--Everyone loves Remy. Those in maroon and gold really love Remy because his two best scoring games are 31 (95-88 double overtime win on Jan. 31) and 27 (final game of regular season on road on March 9) as he led ASU to first sweep over Arizona since 2008-09 and first win in Tucson since 2010.

SUN DEVIL DATA

- Got hops? Remy does...he has a 40-inch standing vertical jump.
- ASU has averaged 80.04 points per game the past two seasons, tops in the Pac-12, and a big reason why is Remy's ability to push the ball and find open shooters any way possible (between the leg passes are somewhat normal).
- Earned second-team All-Pac-12 honors by the league's coaches in 2018-19 and was the Dec. 17, 2018, Pac-12 Player of the Week. Notched 21 points, grabbed a career-best eight rebounds, and added five assists and three steals to spark the Sun Devils back from an 18-point deficit to a 76-74 victory at Georgia on Dec. 15, leading to his Dec. 17 Pac-12 Player of the Week Award. He had 12 points, five boards, two assists and two steals in the second half, including back-to-back baskets inside the final 3:11 which gave ASU its first lead of the game at 71-70

- Led the Pac-12 with a 2.4 assist-to-turnover ratio and second in league at five assists per game.
- Had his November and early December of 2018 ruined by a bum ankle but was the only player with 11-assist in a Pac-12 road game this year (11 at UCLA) and his 10 made free throws vs. Arizona matched the most in a league tilt.
- ASU had been to four NCAA Tournaments (1995, 2003, 2009 and 2014) in 26 seasons (1992-2017) and had not made March Madness in back-to-back years since 1980-81, but Remy has played in the NCAA Tournament in each of his first two seasons, as four years after hiring Bobby Hurley, ASU is the only Pac-12 school to make the NCAAs the last two seasons

OFF THE BENCH IN 2017-18

- The Pac-12 Sixth Man of the Year officially returned for the first time in 30+ seasons in 2017-18 and freshman Remy Martin shared the award with CU's Dom Collier. Players must not have exceeded more than 1/3 starts in league games. The previous Pac-10 Sixth Man of the Year was awarded from 1984-87.
- Martin – with zero starts -- averaged 9.6 points, had 94 assists and was 71-of-94 (.755) from the free throw line in 23.8 minutes per game.
- Had 20 double-figure scoring games including 15 of the final 21 tilts.
- Season-best 21 at No. 2 Kansas on Dec. 10.
- Against Utah on Jan. 25, he had a personal second-half 10-0 run in 2:18 that gave ASU a three-point lead after being down seven.
- At WSU on Feb. 4, he had all 10 points in the final 6:20 and added two steals as ASU outscored WSU 19-9 in final seven minutes. He also had 20 in the Pac-12 Tournament loss to Colorado.
- Explosive, fast and never stops...pressures the ball as well as anyone with incredible athletic ability.

BEFORE WEARING THE SUN DEVIL UNIFORM

- Got it done in the classroom as well in high school with a 3.4 grade point average.
- From Chatsworth, Calif., and Sierra Canyon High School. Played AAU and high school basketball with Marvin Bagley III. Averaged 11.5 points, 6.9 assists, 3.3 rebounds and 2.1 steals in senior year. Coached in high school by Ty Nichols.
- Helped Sierra Canyon to four wins in five days in two states against some of the top teams in the nation in January of 2016. It ended with a 76-74 win over La Lumiere of Indiana, ranked No. 1 in the nation by several polls, as Remy had 18 points, including a three-point play that gave Sierra Canyon the lead for good at 61-60.

- Sierra Canyon won the Bass Pro Tournament of Champions in Missouri, rallied from a nine-point third-quarter deficit to defeat previously unbeaten La Lumiere at the Hoop Hall Classic in Springfield, Massachusetts. It was Sierra Canyon's third consecutive victory over a team ranked in the top 10 of a national poll after beating Findlay Prep (Nevada) and Memphis East (Tennessee) to win the 2017 Bass Pro Tournament.
- Had 22 points in 83-79 win over Oak Hill Academy on Dec. 15, 2016.
- ESPN placed him at No. 85 in its final spring rankings.
- Scout.com considers him a four-star prospect, ranking Martin 77th overall.
- Also played some high school football early in his career.

SUN DEVIL DATA

- Dropped buckets in some big wins in 2018-19, with 15 off the bench vs. #1 Kansas, 19 vs. Arizona, 28 at Utah and 13 at Oregon State
- We like him at the free throw line. Want proof? He hit two with 12 seconds left in 70-67 win over Oregon to give ASU the three-point lead on Jan. 17. ASU made 6-of-8 in final five minutes against No. 1 Kansas, including two by Rob with six seconds left to make it a two-possession game
- Entered ASU with 909 points in 63 games (14.4 ppg.). He has 1,219 career points (13.4 average). Included in that is 71-of-85 (.835) from the free throw line in 2018-19 and .776 (274-of-353) in his career along with 163 three pointers. He missed six games early and only scored 14 points in the first nine games (14 in opener, six DNPs due to a back injury and zero points vs. Nevada and Georgia)
- Stats last year look a lot better when you remember he went from Nov. 7-Dec. 16 without scoring a point. In those three games he did play, he was 4-of-26 (.154) from field and 2-of-9 (.222) from three and had 14 points (all against CSF in the opener). Many didn't notice because ASU was 6-0, and two of the wins were very impressive (Mississippi State and Utah State)
- Became the fourth Sun Devil to earn Pac-12 Player of the Week last year when ASU topped then No. 1 Kansas 80-76 on Dec. 22 behind his 15 points off the bench points (13 in the second half).

– Mike Krzyzewski

One of the most recognizable names in college basketball history became the 14th men's basketball head coach in Sun Devil history, as Vice President of Athletics Ray Anderson named 1992 NCAA Final Four Most Outstanding Player Bobby Hurley as the Sun Devil head coach on April 9, 2015.

What has followed is aggressive scheduling, lots of fast-paced hoops, playing hard, several big time wins -- both home and away -- and back-to-back NCAA Tournaments for Arizona State for the first time since Byron Scott, Fat Lever and Alton Lister were wearing Sparky on their short shorts (1980-81 to be exact).

Four years removed from the hire Sun Devil basketball has matched its highest ranking in school history (third in the Associated Press Poll in December of 2017), its best two average attendances in history, reached the NCAA Tournament for just fourth time in 23 seasons in 2018 and then followed it with back-to-back appearances for the first time since 1980-81, notched its best two non-conference wins in school history (vs. No. 1 Kansas on Dec. 22, 2018 and at No. 2 Kansas on Dec. 10, 2017) and defeated two eventual 2018 No. 1 seeds in a span of a few weeks (Kansas and Xavier).

Hurley in 2018-19 led ASU to a 23-11 overall mark and 12-6 in the Pac-12, good enough for second in the league for just fourth time in 41 years of Pac-10/12 play after being picked sixth in the preseason media poll. ASU defeated No. 1 Kansas on Dec. 22, the first win over No. 1 at home in program history and just the second all-time. ASU notched its first NCAA Tournament win since 2009 and posted 23 wins for just the eighth time in school history. Prior to its past two appearances, ASU had made the NCAA Tournament three times in the previous 22 seasons (1996-2017). ASU has averaged 80.04 points per game the past two seasons, tops in the Pac-12 and had not made March Madness in back-to-back years since 1980-81, yet now ASU is the only Pac-12 school to make the NAAs the last two seasons.

ASU had two-game sweeps of Arizona (first since 2008-09), Oregon State (first since 2009-10) and Cal (second straight). ASU beat No. 15 Mississippi State on Nov. 19 and Utah State on Nov. 21 to win the 2018 MGM Resorts Main Event at T-Mobile Arena, its second straight exempt tourney title after not winning one since November of 1994.

In 2017-18 ASU averaged a school-record 10,603 fans, as the 4,103 extra bodies from 2016-17 to 2017-18 was the second-best increase in all of college hoops. In the 2018-19 season 168,602 fans entered Wells Fargo Arena -- an average of 10,538, second-best in school history.

His first season at ASU saw the Sun Devils notch eight top-100 RPI wins, including wins over SEC co-champion Texas A&M, Ohio Valley top seed Belmont and two Pac-12 NCAA Tournament teams (Oregon State and USC). ASU's strength of schedule was 23rd and its non-conference schedule was 13th. ASU earned come-from-behind road wins against Creighton (79-77 on Dec. 2) and UNLV (66-56 on Dec. 16).

Hurley, an NCAA champion with Duke in 1991 and 1992, led Buffalo to a school record-matching 23 wins in 2014-15, its first Mid-American Conference title and a trip to the 2015 NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. The Bulls fell to West Virginia in the second round, snapping an eight-game win streak that was Buffalo's longest in a decade. After going to Division I status in 1991-92, Buffalo averaged 12.9 wins in its 22 seasons prior to Hurley, but was 42-20 in his two years, which included playing 29 games on the road.

He coached the MAC Players of the Year in back-to-back seasons and led Buffalo to its first outright MAC East Division title in 2013-14. Buffalo went 10-7 on the road in 2014-15, including games at Kentucky and Wisconsin when it led at the half in both contests.

In 2013-14 Hurley was named a finalist for the Joe B. Hall Award, which is given to the nation's top first-year head coach. Javon McCrea was named the MAC Player of the Year and became UB's all-time leading scorer during his senior season as the Bulls won 19 games in Hurley's first year at the helm.

Hurley joined UB from the University of Rhode Island where he served as associate head coach under his brother Dan.

A first-team All-American in 1993, he is best remembered for arguably being the best point guard in NCAA history. Hurley led the Blue Devils to three Final Four appearances and consecutive national championships in 1991 and 1992, and set the NCAA record for career assists with 1,076.

He was selected seventh in 1993 by the Sacramento Kings and played five years in the NBA with the Kings and Vancouver Grizzlies.

Hurley joined the Philadelphia 76ers as a scout in 2003 before venturing into private business. He was hired as an assistant coach at Wagner College in 2010 and spent two seasons with the Seahawks, playing a critical role in rebuilding the program. He helped lead Wagner to a 25-6 record during the 2011-12 season – its best record in school history – before joining Rhode Island, where he was associate head coach.

His father, Bob, Sr., is a legendary coach in the high school ranks, leading perennial power St. Anthony's to 26 state championships and more than 1,000 wins in 39 years of coaching. He was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2010. Hurley's brother, Dan, is the head men's basketball coach at UCONN, after successful tenures at UCONN and Wagner College and an outstanding prep school coaching career.

Hurley and his wife, Leslie, have two daughters, Cameron and Sydney, and a son, Bobby.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

RASHON BURNO

"Imagine Rashon Burno coming to your home and recruiting you – I'd give him my kids in a second."

– Jay Sharman, TeamWorks Media CEO of TeamWorks Media and Emmy-award winning TV Producer.

Rashon Burno, assistant coach at the University of Florida from 2012-15, joined the Arizona State University men's basketball coaching staff in July of 2015.

Burno, who held collegiate coaching positions at Towson State, Manhattan College and the University of Nebraska – the latter post he accepted in May after Florida head coach Billy Donovan was named head coach of the NBA's Oklahoma City Thunder.

"I am thrilled we were able to complete our staff with Rashon who not only is a great coach and recruiter but someone I am very familiar with," said Hurley. "He was part of a Final Four trip at Florida and is extremely connected and respected in the coaching world. He has a great family and is a great addition to Sun Devil Basketball."

Burno's ties to Hurley's family go all the way back to his high school career as he helped anchor back-to-back national championships in 1996 and 1997 at St. Anthony's High School (Jersey City, New Jersey,) under Hurley's father, Hall of Fame coach Bob Hurley Sr.

Burno, who played point guard during his college career at DePaul, worked with the Florida backcourt players, coaching three Gators to All-SEC honors (Kenny Boynton, Mike Rosario and Scottie Wilbekin) in his tenure. Wilbekin became the first Gator guard to earn SEC Player of the Year in 2014.

In Florida's historic 2013-14 season, the Gators posted a 30-game winning streak that included the SEC's first 18-0 regular season, capped with the fourth SEC Tournament title in school history. In 2013-14, UF compiled an unblemished 10-0 record in games Burno served as the scout coach, including an early season win against Kansas, a sweep of Alabama, conference wins over LSU and Ole Miss and the NCAA Tournament victory against Albany. UF's win over Kansas kicked off Florida's program-record 30-game winning streak.

The Gators also posted an 11-1 record in 2012-13 when Burno handled the opponent scout, including a 5-0 record in SEC regular-season play and an NCAA Tournament victory over Northwestern State. Florida went 29-8, including a 14-4 record in the SEC, during the 2012-13 season, losing in the Elite Eight to Michigan.

As an assistant coach at Manhattan College, Burno helped the Jaspers to a 21-13 record in 2011-12 – the team's first season under head coach Steve Masiello. The Jaspers added a postseason win in the CollegelInsider.com Tournament to post just the 11th 20-win season in the 106-year history of the program while capping a massive 15-win turnaround for a team that went 6-25 in 2010-11.

Burno's first college job came in 2010 at Towson State under his old coach at DePaul Pat Kennedy. His coaching career initially took root at Marmion Academy in the Chicago suburbs from 2007 to 2010. While at Marmion he also served as an economics and physical education teacher.

During his playing career at DePaul, Burno started 58 games and helped the Blue Demons to two postseason appearances, advancing to the 2001 NCAA Tournament and the 2000 National Invitational Tournament. He finished his career ranked third in DePaul history with 201 steals and was named to the 2001 Conference USA All-Tournament Team.

Burno and his wife, Ellen, have three children, Micah, Rashon and Braxton

ERIC BROWN

ASSISTANT COACH

Los Angeles native and 20-year assistant coach veteran Eric Brown joined Bobby Hurley's staff in summer of 2019 after working for three seasons at UNLV, a dozen at Long Beach State and early stints at Iowa State, Cal State Northridge and USC.

After his first season with the Runnin' Rebels, he helped bring in a recruiting class for the 2017-18 season that was ranked as high as No. 12 in the country and included McDonald's High School All-American Brandon McCoy and National Junior College Player of the Year Shakur Juiston.

The 2017-18 team won 20 games, which marked the first 20-victory campaign for UNLV in four years.

It was also a nine-game improvement in the win column over the previous season.

With Brown's involvement the team also performed academically, setting program records with a 3.17 grade point average for spring 2018 and back-to-back semesters with a collective GPA of at least 3.0.

Brown came to Las Vegas after spending the previous nine years as an assistant coach at Long Beach State where he helped lead the 49ers to three Big West Conference regular-season titles, three NIT appearances and a spot in the 2012 NCAA Tournament.

He was named one of the Top 25 Assistant Coach Recruiters at the mid-major level by a panel of national media, scouts and former coaches, and was No. 3 in 2011 on the Basketball Times list of the Top 50 "Low to Mid-Major Assistant Coaches."

Brown has been an assistant coach at the Division I level for two decades, having also spent time at Cal State Northridge (1999-01), USC (2001-05) and Iowa State (2005-06).

At Iowa State he worked with the ISU perimeter players, including all-conference selections Curtis Stinson and Will Blaylock. The Cyclones led the Big 12 in scoring that season at 76.6 points per game and Blaylock finished ninth in the nation in assists.

At USC under Henry Bibby, his duties included offensive coordinator, recruiting, scouting and the development and workouts of USC's post players. In his first year with the team, USC's offense posted several marks that were among the school's all-time top 10. The Trojans' scoring average in 2003 (76.5) and 2004 (75.4) were among the top 45 in the country. As a recruiter, Brown signed three players at USC that were ranked in the top 100 nationally.

USC's forwards and centers earned numerous honors during his time with the Trojans. Jeff McMillan was named the 2004 Pac-10 Newcomer of the Year and forward Sam Clancy was the 2002 Pac-10 Player of the Year.

In the 2007 NBA Draft, Brown had two players he recruited to USC realize their NBA dreams. Nick Young was a lottery pick by the Washington Wizards and Gabe Pruitt went in the second round to the Boston Celtics. He also coached former NBA player Robert Swift at USC.

At Cal State Northridge under Bobby Braswell, he helped lead the Matadors to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in school history in 2001. In three years, he coached eight All-Big Sky players, including 2001 Big Sky Conference MVP Brian Heinle. Three players Brown signed at CSUN earned 2002 Big West All-Freshman honors, including three-time first-team All-Big West selection Ian Boylan.

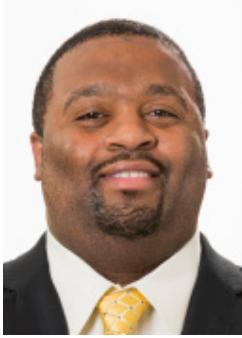

During Brown's time at Long Beach State, the team boasted a high scoring offense. In 2015-16, Long Beach State averaged 74.0 points per game, second in the Big West and shot 37 percent from 3-point range, a percentage that was best in the conference. The 49ers also made a school record 287 3-pointers in 2015-16.

While at Long Beach State Brown recruited and helped develop All-Big West Conference Players Casper Ware, Larry Anderson, Eugene Phelps, T.J. Robinson, James Ennis, Mike Caffey, Dan Jennings, David Samuels, Nick Faust, Justin Bibbins and Travis Hammonds. Ennis and Ware have both played in the NBA.

A Los Angeles native, Brown lettered four years at Grant High School and played a year at Valley College in 1993. He received his bachelor degree from Cal State Northridge in sociology in 1998.

Brown began his coaching career at Grant High in Van Nuys (1995-97). While there, he coached a pair of all-city players, including former Arizona guard and NBA All-Star Gilbert Arenas. From there he served as an assistant coach at Los Angeles Valley College in 1998 where he helped the Monarchs to a 22-10 mark. Five players from the 1998 L.A. Valley team went on to play for Division I schools.

Brown and his wife, Stephanie, have a daughter, Taya (4), a son, Troy (2) and Sloane (born in summer of 2019).

RASHEEN DAVIS

ASSISTANT COACH

Bobby Hurley added former UMASS assistant coach Rasheen Davis in the fall of 2019, as the addition to the program brings strong east coast ties.

Davis was a part of the highly-successful VCU staff in 2015-16 that had Atlantic 10 All-Conference First Team selection Melvin Johnson, who became the Rams' all-time leader in three-point field goals. On the defensive side, Davis helped develop VCU's 2-2-1 zone press, which helped the Rams to 51 victories and a pair of NCAA Tournament berths over his two seasons with the squad.

Davis was the associate head coach at Manhattan College for three seasons from 2012-15, during which the Jaspers won 58 games, took home the 2014 and 2015 MAAC Tournament Championship titles and advanced to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances.

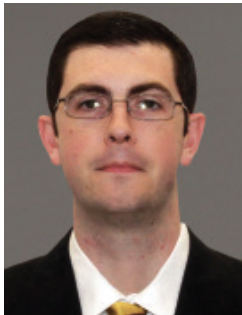

Davis coached at Xavier under Chris Mack for two seasons, when the Musketeers secured back-to-back NCAA Tournament berths in 2011 and 2012. Davis helped the program to 47 wins during his two seasons, including 25 in the A-10. He helped mentor seven all-conference choices and guided Tu Holloway to the 2011 Atlantic 10 Player of the Year Award and all-America status.

Davis brings a well-rounded resume to Tempe, including time spent as a program assistant at Louisville (2007-08), video coordinator at Pittsburgh (2008-09), assistant coach at St. Thomas Aquinas College (2002-05) and a coach at the high school and AAU level for Rice High School (N.Y.) from 2005-07 and the New York Gauchos, respectively.

Davis earned a bachelor's degree in social science from St. Thomas Aquinas in 2002 and received his master's degree in guidance and counseling from the College of New Rochelle in 2005.

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO HEAD COACH

BEN WOOD

"Ben's energy and passion for the job will be a tremendous asset for Arizona State. His background that includes being a part of a NCAA championship program is outstanding and he will play a big role in every part of our Sun Devil program."

– Coach Bobby Hurley

The Sun Devil men's basketball program welcomed former Buffalo assistant coach Ben Wood to Bobby Hurley's staff as Special Assistant to the Head Coach in April of 2015.

"Ben's energy and passion for the job will be a tremendous asset for Arizona State," says Coach Hurley. "His background that includes being a part of a NCAA championship program is outstanding and he will play a big role in every part of our Sun Devil program."

Wood was in charge of several operations as Buffalo earned a trip to the NCAA Tournament for the first time, including team travel and film exchange. He served in a similar capacity at Rhode Island prior to joining the Bulls, as he spent the 2012-13 season as the Rams' director of player development, running the team's video operations, coordinating film exchange and opponent breakdowns and edits.

The Woodbury, CT, native oversaw Rhode Island's community relations program, the staff of team managers and served as the staff liaison with the academic services office.

Wood earned both bachelor's (2007) and master's (2009) in geography from UCONN where he served as the head manager for the men's basketball team. He was part of the staff that won the 2011 National Championship. He served in numerous capacities at Connecticut - most recently as the Huskies' head graduate manager, and was part of program advanced to two Final Fours and three Elite Eights.

During his time at UCONN, Wood was also a part of a program that won two Big East Championship teams (2006 and 2011). From 2007-11, he was the co-director of the Jim Calhoun Basketball Camp, which featured more than 1,200 youth aged 8-17 each year. Wood was responsible for hiring camp's coaches, administrative and support staff and worked with University Residential and Meal Services department to make all housing and meal arrangements.

COACHING LEGEND NED WULK

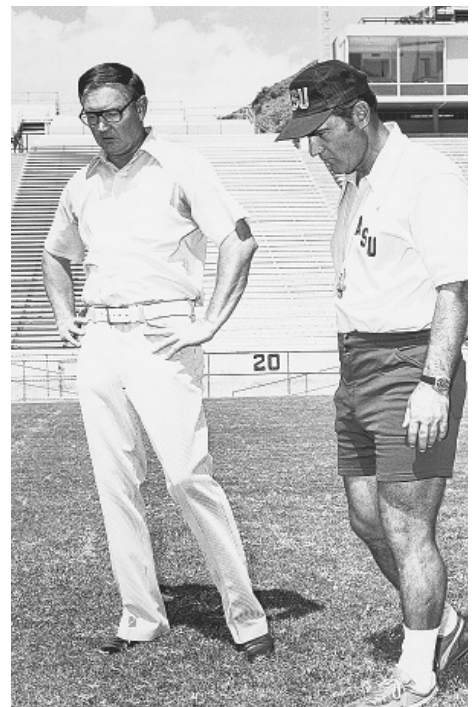

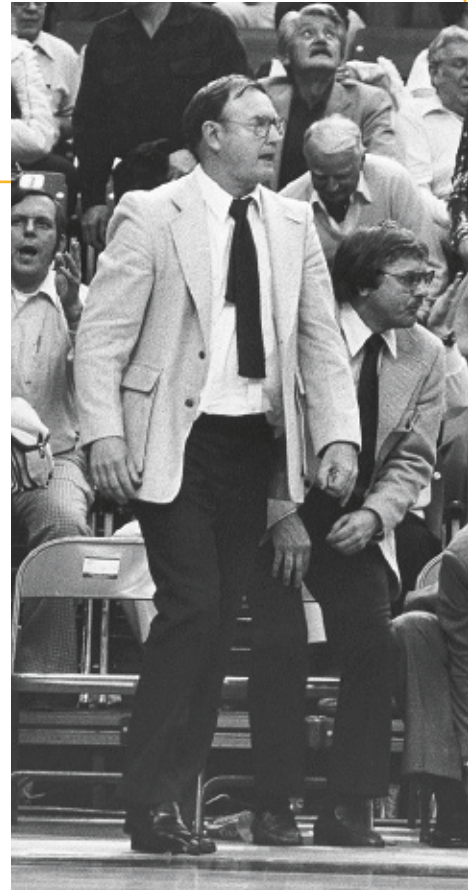

2003 Pac-10 Hall of Honor Inductee

Born: Aug. 14, 1920

RIP: Nov. 15, 2003

Hometown: Madison, Wis.

- ASU named its floor in 1999 after Coach Ned Wulk, who was 406-272 (.599) at ASU from 1958-82. Wulk posted amazing success in Tempe, as he was 94-24 (.797) in home contests in the former University Activity Center.
- ASU won its first 20 games in the UAC from Dec. 3, 1974 through Jan. 10, 1976, which is still a building record. Three times Wulk's troops won 14 games in its home arena.
- In the 25 years Wulk coached at ASU, he had 17 winning seasons and led ASU to nine NCAA Tournaments and two National Invitational Tournaments. His teams were one game away from the Final Four three different times – 1961, 1963 and 1975.
- The most Sun Devil wins in a season is 26, which was achieved by Wulk's 1963 team, and his 1962 club won a school-record 18 straight. Also was ranked as high as third, best ranking in school history.
- Pac-10 runner-up twice in six seasons, and in the 16 years of play in the Western Atlantic Conference, Wulk's team finished below fifth place only four times. In the five seasons that ASU was a member of the Border Conference under Wulk, the team finished at the top of the conference four times.
- Completed his 25th year at ASU with an upset-victory over undefeated, top-ranked and Pac-10 champion Oregon State in March of 1981.
- The 1979-80 season was one of Wulk's most prolific, as the Sun Devils finished 21-6, and second in the Pac-10 at 15-3, with a national top-20 ranking in both wire service polls and an NCAA Tournament berth. Wulk was selected as the Pac-10 Coach of the Year.

MIAMI — The star shot terribly, so much so that it dominated the game. Another double-digit lead was nearly lost. And at one point, the best shooter on the team hurt so badly he had to call timeout as he dribbled up court.

Arizona State's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2003 was crowned with drama, but the sixth-seeded Sun Devils showed off their skill and talent in a game that was not just a game in the first round of the 66-57 in Phoenix at ASU Arena.

SUN DEVIL JOE CALDWELL

2005 Pac-10 Hall of Honor Inductee
1975 Arizona State Hall of Fame Inductee
Arizona State Three-Year Starter (1961-64)
B.A., Selected Studies, 1997

- The second pick in the 1964 NBA Draft by the Detroit Pistons, the highest selection by a Sun Devil. Played with the Pistons from 1964-66, the St. Louis Hawks (1966-68) and the Atlanta Hawks (1969-70) before finishing his professional career in the ABA with the Carolina Cougars (1970-74) and Spirit of St. Louis (1974-75).

- Finished his ASU degree 33 years after his career was over in 1997 with a B.A. in selected studies.

- Inducted into the Arizona State Hall of Fame as a charter member in 1975 after an incredible career that saw his Sun Devil teams post records of 23-4 in 1961-62, 26-3 in 1962-63 and 16-11 in 1963-64. Overall, the Ned Wulk-coached Sun Devils were 65-18 (.783) in Caldwell's three years and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in each season. He was team MVP in 1962-63 and in 1963-64 and a team captain all three seasons.

- His 1962-63 Sun Devil squad set the school record with 26 wins and beat UCLA 93-79 in the second-round of the NCAA Tournament in Provo on March 15. That loss was one of the few the Bruins would have in the next decade, as they would win 10 of the next 12 NCAA titles.

- One of only two Sun Devils to make the United States Olympic team as he was on the 1964 gold-medal winning United States squad in Tokyo.

- A three-year starter who earned Sporting News honorable mention All-American honors in 1963-64.

- Earned All-Border Conference in 1961-62 and then earned All-WAC honors the next two seasons (1962-63 and 1963-64). His 1961-62 team went 10-0 in the Border Conference, the first time a Sun Devil squad has gone undefeated in conference play, while the next two years ASU was 16-4 in WAC play.

- His 1,515 points was first on the ASU career list when his career ended.

- Twice notched 21 rebounds in a contest, against Colorado State on Jan. 11, 1964, and vs. Whittier on Dec. 1, 1962. Averaged 21.8 points per game in 1963-64 and his 330 rebounds that year is fourth-best in Sun Devil history.

- The Outstanding Player of the 1963 ASU Holiday Classic, as ASU beat Oklahoma and California for the title.

EVERYONE LIKED IKE

Ike Diogu became the first consensus All-American (second-team) in ASU history in 2004-2005 and was the first AP Preseason All-American in the fall of 2003. Here's a highlight of Diogu's top awards in his three-year career:

Associated Press Second-Team All-American (2004-2005)
Associated Press Honorable Mention All-American (2002-2003 and 2003-2004)
2005 Pac-10 Player of the Year
Three-Time All-Pac-10 Selection (2003-2005)
NABC Second-Team All-American (2004-2005)
USBWA Second-Team All-American (2004-2005)
Sporting News Second-Team All-American (2004-2005)
Basketball Times Second-Team All-American (2004-2005)
Associated Press Preseason All-American (2003-2004)
2003 Pac-10 Freshman of the Year

"Oh my goodness, is he terrific. It does not require any particular genius to see Diogu's greatness. Just spend two hours in the gym with him. He communicated with his teammates on defense. He just played, and played really hard. Hard not to love him."

– Mike DeCourcy, Sporting News

"Ike Diogu doesn't miss much. On the basketball floor, that's one of his trademarks. Preparation plus anticipation equals efficiency. For Diogu, it's a well-practiced equation." – Norm Frauenheim, Arizona Republic

"Diogu is so down to earth that he's an anomaly among the bling-bling generation. He doesn't have a single tattoo. He doesn't wear an earring. He says, 'Yes sir' and 'No sir' and, as a result, he is bringing ASU the kind of publicity you couldn't buy with a ton of gold bullion."

– Dan Bickley, Arizona Republic

"He is a fundamentally sound player who can play with his face or back to the basket, and he might be the hardest worker on the team. He awoke an assistant coach at 11 p.m. last Friday in his Los Angeles hotel to watch game film before Saturday's game against Southern California. Off the court, he is well-grounded. His father, Edward, is a high school French and English teacher. Mom Jane is a fifth-grade teacher. Asked in a media guide Q&A with whom he would like to have lunch if he had his choice of anyone, he answered, 'My parents.'"

– Greg Boeck, USA Today

"Diogu is the whole package – brains, ability, size and work ethic. Diogu keeps his mouth shut on the court, too. In a sport filled with trash-talkers, Diogu's full concentration goes into the game. He is all fundamentals and no flash."

– Ken Goe, Portland Oregonian

Eddie House won his fourth Pac-10 Player of the Week Award in 1999-2000 on Feb. 21, joining Ed O'Bannon (UCLA in 1994-95), Chris Mills (Arizona in 1992-93) and Gary Payton (Oregon State in 1989-90) as the only Pac-10 players to have won the award four times in a year. House had a stranglehold on the Pac-10 Player of the Week, as he won it three straight weeks at the beginning of the year (Dec. 20, Jan. 2, Jan. 10), the first time any Pac-10 Player has won the award in one season in three straight weeks (Gary Payton won it three straight over the course of two seasons). He earned the honor five times in his career.

Sophomore center Lew Alcindor responded with one of the greatest performances of his legendary career, scoring a conference-record 61 points in UCLA's 100-78 victory over Washington State.

More on the 61:

House's 18 FTs (19 attempts) at California on Jan. 8 is a school record...the last major college player to score more was Kansas State's Askia Jones, who had 62 vs. Fresno State on March 24, 1994...the 19th player to notch a 60-point game against a D-I team (24 occasions)...House outscored 55 Division I TEAMS on Jan. 8...it is only the fifth time since 1978 that a player had more than 60 in a game involving two D-I teams...was just 11 points shy of NCAA record (two D-I teams), as Kevin Bradshaw of U.S. International had 72 in 1991 vs. Loyola Marymount, but Bradshaw was 23-40 while House was 18-of-30.

A couple of memorable box scores from 1981: On the left, ASU's 78-74 triple overtime win over eighth-ranked UCLA – one of the most exciting Pac-10 games ever. Nine of the 10 starters went on to NBA careers. On the right, fifth-ranked ASU's stunning 87-67 upset at unbeaten and top-ranked Oregon State on the final day of the regular season (March 7, 1981).
