SUN DEVILS HOST LUMBERJACKS

McInerney's 34th year at the helm begins

TEMPE – After a fall season packed with action and an early-year tune-up against some of the best competition the NCAA has to offer at the Michigan Invitational, the Sun Devil women's tennis team returns to the friendly confines of Whiteman Tennis Center to host a familiar foe in Northern Arizona.

The Sun Devils and Lumberjacks have met 13 times since 2003, all in Tempe, and ASU has gone a perfect 21-0 against NAU since the programs' first meeting.

"The start of the dual match season is always a lot of fun for the players and the coaches," head coach Sheila McInerney said.

Saturday's action will mark the first dual match of the 2018 season for both squads, and the first dual match for several ASU newcomers, including Lauryn John-Baptiste, who comes into the weekend with the team's best singles record after a 3-0 run in Ann Arbor.

"Hopefully Lauryn picked up some confidence from last weekend," McInerney said. "Last weekend was indoors, and she likes to play indoors, so this weekend will be a different setting. But we still expect her and the others to compete hard and good things will happen."

The Sun Devils' "super six" will feature several new and young faces with just one senior expected to take to the court in Nicole Fossa Huergo.

"We're a little short-handed without Kelley and Sammi, but no one is going to feel sorry for us, so we just have to go out there and play well," McInerney said. "We've got six good players and if we stay healthy, we'll be OK."

The action in Tempe begins at noon MST at the Whiteman Tennis Center. Entrance to the match is free and live results will be available on thesundevils.statbroadcast.com.

TEAM NOTES

RANKINGS UPDATE

The Arizona State Sun Devils came in at No. 24 in the ITA's latest poll, holding firm for the second-straight week despite a tough slate at the Michigan Invitational.

The Devils are currently the fourth-highest ranked program in the Pac-12 behind No. 1 Stanford, 11th-ranked Cal and No. 17 UCLA.

Individually, the Sun Devils have two women ranked in the ITA top-125 with Savannah Slaysman leading the charge at No. 83. Senior Kelley Anderson checked in 10 spots later at No. 93.

Both of ASU's ranked women will hold their places until the next singles update in February, but they could be joined by another Sun Devil in the next release as true freshman Lauryn John-Baptiste has gotten off to a scorching start this spring, topping two ranked opponents and going 3-0 at the Michigan Invitational a week ago.

THE ROAD TO 500

Sun Devil head coach and American tennis legend Sheila McInerney has been the epitome of consistency and success, having made 30-straight NCAA tournaments, all while at ASU.

She is the joint-longest tenured coach in school history, and is closing in on yet another career milestone with the Sun Devils: 500 career wins.

The stellar record can be attributed to a consistent run of 12-straight seasons with records above .500, and only two losing seasons since she was handed the reigns in 1985.

McInerney enters 2018 with 495 dual match wins, winning 63 percent of her matches since 1985. She is currently sixth on the list for most wins by a coach in ASU history, and 14 wins away from the top-five.

DYNAMIC DUOS

The fall season saw the Sun Devils soar in doubles play as they won 15 matches and lost only six, including three-straight wins at the Thunderbird Invitational in November.

With an impressive resume of doubles wins, the ITA and the nation took notice and put three Sun Devil pairings into the preseason top-30 poll.

The veteran duo of Nicole Fossa Huergo and Kelley Anderson earned the highest ranking of the trio, coming in at No. 26, and two pairings that include sophomore Savannah Slaysman came in at 28 and 32.

Slaysman and Tereza Kolarova debuted at No. 28, and Slaysman and Sasa Klanecek slotted in at No. 32.

In the past 33 years, Sheila McInerney has seen a vast amount of change at Arizona State, from new athletic directors, new head coaches, schools added to the conference, and numerous renovations to athletic facilities. Through the countless changes across Arizona State, McInerney has continued to lead the women's tennis program in a successful direction heading into her 33rd season.

In Arizona State's history, no coach has the number of accolades that Sheila McInerney has accumulated during her 33-year tenure as a Sun Devil. Since her first season as head coach in 1985, Sun Devil women's tennis has won 495 matches, advanced to 31 of 32 NCAA Tournaments, including 29 straight, and has finished each season in the top 38 nationally. That's the second most wins by any Arizona State coach in school history. In the 2016 season, McInerney was named the Southwest Region Coach of the Year by the ITA, as well as the Pac-12 Coach of the Year. She also was awarded the 2016 ITA Meritorious Service Award, which is given to an ITA coach who has gone "above and beyond" in their commitment and contributions to the ITA and college tennis in general.

In recent years, Arizona State's tennis program has continued to thrive on and off the court. On the court, the Sun Devils have 86 wins against ranked opponents since 2008. Leading the way for the tennis program have been 45 All-Americans and 41 All-Pac-12 student-athletes. Of these integral players in Arizona State's history, there have been 40 players ranked in the Top 50 of the singles season-end ranking and 21 in the Top 25 of the doubles season-end ranking.

In the classroom, McInerney has recruited bright student-athletes. She has had four Academic All-Americans, 45 ITA Scholar-Athletes (since 2002), and 80 Academic All-Pac 12 student-athletes (since 1991). Of those 45 ITA Scholar-Athletes, four were named in 2015 – Alexandra Osborne, Aubria Solares, Gussie O'Sullivan and Kassidy Jump. Her players have had majors such as Bioscience, Business Management, Criminal Justice and Criminology, English, Journalism, Kinesiology, Marketing, Political Science, and Sociology.

McInerney has also been fundamental in helping players' development to reach high achievements in the NCAA. Among the achievements include Jacqueline Cako named Arizona State Female Athlete of the Year (2013), Michelle Brycki awarded Cissie Leary ITA National Sportsmanship Award (2012), Kelcy McKenna selected as the Pac-12 Post-Graduate Scholar (2011), four singles and four doubles All-Americans since 2009, 14 players ranked in the singles season-end ranking and seven doubles teams ranked in the doubles season-end ranking since 2009.

Prior to coming to Arizona State, McInerney served as assistant women's tennis coach at the University of Southern California during the 1983-84 season, in which the Trojans were NCAA finalists. In addition to her success as a collegiate coach, McInerney has traveled with various USTA junior and national teams. At the 1986 Goodwill Games, McInerney coached the team to gold and silver medals. In 1987, she led the U.S. Pan American Games doubles squad to a gold medal.

McInerney attended USC, where she captained the Trojans during her senior season. The four-time All-American also was a four-time Trojan Spirit Award winner, as voted by her teammates. The Trojans won three national championships during McInerney's collegiate career, and she was the national collegiate doubles runner-up three times and a singles semifinalist in 1977. McInerney collected a half-dozen USTA national titles and was a member of the 1977-80 USTA Junior Federation Cup team. As a professional, she played on the major international tour, earning a world ranking in the top 75. McInerney competed at three grand slam venues -- Wimbledon, French Open and the U.S. Open where she reached the round of 32. She also served a short term as assistant pro at the highly acclaimed L.A. Tennis Club.

McInerney earned a bachelor's degree in public relations from the University of Southern California in 1980. A member of the Dean's List at USC, she won the USC Postgraduate Scholarship Award, the USC Junior Student-Athlete and Senior Student-Athlete awards.

Matt Langley

Head coach Sheila McInerney announced in 2015 that Matt Langley would join the program as an assistant coach and in 2017, Langley was named associate head coach.

Langley joined the Sun Devils from Middle Tennessee State University, his alma mater, where he most recently served as assistant coach for its women's tennis program. At MTSU, Langley helped coach the Blue Raiders to one of their best seasons in program history, recording a 19-5 overall record, 7-1 in Conference USA competition.

A member of the MTSU men's tennis team from 2009-12, Langley was a two-year co-captain and three-time Sun Belt Conference Champion, earning two Most Outstanding Player honors at the Sun Belt Conference Championships. Langley also recorded three career appearances at the NCAA Championships.

Langley graduated from MTSU with a degree in exercise science, and was a two-time Academic All-American and ITA Scholar-Athlete.

Ebony Panoho is a graduate student assistant for the Sun Devil women's tennis program and former Sun Devil tennis standout. The Brisbane, Australia native won the Pac-12 doubles championship in her senior season with teammate Alexandra Osborne to give ASU its first conference doubles title. She once partnered with 2003 U.S. Open champion Andy Roddick for a mixed doubles exhibition match.

Alexandra Osborne recently graduated from Arizona State after an illustrious career on the court for the Sun Devils. Along with claiming ASU's first ever conference doubles title, Osborne earned the Bill Kajikawa Female Athlete of the Year Award during her senior season, and earned the honor of ITA scholar athlete in 2016 as a junior. She is a native of Sydney, Australia.

Lindy Kyger is the Sun Devils' athletic trainer. She joined ASU this past fall after graduating from the University of South Carolina with a degree in athletic training in 2017. Kryger was born in Pennsylvania, grew up in Massachusetts. She will graduate in 2019 with a master's in higher and post secondary education.

Career Notes

- Began the 2018 campaign as one of two Sun Devils ranked in the ITA top-125...
- She is also one of only a handful of women in the NCAA to be a member of two doubles pairings ranked in the ITA's top-25 (No. 28 and No. 32)...
- Finished her freshman campaign with a 20-12 record, and won 18 doubles matches, while dropping just eight in 201, as well...
- Was one of the hottest players in the nation during the final weeks of the season as she closed with a six-match win streak...
- Slaysman was the No. 1 recruit out of Arizona in 2016 and was named a five-star prospect by Tennis Recruiting Network...
- Slaysman did not have to travel far to continue her tennis career as she is a native of Phoenix.

DUAL MATCH SCORING: NCAA dual matches are played on a best-of-seven point system (the team that earns four of seven points wins the match). One point is awarded to the team that wins two of the three doubles matches. As well, one point is awarded for each singles match that a team wins. Doubles matches are played with eight-game pro sets and singles matches are played with best of three six-game sets.
