HEAD COACH KEITH GAVIN

Fifth Season | Career Record: 34-25 | Pitt, '08

Nobody knows what it takes to win in wrestling at the University of Pittsburgh better than Keith Gavin.

After years of competing as a professional on the international stage while building his reputation as a coach, Gavin returned to his alma mater in 2017 with the goal of helping young men at Pitt achieve what he did in 2008: win a national championship.

Since being named the 11th head coach of the Pitt wrestling program by Director of Athletics Heather Lyke, Gavin's leadership has seen the Panthers return to the upper echelon of the ACC – and nationally.

Pitt's progress on the mat was on full display for all of college wrestling to see during the 2021 NCAA Championships. Two Panthers – Jake Wentzel (165) and Nino Bonaccorsi (197) – followed up their ACC titles by advancing to the national finals and securing NCAA All-America status at the national tournament in St. Louis. All five Panthers that qualified for NCAAs won at least won match and helped Pitt finish with 40.5 points, placing 11th in the nation – its best team finish at NCAAs since 1970 – largely thanks to the program placing two Panthers into national finals in the same year for the first time since 1963.

For his role in leading the Panthers to historic success at nationals in 2021, Gavin was named the ACC Co-Coach of the Year. The awards continued to roll in after the season, with four Pitt wrestlers being named to the All-ACC Academic Team and three Panthers honored as Scholar All-Americans by the NWCA. Bonaccorsi followed up his ACC and NCAA accolades by emerging on the freestyle scene; the Bethel Park native won the UWW U23 Nationals title at 92 kg and represented Team USA at the 2021 U23 World Championships in Serbia.

The 2019-20 campaign, Gavin's third in charge of the Panthers, saw Pitt continue to take improve dramatically as a wrestling program. While hosting the conference tournament at the Petersen Events Center, the Panthers crowned three ACC champions – Micky Phillippi (133), Jake Wentzel (165) and Demetrius Thomas (285) – and challenged NC State to the wire for the conference title before earning second place with 77 team points. Pitt qualified seven athletes for the 2020 NCAA Championships, which were cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. However, Pitt's trio of ACC champions and Nino Bonaccorsi (184) were all named All-Americans by the NWCA following the season.

In Gavin's second season as head coach, Pitt earned a fourth-place finish (41 team points) in the ACC Championship, with two Panthers earning ACC titles in Micky Phillippi (133) and Demetrius Thomas (285) and another two placing second in their respective weight classes (Taleb Rahmani, 157 and Nino Bonaccorsi, 184). Redshirt junior Kellan Stout (197) rounded out the group of Panthers that punched their tickets to the NCAA Division I Wrestling Championship, which was held in Pittsburgh for the first time since 1957. Pitt placed 34th in the nation, with three Panthers competing in the Round of 12.

During the regular season, Gavin helped the Panthers flip their record from 4-11 (2-3 ACC) to 13-3 (3-2 ACC) in just one season. This record marked the fifth time in program history and the first time since the 2013-14 season where the Panthers were able to finish with 13 wins on the year. Likewise, Gavin led four Panthers to earn a spot on the All-ACC Wrestling Team that season. During his first season at the helm of his alma mater, Gavin saw three Panthers earn a third-place finish at the ACC Championships while four competed at NCAAs.

At the end of the year, he was awarded the Amateur Wrestling News Rookie Coach of the Year for his efforts in the improvements the Panthers made throughout the season. Gavin also oversaw a program-best four wrestlers make it on the All-ACC Academic team and would help prepare Pitt to serve as host institution for the 2019 NCAA Wrestling Championships at PPG Paints Arena.

Gavin, a 2008 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, stepped into his first head coaching role and returned to his alma mater after spending a year with Oklahoma as an assistant as well as three years at Virginia also as an assistant.

As a Panther, Gavin was the 2008 174-pound NCAA champion and a two-time All-American. His 120 career wins rank eighth in program history. Gavin is a two-time EWL champion, two-time EWL Wrestler of the Year and is a member of the EWL Hall of Fame.

Gavin was a member of the U.S. national team for over six years, placing third at the 2012 U.S. Olympic Trials before capturing the U.S. National Championship in 2013 and 2014.

Gavin leads a historic Pitt wrestling program that has produced 82 All-Americans and 16 national champions.
