previous high came in Friday's loss to Baylor, where the team placed three of their five shot attempts on goal to end the match with a .600 percentage.

• Despite the limited time as a full strength squad this season, the Sun Devils are starting to hit their stride on both sides of the pitch. Offensively, ASU has outscored their opponents 10-4 on the season, product of a 75-46 advantage in shots so far this season. In goal, both Sydney Day and Nikki Panas have been solid for the Sun Devils, each coming up with nine saves on the season.

• This weekend brings another slate of challenging games against a pair of teams who pride themselves on their oppressive defense. NAU enters the Friday match up tied for second in the Big Sky in goals allowed per game, trailing only Weber State, the Sun Devils' Sunday opponent, in that category.

• Arizona State's talented freshman class has continued to impress through the first four weeks of the season. In Monday's win, ASU saw both Alexia Delgado and Nicole Douglas find their way onto the score sheet. With the two goals Monday, nine of Arizona State's 10 goals this season have come from freshman players, while senior transfer Casey Martinez accounted for the 10th.

CONFERENCE OF CHAMPIONS LEAD THE WAY IN SOCCER...

Four Pac-12 teams are ranked in the top-25 of the United Soccer Coaches Poll for the fifth week in a row. With Stanford at No. 1 for the fifth-straight week and USC jumping up to No. 3, the Pac-12 is the only conference in the nation to have two teams ranked in the top-five every week this season. UCLA is No. 8 and Washington State takes the 16th spot, maintaining its undefeated record. Arizona, California, Colorado and Oregon all received votes.

NEW LOOK SUN DEVILS...

Arizona State welcomed an incredible 18-player signing class during the offseason. The impressive class includes seven players from Arizona, six from out of state, as well as five from overseas. Entering the third week of the regular season, Arizona State's five-highest point leaders are new to the roster in 2018. Nicole Douglas, a freshman from Staines, Middlesex, England, has scored four goals, and leads the team with eight points on the year. Just behind her, fellow freshman Alexia Delgado has amassed four points with two goals already this season.

POSESSION PARAMOUNT FOR SUN DEVIL SUCCESS...

Winkworth has made it his mission to play possession soccer here at ASU, and the squad has done just that through the first three games of the season. Entering this weekend's matches, the Sun Devils have completed nearly 80 percent of passes on the season. Individually, freshman Alexia Delgado has done a great job protecting the ball, completing nearly 90 percent of her passes against New Hampshire. On defense, ASU has held opposing teams to under 75 percent of their passes this season. All this has added up to ASU leading time of possession in all five games played this season.

FULL SPEED AHEAD FOR (NEARLY)FULL STRENGTH SUN DEVILS...

This weekend's games will mark the first full week of practices with a full Sun Devil roster. After Winkworth welcomed and 18-player signing class during the offseason, a full strength ASU team has yet to hit the field this season. Two weekends ago, both Nicole Douglass and senior captain Jemma Purfield were unavailable for a contest against New Hampshire. The following Sunday, Douglas was back in Tempe, but Purfield remained inactive while competing in Norway. This all came a week removed from the Sun Devils welcoming both Alexia Delgado and Eva Van Deursen to campus after the two talented freshman completed their stints at the U20 World Cup. Following the return of Purfield to the lineup for last week's games, this upcoming weekend will prove the first full week of camp where Winkworth will have his entire roster available to him.

NICOLE FOR GOAL...

Freshman forward Nicole Douglas has made an immediate impact on the Sun Devil roster. The talented striker enters this weekend as ASU's leading scorer this season with four goals. Having only played a combined 283 minutes, Douglas has torched opposing defenses, leading to a goal every 70 minutes of playing time this season.
